Hancock To Open Bids On New Schools

HANCOCK'S NEW SCHOOLS. Bids will be opened Wednesday night at 8 by the Hancock County Board of Education for construction of three new schools in the county system, two of which are pictured here. The single building, an architect's drawing of the Chester Elementary School, will be erected on a 15.8-acre tract which is the site of the former Chester mill. The modernistic building will serve 300 pupils and its cost is estimated at $302,600. The other is an architect's drawing of the North Hancock High School to be built in Pughtown to serve 600 pupils. Kellam & Foley, Columbus architects, have made several changes in the design in order that the campus-styled buildings will blend with the contour of the site along Gas Valley Rd. The board will also construct a new 1,000-pupil high school and 300-pupil junior high school in Weirton. The buildings are part of a $5¼-million expansion program.

3 Collegians Safe After 3 Days In Cave

Ordeal Without Food, Water Ends For Happy Trio

TRENTON, Ga. AP)—A three-day ordeal without food and water ended happily for three collegiate explorers who carved a narrow perch between themselves and eternity inside a muddy cave.

The three—two Eagle Explorer Scouts and a novice — were plucked safe, sound and soggy from a mud bank in the Lookout Mountain cave late Monday—the end of an all-out search begun 36 hours earlier. Fraternity brothers found them in a spot experts had overlooked.

"They're safe!" shrieked their parents when word that the lads were found reached the cave's mouth. More than 150 rescue workers who had toiled in the search bowed their heads in prayer as the famished boys gulped their first hot meal since Friday night.

The three are James Mason, 21; Bill Bartee, 20, both of Atlanta, and Martin Huddleston, 19, of Ormond Beach, Fla. They had told friends they planned to explore the cave over the Easter weekend. They were reported missing when they did not return home as planned Saturday midnight.

Mason and Bartee, who grew up together, are experienced cave explorers. It was Huddleston's first trip underground. "I guess it will be my last," he said with a grin.

Mason and Huddleston are students at Emory University in Atlanta. Bartee attends Presbyterian College in Clinton, S.C.

"We went into the cave about 9 p.m. Friday," said Mason. He said they secured a rope at the top of the mud bank to explore two deep holes about a mile inside the cave—which he and Bartee had inspected many times before.

"We knew there was water down there, but we didn't know how much," he said. "I went down first and hit water about chest deep. The others came on down and found the water soon was over their heads.

Rep. Hays Promises Aid On Lake-River Project

Rep. Wayne L. Hays today promised Chamber of Commerce officials he will "push as hard as I can" to have the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway added to the federal interstate system, which would speed construction by a tremendous increase in the amount of money available.

Rep. Hays met just before noon with the Chamber's highway committee, officers and members of the Board of Trustees of the C. of C. and visiting officials of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association.

Rep. Hays said he and Rep. Robert E. Cook of Kent, the 11th Ohio District congressman, have scheduled a meeting next week with Rex Whitten, federal highway administrator, in which they expect to push for addition of the lake-river road to the interstate system.

State Highway Director Everett S. Preston told Ohio congressmen at a recent meeting in Washington that the East Liverpool-Ashtabula road "has priority" on a list which the state will seek to have added to the interstate system, Rep. Hays said.

Preston made the statement at a meeting of the congressmen with Ohio highway officials and the Ohio Contractors' Association, Rep. Hays said.

At that time, Preston displayed a map of new Ohio highways showing that the state proposes to extend the lake-river road south to Bridgeport, rather than using East Liverpool as its southern terminus, he added.

At Bridgeport, the lake - river road would connect with new Interstate 70, which crosses the Ohio River at Wheeling, the congressman said. This junction would help furnish a new, shorter route between the east coast area around Washington and the Great Lakes, Rep. Hays said.

This also would mean that the lake-river road would connect with two major highways — Interstate 70 and the Ohio Turnpike, the congressman said.

"With Preston and the Ohio congressmen pushing for it, I think we have a good chance" of adding the lake-river road to the federal system, Rep. Hays said.

"When we meet with Mr. Whitten next week, I think he will say that not much mileage is left in the interstate system," the congressman said. "But I want to get this road in line. I think Congress will vote more money for the interstate system. It's inevitable, because Detroit is building cars faster than we build roads."

"I'm optimistic that this road will be the first in Ohio added to the interstate system and probably one of the first in the nation," the congressman continued. "I am very much interested and I will push it as hard as I can."

Council Given New Plan

Gas Concern Cuts Rate Raise Proposal By Half

Resuming negotiations on rates that have been under way since June 1961, the Ohio Valley Gas Co. Monday night offered Council a four-year agreement calling for an overall 10.6 per cent boost—half the amount originally sought.

Council conferred for an hour with Harold R. Sneddon, manager of the utility's local office, and Bruce W. Cox, special representative from the district office at Steubenville, then announced it would take the proposal under advisement and confer with Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper.

The latest proposal would boost the minimum monthly charge to $3, compared with $2.65 at present. The minimum covers the first 1,000 cubic feet.

The next 1,300 cubic feet would be billed at 30 cents per 100, which figures out to $3 per 1,000. Under the present rate, all gas used after the first 1,000 cubic feet costs 77 cents per 1,000.

Under the new proposal, the second stepup in the billing would be 78 cents per 1,000 for the next 298,000 cubic feet. For amounts in excess of 300,000 cubic feet, the charge would be 70 cents per 1,000.

Under the original four-year proposal made by the company in 1961, the minimum charge would have been $3.17 for the first 1,000. The next 2,000 cubic feet also would have been billed at $3.17 per 1,000. The rate would have dropped to 78 cents per 1,000 for the next 298,000 cubic feet and to 70 cents for all over 300,000 cubic feet.

Under the first 1961 proposal, the first 1,300 cubic feet after the minimum would have cost $4.12,

Guido Voids Vote Victory By Peronists

To Call For New Elections; Army Seizes 3 Provinces

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—President Jose Maria Guido today issued a decree nullifying the victories of Peronists in elections of last March 18. The decree declared all elections since December 1961 were void.

Guido's executive order came minutes after army generals took over control of three Argentine provinces from civilian officials.

Guido's action was an apparent prelude to his already announced plans to call a general election before July to choose his successor.

The army took over command in Entre Rios, Santa Fe and Corientes provinces.

Five other provinces — including Buenos Aires — Argentina's largest, already are being ruled by federal interventors appointed by deposed President Arturo Frondizi. In the March 18 elections followers of former dictator Juan Peron, with Communist support, won governorship races in the five provinces.

There were no reports of resistance to the army takeover.

Guido abandoned attempts to get the Chamber of Deputies to pass a Senate-approved bill keeping him in office until 1964 after the navy in a token show of force ordered a marine unit into the capital.

Navy chiefs were reported standing by their vow to use all available means to force Guido to bar the Peronists once more from political life.

The navy has been pressing for a federal takeover in all of Argentina's 22 provinces, a move that would replace all elected officials with federal appointees and dissolve the provincial legislatures.

Military wrath over the Peronist triumphs in last months's balloting led to the overthrow of President Arturo Frondizi March 28.

New Red Satellite Blasted Into Orbit As U.S. Shot Fails

Spacecraft Expected To Crash Moon

Experts Say Device Has Injured Brain Tumbling In Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. AP) —A mooncraft with an injured brain tumbled through space today toward an almost useless collision with the moon after scientists abandoned futile efforts to awaken it from its coma.

The 730-pound silver and gold craft, Ranger 4, will zip by the leading edge of the moon early Thursday and crash at about 8:55 a.m. on its hidden backside, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration says.

The deeply disappointed director of NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory, William H. Pickering, said: "It's kind of fun, though, to hit the backside. It's not everyone who can do that."

Ranger 4 was lifted aloft by a towering Atlas-Agena B booster at 3:50 p.m. Monday in what appeared to be a beautiful beginning. Its assigned job was to gather information, including closeup television pictures, on the composition of the moon.

A NASA spokesman said the Atlas had pushed the vehicle to an altitude of about 100 miles and separated, that the second-stage Agena had pushed the craft into parking orbit and cut off, that the Agena had fired a second time to launch Ranger 4 on the second leg of its journey, that the vehicle was on the proper flight path away from the earth at 24,500 miles an hour.

Two hours later a spokesman said, "Tracking information indicates that a malfunction occurred in the spacecraft telemetry radio) system."

"It does look like we have a fairly significant problem with the spacecraft," said Pickering, minutes later. "We don't really know how major the failure is."

He said it could be in the craft's transmitting system only. However, he added, "There is an indication that the spacecraft has not locked onto turned its solar battery panels toward) the sun. The spacecraft is slowly tumbling."

The fact that it hadn't locked onto the sun, he said, "certainly indicates that the trouble is pretty deep in the brain of the system."

Later, the trouble was tentatively diagnosed as a malfunctioning timer—a clock-like electronic device which was activated a few seconds before launching. It was supposed to provide the timetable for a central computer and sequencer which were to issue steering commands to Ranger 4.

Through the evening, commands were sent to the errant rocket from ground stations in an effort to shock it into action. Shortly before midnight, the Jet Propulsion Laboratory at Goldstone, Calif., issued a statement.

"Since Ranger 4 has not responded to commands from earth stations, a decision has been made not to send the spacecraft midcourse or terminal meneuver commands," the statement said.

Polio Vaccine Arrives For Area Clinics

A total of 20,000 doses of the Sabin oral polio vaccine was delivered here for mass East Liverpool area clinics to be held Wednesday and Saturday.

The Type III vaccine, diluted in distilled water and served in small paper cups, will be administered at the clinics to be held Wednesday and Saturday from 1 to 7 p. m. at Westgate, and East Junior High Schools and the Calcutta fire station, along with the McDonald School at Wellsville.

Volunteer workers will staff the clinics, along with physicians and nurses, as in the Type I clinics conducted in March at the same sites.

Cost of the dose is only 50 cents, or nothing for those unable to pay, according to the Columbiana County Medical Society, sponsoring the series of clinics.

All adults and children are urged to obtain the immunization to protect themselves from crippling polio and to prevent the spread of the disease through carriers, sponsors said.

The Type II vaccine will be administered in the final clinics sometime in May.

A total of 50,000 doses have been delivered to the county for this week's clinics, with 25,000 more on order, as doctors hope to immunize over 60,000. In March about 52,000 received the vaccine.

Other clinic sites are Salinevile High School, Lincoln School at Lisbon, United High School at Hanoverton, East Palestine High School, Salem High School, Joshua Dixon School at Columbiana and Leetonia High School.

$240,000 Loss Seen In Beaver Falls Fire

BEAVER FALLS — Damage was estimated at $240,000 in fire Monday afternoon which swept through a two-story building at 16th St. and 7th Ave. that housed the Garvin Hardware Store.

Four other companies joined Beaver Falls firemen and brought the fire under control in about an hour. A back wall collapsed, endangering the firemen. Four were overcome by smoke.

Scientific Instruments On Sputnik

No Indication Of Soviet Man Being Aboard Spaceship

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union put another scientific satellite into orbit around the earth today as America's Ranger 4 sped through space toward the moon.

It was the first time the two powers had launched space vehicles so close to one another in time.

The Russians said their newest Sputnik, Cosmos III, carried scientific instruments to continue the Soviet program of outer space exploration and a multichannel radio telemetric system to relay information back to earth.

The announcement by the Soviet news agency, Tass, gave no indication that there was a man aboard. Presumably the satellite was unmanned.

"The radio telemetric information received from the satellite shows that the instruments are functioning normally," Tass said.

Cosmos III was the third Soviet satellite to be launched since March 16 after a long period of Soviet inactivity in space. Cosmos I was launched on March 16 and Cosmos II on April 6.

Announced aims of the new Soviet program of space research include investigation of radiation belts and meteorites around the earth and the dangers they may hold for space travelers.

Tass said first estimates showed Cosmos III was close to its planned course and orbiting the globe every 93.8 minutes. It said the orbit's inclination to the plane of the equator was 48 degrees 59 minutes, its farthest distance from the earth 448 miles and its closest 142 miles.

Today's session of the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's parliament, recessed early so the delegates could hear the announcement of the new sputnik.

News of the American moon shot was withheld in Moscow until after the dramatic break in Soviet radio programs to announce the launching of the Russian satellite.

First Tests To Seek Data On Missiles

New U.S. Blasts Likely To Involve Research Devices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first explosions in a new series of U.S. nuclear tests probably will involve research devices intended to yield data on electromagnetic and other effects bearing on defense against missiles.

Later in the two- to three-month series in the Pacific will come proof tests of full nuclear weapons—including all those in the U.S. intercontinental ballistic missile arsenal and submarine-launched Polaris rockets.

Informed authorities said today this is the likely schedule when President Kennedy signals the test go-ahead, maybe within the next few days.

Perhaps three or more of the tests will be at high altitudes ranging from about 30 miles to several hundred miles.

The biggest blast is expected to equal that of about 10 million tons of TNT—far below the 58 megatoner the Russians are said to have detonated in their test series last fall.

Some of the test devices may be fired to high altitudes by missiles. Others will be placed on stands and still others carried into the sky by balloons.

Instruments placed at vantage points throughout the test area around Christmas and Johnston Islands will monitor the effects of these blasts. Among other methods, specially instrumented rockets will be sent up to gauge the fireballs and radiation.

The experts will chart the explosive yield of the devices, the pressures they create, the radiation they release, relationship of damage to distance from the blasts, effects of heat on various materials such as steel and concrete, impact on underground structures such as missile launching bases—these and many more.

The results will be studied and analyzed for months. From them scientists hope to gain knowledge they can translate into new and improved weapons and into missile defenses.

Driver Fined After Hill Rd. 'Chain' Crash

A 23-year-old East End man was fined today in Municipal Court as the aftermath of a "chain reaction" type crash a short time earlier that damaged three autos on the west end of the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Harold S. Williams, 1154 Harker Ave., pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance following the mishap at 8:30 on Pennsylvania Ave. at Vine St.

Police said Williams' 1951 four-door sedan was involved in a collision which also damaged a 1957 model convertible driven by Vicki Lynn Goodballet, 18, of 1534 Globe St. and a 1961 two-door sedan operated by Donald D. Bennett, 31, of 708 Oakland Ave. All three were headed west.

Officers said Williams' car hit the rear of the young woman's auto and drove it forward into the rear of Bennett's car.

Williams said as he rounded the curve at Vine St. he looked down the E. 4th St. grade. Before he could stop, he said, he hit the rear of Miss Goodballet's auto, shoving it into Bennett's.

Miss Goodballet and Bennett told police they were stopped in the traffic lane because another auto was halted ahead to discharge a passenger.

Miss Goodballet was driving an auto owned by Kenneth R. Lane, 108 W. 5th St., officers said. The crash damaged the entire front end of Williams' car, the right front and the rear of Miss Goodballet's auto and the rear of the Bennett auto, police said.

Polio Vaccine Arrives For Area Clinics

A total of 20,000 doses of the Sabin oral polio vaccine was delivered here for mass East Liverpool area clinics to be held Wednesday and Saturday.

The Type III vaccine, diluted in distilled water and served in small paper cups, will be administered at the clinics to be held Wednesday and Saturday from 1 to 7 p. m. at Westgate, and East Junior High Schools and the Calcutta fire station, along with the McDonald School at Wellsville.

Volunteer workers will staff the clinics, along with physicians and nurses, as in the Type I clinics conducted in March at the same sites.

Cost of the dose is only 50 cents, or nothing for those unable to pay, according to the Columbiana County Medical Society, sponsoring the series of clinics.

All adults and children are urged to obtain the immunization to protect themselves from crippling polio and to prevent the spread of the disease through carriers, sponsors said.

The Type II vaccine will be administered in the final clinics sometime in May.

A total of 50,000 doses have been delivered to the county for this week's clinics, with 25,000 more on order, as doctors hope to immunize over 60,000. In March about 52,000 received the vaccine.

Other clinic sites are Salinevile High School, Lincoln School at Lisbon, United High School at Hanoverton, East Palestine High School, Salem High School, Joshua Dixon School at Columbiana and Leetonia High School.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first explosions in a new series of U.S. nuclear tests probably will involve research devices intended to yield data on electromagnetic and other effects bearing on defense against missiles.

Later in the two- to three-month series in the Pacific will come proof tests of full nuclear weapons—including all those in the U.S. intercontinental ballistic missile arsenal and submarine-launched Polaris rockets.

Informed authorities said today this is the likely schedule when President Kennedy signals the test go-ahead, maybe within the next few days.

Perhaps three or more of the tests will be at high altitudes ranging from about 30 miles to several hundred miles.

The biggest blast is expected to equal that of about 10 million tons of TNT—far below the 58 megatoner the Russians are said to have detonated in their test series last fall.

Some of the test devices may be fired to high altitudes by missiles. Others will be placed on stands and still others carried into the sky by balloons.

Instruments placed at vantage points throughout the test area around Christmas and Johnston Islands will monitor the effects of these blasts. Among other methods, specially instrumented rockets will be sent up to gauge the fireballs and radiation.

The experts will chart the explosive yield of the devices, the pressures they create, the radiation they release, relationship of damage to distance from the blasts, effects of heat on various materials such as steel and concrete, impact on underground structures such as missile launching bases—these and many more.

The results will be studied and analyzed for months. From them scientists hope to gain knowledge they can translate into new and improved weapons and into missile defenses.

Scientific Instruments On Sputnik

No Indication Of Soviet Man Being Aboard Spaceship

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union put another scientific satellite into orbit around the earth today as America's Ranger 4 sped through space toward the moon.

It was the first time the two powers had launched space vehicles so close to one another in time.

The Russians said their newest Sputnik, Cosmos III, carried scientific instruments to continue the Soviet program of outer space exploration and a multichannel radio telemetric system to relay information back to earth.

The announcement by the Soviet news agency, Tass, gave no indication that there was a man aboard. Presumably the satellite was unmanned.

"The radio telemetric information received from the satellite shows that the instruments are functioning normally," Tass said.

Cosmos III was the third Soviet satellite to be launched since March 16 after a long period of Soviet inactivity in space. Cosmos I was launched on March 16 and Cosmos II on April 6.

Announced aims of the new Soviet program of space research include investigation of radiation belts and meteorites around the earth and the dangers they may hold for space travelers.

Tass said first estimates showed Cosmos III was close to its planned course and orbiting the globe every 93.8 minutes. It said the orbit's inclination to the plane of the equator was 48 degrees 59 minutes, its farthest distance from the earth 448 miles and its closest 142 miles.

Today's session of the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet Union's parliament, recessed early so the delegates could hear the announcement of the new sputnik.

News of the American moon shot was withheld in Moscow until after the dramatic break in Soviet radio programs to announce the launching of the Russian satellite.

Driver Fined After Hill Rd. 'Chain' Crash

A 23-year-old East End man was fined today in Municipal Court as the aftermath of a "chain reaction" type crash a short time earlier that damaged three autos on the west end of the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Harold S. Williams, 1154 Harker Ave., pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance following the mishap at 8:30 on Pennsylvania Ave. at Vine St.

Police said Williams' 1951 four-door sedan was involved in a collision which also damaged a 1957 model convertible driven by Vicki Lynn Goodballet, 18, of 1534 Globe St. and a 1961 two-door sedan operated by Donald D. Bennett, 31, of 708 Oakland Ave. All three were headed west.

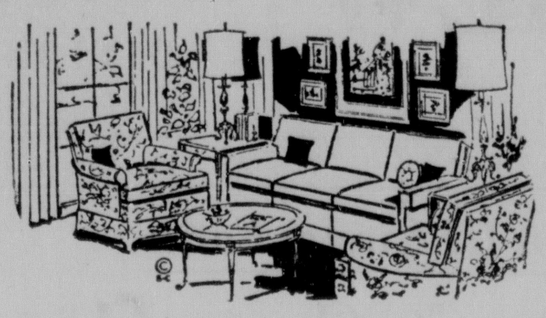

Officers said Williams' car hit the rear of the young woman's auto and drove it forward into the rear of Bennett's car.

Williams said as he rounded the curve at Vine St. he looked down the E. 4th St. grade. Before he could stop, he said, he hit the rear of Miss Goodballet's auto, shoving it into Bennett's.

Miss Goodballet and Bennett told police they were stopped in the traffic lane because another auto was halted ahead to discharge a passenger.

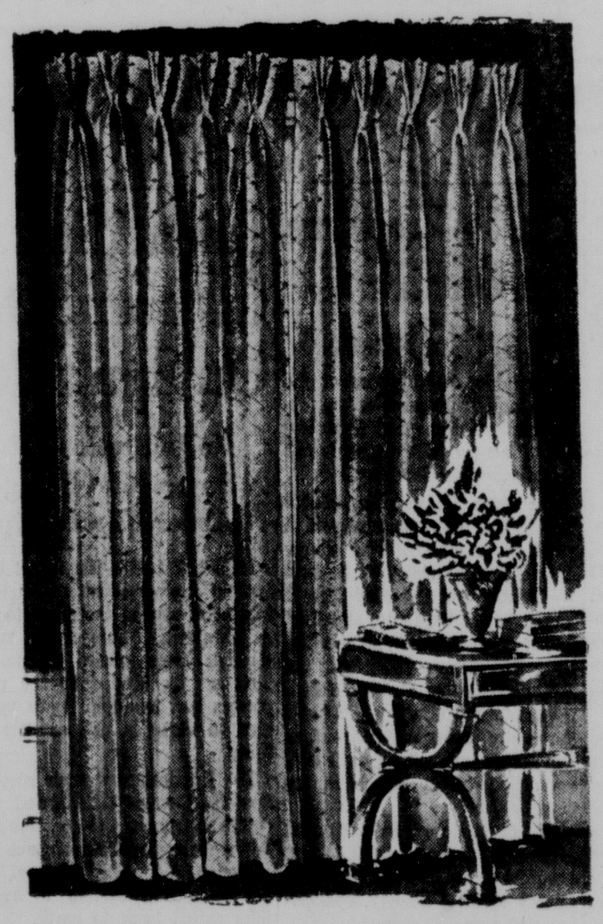

Miss Goodballet was driving an auto owned by Kenneth R. Lane, 108 W. 5th St., officers said. The crash damaged the entire front end of Williams' car, the right front and the rear of Miss Goodballet's auto and the rear of the Bennett auto, police said.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm at the end of my string with our 9-year-old son, Herbert. He'd rather tell a lie than tell the truth.

I get a call from school every other week saying he's in some sort of trouble. His teacher claims he needs "patience and understanding" but I've been patient and understanding until I'm blue in the face. I think what he really needs is a good thrashing.

Yesterday he took a dollar bill out of my purse. I saw him do it. He didn't know I was in the next room watching him in the wall mirror.

After five minutes I went to my purse, took out the remaining money and told him a dollar was missing. He said he "hadn't seen it." I told him to look all over because it couldn't have gone far.

In a few minutes he handed me the dollar and said he had found it in the sofa cushion.

His two younger sisters never give us any trouble. What's wrong with this child? What shall we do with him?—G.D.

Dear Mrs. G.D.: When children steal it's a symptom of a deeper problem. Experts tell us that such youngsters feel unloved and they steal in an attempt to compensate for the lack of love and attention.

The manner in which you compare the boy with his sisters is a revealing clue. I hope you will take this child to a professional who deals with troubled children —and soon.

Well Chaperoned

Dear Ann: I've been going with a lovely man who is 38 and has never been married. I lost my husband (in the divorce court) four years ago and I would like very much to marry again. This man could be the one but I have a difficult problem.

He travels during the week and the only evenings we can be together are Friday and Saturday. Greg has a sister who is not well and her 10-year-old son has become quite attached to his uncle. Every Friday and Saturday the youngster is with us for dinner and the evening. Wherever we go, he goes. This has been the program for eight months.

How can Greg and I ever get serious when we have this youngster with us constantly? What do you suggest?—TRI-CORNERED.

Dear Tri: Don't look now, but you've got a 10-year-old chaperone. If Greg wanted to get serious, he'd be figuring out ways to get this kid lost. You wouldn't be writing—he would.

Slacks vs. Skirts

Dear Ann: I hate to bother you because I know you are busy with more important things but please help me if you can.

I'm a girl 13. My father just hates to see a girl wearing slacks, jeans, pedal pushers, Bermudas, riding britches — any kind of trousers. He thinks it looks just terrible.

When I go on a hay ride, skating or bicycling I'm always the only girl in a skirt. He says, "Fine. You're the only one in the crowd who is a real lady."

He thinks you give good advice —especially when you agree with him. Please, help me.—MARGIE.

Dear Margie: Your dad probably saw the rear view of some "Two - Ton Tessie" in tight slacks and that ruined it for everybody. I say a teen-age girl should be permitted to wear properly fitted slacks for informal events. And, incidentally, a skirt while bicycling could be downright hazardous.

Confidentially

TO BEST-DRESSED BELLE: You're trying to run with the hare and the hounds and it won't work. Give him the heave-ho and get back your self-respect. Clothes aren't that important.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Stretch Exercise Mimimizes Waist

No getting around it — let the short-waisted gal give the fat an inch, and it takes the waist. It's easy to see why — the less span between the waist and the top of the hipbone, the more the padding shows.

Ida Jean Kain

For example, when the little gal just a fraction over five feet tall and short - waisted as well, adds a half dozen pounds, the result is a dumpy, dowdy silhouette. Just those few extra pounds force her into a larger waist band, and like as not bring forth the remark, 'Getting a bit on the plump side, aren't you?"

It doesn't seem fair, because ten added pounds on a long, tall girl are scarcely noticeable and she's quite apt to be greeted with the flattering comment, "You're looking very well these days."

IF YOU'RE A girl with spirit you'll refuse to settle for a dumpy figure. Get a firm grip on your posture. Slim-up by pulling the ribs out of the waist and the waist out of the hips.

The uplift action must be all through the midsection. Keep shoulders beautifully relaxed — at ease.

The follow-up trick is to stretch and bend, again centering the action through the middle. This may not actually elongate the waist area, but stretch-bends tone the side boundary muscles so that they hug the silhouette. That's slimming and just what you want.

Try this controlled stretch.

Stand with palms on top of head, fingers locked. Turn palms upward. Keeping fingers laced together, stretch arms overhead, holding arms close to the ears. Hold the upstretch for a slow count of six. Relax, drop arms back to top of head, but keep holding the control through the middle. Repeat stretch-hold action three to four times.

Add a side-bend. Arch arms overhead, grasp left wrist with right hand, and bend sidewards to the right, pulling slim all along the left side. Make this a long, smooth stretch and — hold. Relax, change position of hands, bend to the left and pull slim all along the right side. Hold.

It's surprising how effective a few tone-ups can be. Five to ten minutes of limbering stretch-bends, if taken daily, can make a noticeable difference in your figure in just a few weeks' time.

—:—

THERE IS JUST one thing more. On the "little woman" all excess calories settle on the waist area. Leave off second helpings and have dessert only on special occasions.

You'll like the way you look and feel.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "For A Slimmer Midriff." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Unnamed Donors To Pay Negroes' Fares Northward

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—An official of the pro-segregation Citizens Council says unnamed donors have agreed to underwrite the cost of a special train to move Negroes northward.

The claim from George Singelmann came after an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asked Negroes to ignore the segregationist offer of free-one-way tickets out of the South.

Singelmann, a director of the Citizens Council of Greater New Orleans, said in an interview Monday night that donors whom he declined to name have underwritten a special train to cost $20,000. The train would handle about 1,000 passengers.

Clarence Laws, regional secretary of the NAACP, said it would be a "tragic mistake for Negroes to assume that they can go to New York or any other northern city on a one-way ticket furnished by segregationists and obtain the same success which apparently has come to the Louis Boyd family of New Orleans."

Radio Club Purchases Generator On Trailer

The club authorized a resolution opposing a proposed Federal Communications Commission fee for amateur radio operator licenses, which are now free. Lester Armstrong, president, was in charge.

2 Brothers Face Grand Jury On Larceny Charges

JACKSBORO, Tenn. (AP)—Two brothers—one an Ohioan — have been ordered held for the grand jury here on larceny charges.

Bobby Hale, 30, of Elmwood, a Cincinnati suburb, and Glenn Hale, 38, of Douglasville, Ga., are accused of taking jewelry found at the site of a plane crash near Jellico, Tenn.

The brothers have been released on $1,500 bail each.

They said they found the jewelry on a mountainside April 7, a week after the crash of a small twin-engine plane. They said they intended to turn the jewelry over to the FBI after having it appraised by an Elmwood jeweler. The jeweler, however, became suspicious and notified police.

One of the five plane crash victims was S. Wayne Weiger, a Findlay, Ohio, industrialist. The others were from Chicago.

4 Men Rescued From Lake Tell Of Sharing Food

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Four men rescued from Lake Erie have told how they shared a slice of bread and two quarts of milk during a 42-hour ordeal in a drifting boat.

Sunburned but otherwise unharmed, they credited their rescue to a refusal to panic despite nine to ten-foot waves at one time.

Those aboard the 19-foot outboard fiber glass cabin cruiser were John E. Webber, 19; John P. Ganzhorn, 21; Duane E. Utis, 21, and Desmond V. Donnenwirth, 31, all of Plymouth in Huron County.

A search for them ended Monday when they were spotted by a Coast Guard plane. Diving low to drop a ration-filled kit, the plane was cheered by the hungry men.

They had been missing since Saturday night when the boat's motor failed as they were headed toward the mainland after a visit to Pelee Island in Canadian waters.

After five minutes I went to my purse, took out the remaining money and told him a dollar was missing. He said he "hadn't seen it." I told him to look all over because it couldn't have gone far.

In a few minutes he handed me the dollar and said he had found it in the sofa cushion.

His two younger sisters never give us any trouble. What's wrong with this child? What shall we do with him?—G.D.

Dear Mrs. G.D.: When children steal it's a symptom of a deeper problem. Experts tell us that such youngsters feel unloved and they steal in an attempt to compensate for the lack of love and attention.

The manner in which you compare the boy with his sisters is a revealing clue. I hope you will take this child to a professional who deals with troubled children —and soon.

Well Chaperoned

Dear Ann: I've been going with a lovely man who is 38 and has never been married. I lost my husband (in the divorce court) four years ago and I would like very much to marry again. This man could be the one but I have a difficult problem.

He travels during the week and the only evenings we can be together are Friday and Saturday. Greg has a sister who is not well and her 10-year-old son has become quite attached to his uncle. Every Friday and Saturday the youngster is with us for dinner and the evening. Wherever we go, he goes. This has been the program for eight months.

How can Greg and I ever get serious when we have this youngster with us constantly? What do you suggest?—TRI-CORNERED.

Dear Tri: Don't look now, but you've got a 10-year-old chaperone. If Greg wanted to get serious, he'd be figuring out ways to get this kid lost. You wouldn't be writing—he would.

Slacks vs. Skirts

Dear Ann: I hate to bother you because I know you are busy with more important things but please help me if you can.

I'm a girl 13. My father just hates to see a girl wearing slacks, jeans, pedal pushers, Bermudas, riding britches — any kind of trousers. He thinks it looks just terrible.

When I go on a hay ride, skating or bicycling I'm always the only girl in a skirt. He says, "Fine. You're the only one in the crowd who is a real lady."

He thinks you give good advice —especially when you agree with him. Please, help me.—MARGIE.

Dear Margie: Your dad probably saw the rear view of some "Two - Ton Tessie" in tight slacks and that ruined it for everybody. I say a teen-age girl should be permitted to wear properly fitted slacks for informal events. And, incidentally, a skirt while bicycling could be downright hazardous.

Confidentially

TO BEST-DRESSED BELLE: You're trying to run with the hare and the hounds and it won't work. Give him the heave-ho and get back your self-respect. Clothes aren't that important.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Stretch Exercise Mimimizes Waist

No getting around it — let the short-waisted gal give the fat an inch, and it takes the waist. It's easy to see why — the less span between the waist and the top of the hipbone, the more the padding shows.

Ida Jean Kain

For example, when the little gal just a fraction over five feet tall and short - waisted as well, adds a half dozen pounds, the result is a dumpy, dowdy silhouette. Just those few extra pounds force her into a larger waist band, and like as not bring forth the remark, 'Getting a bit on the plump side, aren't you?"

It doesn't seem fair, because ten added pounds on a long, tall girl are scarcely noticeable and she's quite apt to be greeted with the flattering comment, "You're looking very well these days."

IF YOU'RE A girl with spirit you'll refuse to settle for a dumpy figure. Get a firm grip on your posture. Slim-up by pulling the ribs out of the waist and the waist out of the hips.

The uplift action must be all through the midsection. Keep shoulders beautifully relaxed — at ease.

The follow-up trick is to stretch and bend, again centering the action through the middle. This may not actually elongate the waist area, but stretch-bends tone the side boundary muscles so that they hug the silhouette. That's slimming and just what you want.

Try this controlled stretch.

Stand with palms on top of head, fingers locked. Turn palms upward. Keeping fingers laced together, stretch arms overhead, holding arms close to the ears. Hold the upstretch for a slow count of six. Relax, drop arms back to top of head, but keep holding the control through the middle. Repeat stretch-hold action three to four times.

It's surprising how effective a few tone-ups can be. Five to ten minutes of limbering stretch-bends, if taken daily, can make a noticeable difference in your figure in just a few weeks' time.

—:—

THERE IS JUST one thing more. On the "little woman" all excess calories settle on the waist area. Leave off second helpings and have dessert only on special occasions.

You'll like the way you look and feel.

Send a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for "For A Slimmer Midriff." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

4 Men Rescued From Lake Tell Of Sharing Food

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Four men rescued from Lake Erie have told how they shared a slice of bread and two quarts of milk during a 42-hour ordeal in a drifting boat.

Sunburned but otherwise unharmed, they credited their rescue to a refusal to panic despite nine to ten-foot waves at one time.

Those aboard the 19-foot outboard fiber glass cabin cruiser were John E. Webber, 19; John P. Ganzhorn, 21; Duane E. Utis, 21, and Desmond V. Donnenwirth, 31, all of Plymouth in Huron County.

A search for them ended Monday when they were spotted by a Coast Guard plane. Diving low to drop a ration-filled kit, the plane was cheered by the hungry men.

They had been missing since Saturday night when the boat's motor failed as they were headed toward the mainland after a visit to Pelee Island in Canadian waters.

Cancer Fatal At 80

DETROIT (AP) — Robert H. Clancy, 80, a former Michigan representative in Congress who fought against prohibition in the 1920s, died Monday of cancer. He was elected to congress as a Democrat in 1922 but bolted the party in 1924 when the Democratic National Convention refused to denounce the Ku Klux Klan. He was elected as a Republican for three terms starting in 1926.

Grace Kelly's Return To Screen Due In '63

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Grace Kelly's return to the screen will be delayed until next year, says producer Alfred Hitchcock.

Miss Kelly, who retired from films to marry Prince Rainier of Monaco, was to have appeared in Hitchcock's production of "Marnie" in Hollywood starting Aug. 1.

Hitchcock, now filming "The Birds," said Monday there would not be enough time after completion of that picture to allow adequate preparation for the princess' return.

Fair Personality Dies

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Helen M. Bennett, 89, who organized the Women's World's Fair in Chicago in the late 1929s and was in charge of the Social Science Building at the Chicago World's Fair in 1933, died Sunday. Miss Bennett, who was born in Washington, Iowa, was the sister of the Rt. Rev. Granville Gaylord Bennett, retired bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Rhode Island.

Unnamed Donors To Pay Negroes' Fares Northward

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—An official of the pro-segregation Citizens Council says unnamed donors have agreed to underwrite the cost of a special train to move Negroes northward.

The claim from George Singelmann came after an official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asked Negroes to ignore the segregationist offer of free-one-way tickets out of the South.

Singelmann, a director of the Citizens Council of Greater New Orleans, said in an interview Monday night that donors whom he declined to name have underwritten a special train to cost $20,000. The train would handle about 1,000 passengers.

Clarence Laws, regional secretary of the NAACP, said it would be a "tragic mistake for Negroes to assume that they can go to New York or any other northern city on a one-way ticket furnished by segregationists and obtain the same success which apparently has come to the Louis Boyd family of New Orleans."

Radio Club Purchases Generator On Trailer

The purchase of a used 9.4 - kilowatt electric generator and trailer was authorized at a meeting of the Triangle Amateur Radio Club Monday night at the Smith St. quarters.

The generator, owned by a Glenmoor area man, is to be overhauled and readied for the annual Field Day exercise June 23-24.

The club authorized a resolution opposing a proposed Federal Communications Commission fee for amateur radio operator licenses, which are now free. Lester Armstrong, president, was in charge.

2 Brothers Face Grand Jury On Larceny Charges

JACKSBORO, Tenn. (AP)—Two brothers—one an Ohioan — have been ordered held for the grand jury here on larceny charges.

Bobby Hale, 30, of Elmwood, a Cincinnati suburb, and Glenn Hale, 38, of Douglasville, Ga., are accused of taking jewelry found at the site of a plane crash near Jellico, Tenn.

The brothers have been released on $1,500 bail each.

They said they found the jewelry on a mountainside April 7, a week after the crash of a small twin-engine plane. They said they intended to turn the jewelry over to the FBI after having it appraised by an Elmwood jeweler. The jeweler, however, became suspicious and notified police.

One of the five plane crash victims was S. Wayne Weiger, a Findlay, Ohio, industrialist. The others were from Chicago.

The Parties Most Concerned

It's our hunch the ratio of Communist party members to population in places like Russia is about the same as political insiders to population in the United States and Britain — about 1 to 25.

A survey by our own government says in Russia there are about 9 million Communists bossing something more than 210 million Russians. Red China is reported to have 17 million party members bossing upward of a billion people.

The point is that the ratio of Communists to population, even in countries with Communist governments, shows the secret of political dictatorship. The trick is to manipulate the mass through the leverage of a compact minority. The few know what they want to do and how to get it done. The many have no purpose and no organization.

Thus, the many can be led by the nose.

Thus, the few can run a dictatorship.

THERE HAS been no dictatorship so far in the United States, because the handful of political insiders in this country are competitive and must put their power up to grabs in all places where two-party government and free elections exist.

They are always in danger of being thrown out on their ear. They live in dread of a decision at the polls that will cast them into outer darkness. They never dare to make plans farther ahead than the next election.

Moreover, wherever those who are given the trusteeship of power must answer to a two-party system of politics they can be pulled up short. In a parliamentary government they can be jerked from the throne by a vote of no-confidence on a key issue. In the United States, they can sustain a grimmer fate.

Confidence in their ability to govern can be wiped out by inability to command followership. This can happen while they are in office, leaving them pinned on the jagged rocks of advertity in the glare of pitiless sunlight until they wither and die.

"THEY."

Who are "they" in politics?

It is the minority of insiders who organize themselves to exercise public power. "They" are never the people as a whole.

This is the way it is done. There should be no surprise because Communists are so few. They are no fewer than political insiders in non-Communist countries. It even could be argued that they are more numerous than insiders elsewhere, in view of rigorous requirements for membership in the Communist party.

Comparisons with the monolithic one-party dictatorship of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics are in bad taste. They are out of order. Nobody in the United States wants anything here to be like anything in Russia.

But as part of the process of learning the score there's no better place to start than the difference between one-party communism and two-party capitalism — if that's what we still have now that prices are being fixed with no legislative authority and no proclamation of national emergency.

The difference is that in the United States we always can throw the rascals out, but in the Soviet Union the rascals always can throw the people out.

Solo Militarists On Three Fronts

France finally captured Raoul Salan. Argentine President Jose Mario Guido effected a truce between enraged army commanders. U.S. Sen. John Stennis said the fate of Maj. Arch E. Roberts is the Army's affair.

All in all, it was a pretty good weekend for the cause of civilian control over the military. Whether the peace would survive the Easter weekend on any of the fronts was open to question.

Raoul Salan was the former war hero who turned traitor by organizing a secret army to sabotage the Algerian policy laid down by Charles de Gaulle and supported overwhelmingly by the French people in a referendum.

With Salan's capture, the secret army's strategy is expected to collapse and the De Gaulle policy of self-determination by the Algerians is expected to move ahead.

DISQUIETING to all the folks who hope for an end to the years-long Algerian struggle were reports that a nationalist rebel army-in-exile, equipped and organized along Communist lines, is waiting to move into the vacuum that may develop as control changes hands.

As usual, Gen. de Gaulle was the man to whom all eyes turned: Could he effect the change so there would be no vacuum to give Red-led revolutionists an opening?

President Guido's position was less reliable. Placed in office by the military to drive out the resurging Peronists, he was plagued by a fight among the militarists themselves over whether the Peronists should be merely suppressed or rendered impotent by constitutional procedures.

The permanence of his truce depended not so much upon the force of his personality, which does not approach De Gaulle's, as upon the force of the opposing commanders: Which is stronger?

MAJ. ROBERTS is the U.S. Army officer who assisted former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker in his controversial troop-education program and, last week, went ahead with a talk before the Daughters of the American Revolution after the Pentagon rejected his original written version.

Sen. Stennis, who without apparent relish presided over earlier Senate hearings sparked by objectors to civilian control over policy statements by the military, said the major's case should be decided on the basis of military regulations.

By thus clarifying the military's sphere of responsibility, he also re-emphasized his reluctance to be drawn into another round of the civilian sphere of responsibility, about which there should be no argument.

Hopefully, the situation on this front is more stable than those in Algeria and Argentina.

It's All In How You Say It

The embattled editor of the maligned Third Edition of Webster's International Dictionary stood his ground the other day, firing some counteroffensive volleys against the purists who claim the lexicon condones tainted English.

Working as close to the language as we do and setting occasional precedents in its usage, albeit unwittingly, we think Editor Philip B. Gove came away the winner.

Samples of his ammunition:

"We have evidence for every change that was made."

"The new edition merely reflects the tremendous change that takes place in a language when 180 million fairly literate people are speaking it."

"This is a dictionary for the entire United States. . . ."

"No tiny group trained in the traditions of Great Britain and the East Coast has a monopoly on the language."

What prompts the argument? Something like 4,500,000 changes noted by the dictionary's editors since 1936. They include such things as recognition that "ain't" is a word, for better or for worse, and that writers don't always want to be bothered with capitalizing proper nouns.

Languages lives because living people use it. To expect language to remain static when everything else in the world is changing quicker than you can spell "antidisestablishmentarianism" is folly.

Dictionaries are valuable because they help to keep language from degenerating into chaos. But if they didn't keep up with the times, they would have no value at all.

Thus Editor Gove's philosophy appears to be talk and let talk. He does not deny the purists their rights to abide by all the old rules if they want. He does deny they are right when they say everybody ought to abide by the same rules.

In other words, if you think it ain't right, don't use it.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

One of the biggest trotting tracks in America held a stockholders meeting in the manner of big industry. Directors favored a stable economy and predicted good returns in long run.

Imaginary speech to stockholders: "Ladies and gentlemen, you have five minutes to post time. Your directors and officers are fit and ready. Their keynote policy is to break fast and stay out in front. The corporation shows sharp improvement over last year. In quoting our profits, may I say, 'It ain't hay'."

"Only a few years ago trotters were seen only at country fairs and a few Grand Circuit tracks. They now provide major sport in scores of big cities. The attendance proves that while you can take the boy out of the horse race you can't take the horse race out of the boy.

Stockholder: Why is the stock only $5 a share?

Chairman: It is apparently a slow starter and breaks badly.

Stockholder: Would you advise a switch from the stock to the mutuel windows?

Chairman: Possibly that sort of diversification would be helpful all around. Your corporation has 300 acres and plans to build a department store, a motel and big shopping center on part of them.

Stockholder: Won't this mean competition?

Chairman: Obviously heavy losers at track may rush to shopping center where handicap figures are not available, but think of all the people who will leave shopping center when they realize it has no daily double.

Stockholder: How about a luncheon break?

Chairman: Let us recess for lunch at once, and no crowding on the turns!

Director (Observing the rush): They're off and EATING!

AUTO THIEVES found a dozen credit cards in car and went on high living spree. (Drive now, pay later?)

Water is pumped in unnecessary quantities into corned beef, New York markets chief says, showing weight doubled or more at customer's expense. Since it's in the cabbage, too, life seems to be getting tougher and tougher.

Now that Yale is considering admitting women, will it mean ladies' dining room at Mory's and a pronounced predominance of soprano voices in Whiffenpoof song?

Washington says it seeks better business climate. An end of "continued cold with gale winds" and the substitution of "tomorrow fair and warmer. Low pressure area has passed over Pittsburgh and moved out to sea."

Not With That Price Tag!

Hoffa Pushes Puerto Rican Drive

By Victor Riesel

Puerto Rican circles in the U.S. are harassed by worry over the hard luck which has hit some of their labor friends back home in San Juan. This dispair was touched off by five Molotov cocktails which went off in the island capital early in February.

Victor Riesel

The bombs exploded at 3 a.m. in the headquarters of the Union de los Trabajadores de la Industrial Gastronomica de Puerto Rico. Steel typewriters in the office of this hotel and food workers headquarters melted. Every bit of furniture disintegrated. Walls caved in. Only gutted, charred beams remained.

Somehow a new office was put together. Then came the investigations. To this day no one knows who firebombed the office of the "gastronomica" — which is actually Local 610, Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union (AFL-CIO).

Then the union was hit by some strange news. Its leaders learned it was being turned over to the Hoffistas.

BEING TURNED over like chattels to the followers of Jimmy Hoffa on the island disturbed the "gastronomica" workers. They had not been consulted by ther international president, Ed Miller, over on the mainland.

Soon the island union learned that Miller had made a five-year mutual aid pact with Jimmy Hoffa. Part of this pact was an agreement to permit the Hoffistas to put a teamster, Leopoldo Ramos Duclos, in as boss and trustee of the gastronomica workers.

This disturbed many of the employes in the booming Puerto Rican hotel business. They believed that Jimmy Hoffa had Puerto Rico as a prime target in his multimillion dollar organizing drive. If Hoffa could become the labor power on the island, he could fan out across the Caribbean and onto the Florida mainland.

Already Hoffa has spent more than $1.2 million on his special Project Puerto Rico — directed by a character known as Frank Chavez.

To the Puerto Rican police Chavez also is on record on several indictments — one charge of attempted murder by hurling a firebomb, one charge of carrying illegal firearms and one charge of neglecting something called income taxes.

THE GASTRONOMICA workers wanted no part of this — nor of their new "colonially' imposed boss, Duclos, colleague of Chavez. So the island hotel union took itself out of the Hotel International Union as well as out from under the new teamsters trustee.

But the Hoffistas were determined. They came around to take physical possession of the union, its assets, its record.

The workers just could not permit them to move in. Neither would the police. So the Hoffistas ran to the courts. They claim the mutual aid pact made in Miami earlier this year between Hoffa and Miller (who still is in the AFL-CIO) gave them the right to seize the key island union.

The police are still there. So are investigators of the Puerto Rican Senate. They are agents of the island's Senate Labor Committee now probing the teamsters.

What has stirred the island is Hoffa's strategy. He first attempted to become a power by moving in on the island's transport system. But he ran right smack into the broad front of the seafarers' Paul Hall, newest and youngest of the AFL-CIO's vice presidents. Hall has beaten Hoffa on an equally broad front ranging from San Juan to Chicago.

HALL STOPPED Hoffa's men on the pierhead, so to speak. So Hoffa looked for another beachhead — and what finer ones are there than the luxurious hotels employing many thousands.

So he made his pact with the International Hotel and Restaurant Workers, who have their headquarters in Cincinnati.

Apparently he is not at all appalled by the fact he has already spent much more than a million dollars on his invasion. He is ready to spend more.

Hoffa's coffers are the "secret" of his strategy. Already in 1961 Hoffa had spent $2.27 million on organizing drives. This in addition to helping "subordinate organizations" with $2.14 million. And another $260,354.40 for public relations. These helped run up an operating deficit of $2.60 million in 1961.

Almost half of that sum has gone into Puerto Rica. Apparently Hoffa and company have their hearts set on a place in that sun.

No Murders Or Muggings

By Truman Twill

New Orleans is apologizing for its appearance this spring.

The hardest freeze anyone in New Orleans can remember last January wrecked some of the verdure that makes it so attractive in springtime to northerners tired of winter drabness. The damage is noticeable but not disagreeable.

Even with their top frozen out, the Florida date palms brought in to spruce up Canal Street for this year's Mardi Gras are something to look at. A cab driver assured us no tears would be shed for the camphor trees that succumbed to the chill. Their black seeds drop on light-colored automobiles and stained them indelibly.

Another victim of the freeze was bamboo, which was killed back to the ground. But bamboo grows so fast this will be no problem. By August it will be as high as ever. And did you know the Chinese tortured a man to death by staking him over a bamboo shoot and letting it grow at the rate of four inches a day until it broke his spine?

The city shares with Venice the distinction of being surrounded by water on all sides, plus top and bottom. It lies from four to eight feet under sea level and is saved from drowning in its own juice by a drainage system that pumps water back into the Mississippi as fast as it comes in from the sky, the river and the many tons of ice cubes that melt each day as visitors and native empty glassfuls of various "specialties of the house."

I learned two more things about New Orleans worth passing along.

First is that the beautiful old houses in the Garden District are decaying because no one can afford to keep them in shape; they are too large for today's tax-shrunken incomes. The only solution is to forgive their owners for unpayable tax obligations, similar to the way New Orleans has subsidized perpetuation of the Vieux Carre by forgiving taxes and at the same time restraining the impulse to knock down everything that doesn't look like a shopping center.

If the area of gracious living symbolized by those old New Orleans houses is going to be honored by those of us who expect to be around for a few more years, it will take more than sentimentality.

Second is that uninhibited living on Bourbon Street, New Orleans' main tourist stem, is continuing by virtue of unwritten laws. The street's decent people prevail over the bad ones, Bourbon Street could become as dangerous as any of New York City's off-limit streets.

Murdering and mugging have been kept out. Otherwise, everything goes — and goes — and goes. You have to see it to believe it, and then you doubt it. Makes you forget the disaster to the date palms on Canal Street. Even makes you forget those sad old mansions in the Garden District.

New Orleans is the only place in the United States that has turned slums into capital assets. But the job isn't finished yet.

Inside Story On Steel

By David Lawrence

Questions - Answers Bring Out Key Issues

This is the inside story of how an economic judgment of major importance was made within the steel industry only to be upset subsequently by the political judgment of the President of the United States, backed up by threats of criminal prosecution. The story is based on several days of research among many men in the steel industry and economists who analyze trade and financial news.

David Lawrence

It is perhaps best to present the facts in what could have been a reporter and a group of men who, sitting as a finance committee, endeavored to make an economic judgment just after the contract with the national steelworkers union was signed. Here in composite form is the result:

Q. Did you assure the president or anyone else that you would hold the line on prices?

A. We not only didn't do this, but we couldn't do it without deliberately violating the antitrust laws. We sat down alongside our competitors only to negotiate with the labor unions. We couldn't mention prices either to the union representatives or to the men from the other companies.

Q. Wasn't it inferred or wasn't it implicit that, if the unions didn't get a big wage increase, you as a group wouldn't increase prices?

A. We gave no such promise or inference to anyone. The new increase of 10 cents an hour for labor in "fringe" benefits, it is estimated, will cost our industry about $100 million a year. Somebody has to pay for this. This is on top of the 30 cents an hour increase in wages in the last three years which we absorbed without making any increase in our prices.

Q. But after all the public discussion of wage and price stability, why couldn't you go along?

A. Because we have a responsibility to those who have invested in our property. We have promised to pay back what we owe. We had to make an economic judgment.

Q. On what was your economic judgment based?

A. On the simple fact that three years ago we in our company began a program to modernize our plant and equipment at a cost of $1.18 billion.

Q. Where did you get the money?

A. We got part of it out of surplus and depreciation reserve and part of it out of profits after paying dividends. The balance — $800 million — we borrowed.

Q. Why didn't you just sell more stock instead of borrowing?

A. Because, to pay dividends on stock at 5 per cent, we would have to earn 10 per cent before taxes, which take about a half of our earnings, whereas we can borrow money at 5 per cent and get a tax deduction on half of the interest cost. And that's one of the major reasons why there has been such a big limitation on stock issues not only in our industry but in others as well.

Q. But how do you relate this to your pricing policy?

A. We make a five-year forecast in our company as we take a long range look at the economy. It's difficult to do, but finally we must make an economic judgment based on whether the market for your product will take the increase in prices and on what your competitors will do. This only can be based on published information in annual reports and on common knowledge as to markets and also on financial data in trade and financial journals in our industry. We also can make a reasonable calculation of the amount of depreciation reserve we are going to have over a period of time.

Q. What was your judgment on this particular price increase?

A. We felt it was a moderate one that could be absorbed readily by our customers. We had experienced a 6 per cent deterioration in our cost-price relationship even before the latest wage increase. So a 3½ per cent increase in prices seemed logical, since it was just a bit more than half of the deterioration which had occurred.

Q. How did you come out in your 1961 operations?

A. We made just a little more than $2 million in our company above our dividend payments and above the $210 million reserved for depreciation. This latter sum is available for capital expenditures and amounts today to only a partial replacement of the capital we originally invested, during previous years, in plant and equipment that now is wearing out or becoming obsolete. In fact, all this depreciation reserve and profit put together has been less each year than what we have been spending for new plants. The total profit we earned in 1961 didn't even take care of our debt payment requirements. So it was obvious that, if we didn't do better in 1962, we would have to dig further into this depreciation reserve just to keep going.

Q. Lots of people are saying you will have to cut your dividends in 1962—is that so?

A. Stockholders and investors play a vital part in the free enterprise system, and the best way to shake their confidence and either limit or eliminate that investment source is to cut dividends."

Q. How does this relate to borrowing power?

A. Well, those who lend money must see before them what is called a 'cushion' — enough leeway between the annual payment on debt and annual profits so that the lenders will feel they have a normal margin of protection if default occurs. The profit squeeze we're going through just isn't healthy for us or for the future of industry generally.

Q. One last question: It has been said that what you did was "bad public relations." Did you take into account public reaction?

A. There never is a "right time" to tell somebody they've got to pay more for their products. Nevertheless we have to make our determinations and judgments on economic facts. "Public relations" will not help us if we cannot modernize our plant and equipment fast enough to enable us to compete with European products and to help us to keep our prices down so that we can compete with substitute products in this country. Nor will "public relations" help us if we cannot earn enough each year to pay back what we have borrowed. When you go broke, that's "bad timing" and "bad public relatins," too!

The Parties Most Concerned

It's our hunch the ratio of Communist party members to population in places like Russia is about the same as political insiders to population in the United States and Britain — about 1 to 25.

A survey by our own government says in Russia there are about 9 million Communists bossing something more than 210 million Russians. Red China is reported to have 17 million party members bossing upward of a billion people.

The point is that the ratio of Communists to population, even in countries with Communist governments, shows the secret of political dictatorship. The trick is to manipulate the mass through the leverage of a compact minority. The few know what they want to do and how to get it done. The many have no purpose and no organization.

Thus, the many can be led by the nose.

Thus, the few can run a dictatorship.

THERE HAS been no dictatorship so far in the United States, because the handful of political insiders in this country are competitive and must put their power up to grabs in all places where two-party government and free elections exist.

They are always in danger of being thrown out on their ear. They live in dread of a decision at the polls that will cast them into outer darkness. They never dare to make plans farther ahead than the next election.

Moreover, wherever those who are given the trusteeship of power must answer to a two-party system of politics they can be pulled up short. In a parliamentary government they can be jerked from the throne by a vote of no-confidence on a key issue. In the United States, they can sustain a grimmer fate.

Confidence in their ability to govern can be wiped out by inability to command followership. This can happen while they are in office, leaving them pinned on the jagged rocks of advertity in the glare of pitiless sunlight until they wither and die.

"THEY."

Who are "they" in politics?

It is the minority of insiders who organize themselves to exercise public power. "They" are never the people as a whole.

This is the way it is done. There should be no surprise because Communists are so few. They are no fewer than political insiders in non-Communist countries. It even could be argued that they are more numerous than insiders elsewhere, in view of rigorous requirements for membership in the Communist party.

Comparisons with the monolithic one-party dictatorship of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics are in bad taste. They are out of order. Nobody in the United States wants anything here to be like anything in Russia.

But as part of the process of learning the score there's no better place to start than the difference between one-party communism and two-party capitalism — if that's what we still have now that prices are being fixed with no legislative authority and no proclamation of national emergency.

The difference is that in the United States we always can throw the rascals out, but in the Soviet Union the rascals always can throw the people out.

Solo Militarists On Three Fronts

France finally captured Raoul Salan. Argentine President Jose Mario Guido effected a truce between enraged army commanders. U.S. Sen. John Stennis said the fate of Maj. Arch E. Roberts is the Army's affair.

All in all, it was a pretty good weekend for the cause of civilian control over the military. Whether the peace would survive the Easter weekend on any of the fronts was open to question.

Raoul Salan was the former war hero who turned traitor by organizing a secret army to sabotage the Algerian policy laid down by Charles de Gaulle and supported overwhelmingly by the French people in a referendum.

With Salan's capture, the secret army's strategy is expected to collapse and the De Gaulle policy of self-determination by the Algerians is expected to move ahead.

DISQUIETING to all the folks who hope for an end to the years-long Algerian struggle were reports that a nationalist rebel army-in-exile, equipped and organized along Communist lines, is waiting to move into the vacuum that may develop as control changes hands.

As usual, Gen. de Gaulle was the man to whom all eyes turned: Could he effect the change so there would be no vacuum to give Red-led revolutionists an opening?

President Guido's position was less reliable. Placed in office by the military to drive out the resurging Peronists, he was plagued by a fight among the militarists themselves over whether the Peronists should be merely suppressed or rendered impotent by constitutional procedures.

The permanence of his truce depended not so much upon the force of his personality, which does not approach De Gaulle's, as upon the force of the opposing commanders: Which is stronger?

MAJ. ROBERTS is the U.S. Army officer who assisted former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker in his controversial troop-education program and, last week, went ahead with a talk before the Daughters of the American Revolution after the Pentagon rejected his original written version.

Sen. Stennis, who without apparent relish presided over earlier Senate hearings sparked by objectors to civilian control over policy statements by the military, said the major's case should be decided on the basis of military regulations.

By thus clarifying the military's sphere of responsibility, he also re-emphasized his reluctance to be drawn into another round of the civilian sphere of responsibility, about which there should be no argument.

Hopefully, the situation on this front is more stable than those in Algeria and Argentina.

It's All In How You Say It

The embattled editor of the maligned Third Edition of Webster's International Dictionary stood his ground the other day, firing some counteroffensive volleys against the purists who claim the lexicon condones tainted English.

Working as close to the language as we do and setting occasional precedents in its usage, albeit unwittingly, we think Editor Philip B. Gove came away the winner.

Samples of his ammunition:

"We have evidence for every change that was made."

"The new edition merely reflects the tremendous change that takes place in a language when 180 million fairly literate people are speaking it."

"This is a dictionary for the entire United States. . . ."

"No tiny group trained in the traditions of Great Britain and the East Coast has a monopoly on the language."

What prompts the argument? Something like 4,500,000 changes noted by the dictionary's editors since 1936. They include such things as recognition that "ain't" is a word, for better or for worse, and that writers don't always want to be bothered with capitalizing proper nouns.

Languages lives because living people use it. To expect language to remain static when everything else in the world is changing quicker than you can spell "antidisestablishmentarianism" is folly.

Dictionaries are valuable because they help to keep language from degenerating into chaos. But if they didn't keep up with the times, they would have no value at all.

Thus Editor Gove's philosophy appears to be talk and let talk. He does not deny the purists their rights to abide by all the old rules if they want. He does deny they are right when they say everybody ought to abide by the same rules.

In other words, if you think it ain't right, don't use it.

The Once Over

One of the biggest trotting tracks in America held a stockholders meeting in the manner of big industry. Directors favored a stable economy and predicted good returns in long run.

Imaginary speech to stockholders: "Ladies and gentlemen, you have five minutes to post time. Your directors and officers are fit and ready. Their keynote policy is to break fast and stay out in front. The corporation shows sharp improvement over last year. In quoting our profits, may I say, 'It ain't hay'."

"Only a few years ago trotters were seen only at country fairs and a few Grand Circuit tracks. They now provide major sport in scores of big cities. The attendance proves that while you can take the boy out of the horse race you can't take the horse race out of the boy.

Stockholder: Why is the stock only $5 a share?

Chairman: It is apparently a slow starter and breaks badly.

Stockholder: Would you advise a switch from the stock to the mutuel windows?

Chairman: Possibly that sort of diversification would be helpful all around. Your corporation has 300 acres and plans to build a department store, a motel and big shopping center on part of them.

Stockholder: Won't this mean competition?

Chairman: Obviously heavy losers at track may rush to shopping center where handicap figures are not available, but think of all the people who will leave shopping center when they realize it has no daily double.

Stockholder: How about a luncheon break?

Chairman: Let us recess for lunch at once, and no crowding on the turns!

Director (Observing the rush): They're off and EATING!

Water is pumped in unnecessary quantities into corned beef, New York markets chief says, showing weight doubled or more at customer's expense. Since it's in the cabbage, too, life seems to be getting tougher and tougher.

Not With That Price Tag!

Hoffa Pushes Puerto Rican Drive

By Victor Riesel

Puerto Rican circles in the U.S. are harassed by worry over the hard luck which has hit some of their labor friends back home in San Juan. This dispair was touched off by five Molotov cocktails which went off in the island capital early in February.

Victor Riesel

The bombs exploded at 3 a.m. in the headquarters of the Union de los Trabajadores de la Industrial Gastronomica de Puerto Rico. Steel typewriters in the office of this hotel and food workers headquarters melted. Every bit of furniture disintegrated. Walls caved in. Only gutted, charred beams remained.

Somehow a new office was put together. Then came the investigations. To this day no one knows who firebombed the office of the "gastronomica" — which is actually Local 610, Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union (AFL-CIO).

Then the union was hit by some strange news. Its leaders learned it was being turned over to the Hoffistas.

BEING TURNED over like chattels to the followers of Jimmy Hoffa on the island disturbed the "gastronomica" workers. They had not been consulted by ther international president, Ed Miller, over on the mainland.

Soon the island union learned that Miller had made a five-year mutual aid pact with Jimmy Hoffa. Part of this pact was an agreement to permit the Hoffistas to put a teamster, Leopoldo Ramos Duclos, in as boss and trustee of the gastronomica workers.

This disturbed many of the employes in the booming Puerto Rican hotel business. They believed that Jimmy Hoffa had Puerto Rico as a prime target in his multi-million dollar organizing drive. If Hoffa could become the labor power on the island, he could fan out across the Caribbean and onto the Florida mainland.

Already Hoffa has spent more than $1.2 million on his special Project Puerto Rico — directed by a character known as Frank Chavez.

To the Puerto Rican police Chavez also is on record on several indictments — one charge of attempted murder by hurling a firebomb, one charge of carrying illegal firearms and one charge of neglecting something called income taxes.

THE GASTRONOMICA workers wanted no part of this — nor of their new "colonially' imposed boss, Duclos, colleague of Chavez. So the island hotel union took itself out of the Hotel International Union as well as out from under the new teamsters trustee.

But the Hoffistas were determined. They came around to take physical possession of the union, its assets, its record.

The workers just could not permit them to move in. Neither would the police. So the Hoffistas ran to the courts. They claim the mutual aid pact made in Miami earlier this year between Hoffa and Miller (who still is in the AFL-CIO) gave them the right to seize the key island union.

The police are still there. So are investigators of the Puerto Rican Senate. They are agents of the island's Senate Labor Committee now probing the teamsters.

What has stirred the island is Hoffa's strategy. He first attempted to become a power by moving in on the island's transport system. But he ran right smack into the broad front of the seafarers' Paul Hall, newest and youngest of the AFL-CIO's vice presidents. Hall has beaten Hoffa on an equally broad front ranging from San Juan to Chicago.

HALL STOPPED Hoffa's men on the pierhead, so to speak. So Hoffa looked for another beachhead — and what finer ones are there than the luxurious hotels employing many thousands.

So he made his pact with the International Hotel and Restaurant Workers, who have their headquarters in Cincinnati.

Apparently he is not at all appalled by the fact he has already spent much more than a million dollars on his invasion. He is ready to spend more.

Hoffa's coffers are the "secret" of his strategy. Already in 1961 Hoffa had spent $2.27 million on organizing drives. This in addition to helping "subordinate organizations" with $2.14 million. And another $260,354.40 for public relations. These helped run up an operating deficit of $2.60 million in 1961.

Almost half of that sum has gone into Puerto Rica. Apparently Hoffa and company have their hearts set on a place in that sun.

No Murders Or Muggings

By Truman Twill

New Orleans is apologizing for its appearance this spring.

The hardest freeze anyone in New Orleans can remember last January wrecked some of the verdure that makes it so attractive in springtime to northerners tired of winter drabness. The damage is noticeable but not disagreeable.

Even with their top frozen out, the Florida date palms brought in to spruce up Canal Street for this year's Mardi Gras are something to look at. A cab driver assured us no tears would be shed for the camphor trees that succumbed to the chill. Their black seeds drop on light-colored automobiles and stained them indelibly.

Another victim of the freeze was bamboo, which was killed back to the ground. But bamboo grows so fast this will be no problem. By August it will be as high as ever. And did you know the Chinese tortured a man to death by staking him over a bamboo shoot and letting it grow at the rate of four inches a day until it broke his spine?

The city shares with Venice the distinction of being surrounded by water on all sides, plus top and bottom. It lies from four to eight feet under sea level and is saved from drowning in its own juice by a drainage system that pumps water back into the Mississippi as fast as it comes in from the sky, the river and the many tons of ice cubes that melt each day as visitors and native empty glassfuls of various "specialties of the house."

I learned two more things about New Orleans worth passing along.

First is that the beautiful old houses in the Garden District are decaying because no one can afford to keep them in shape; they are too large for today's tax-shrunken incomes. The only solution is to forgive their owners for unpayable tax obligations, similar to the way New Orleans has subsidized perpetuation of the Vieux Carre by forgiving taxes and at the same time restraining the impulse to knock down everything that doesn't look like a shopping center.

If the area of gracious living symbolized by those old New Orleans houses is going to be honored by those of us who expect to be around for a few more years, it will take more than sentimentality.

Second is that uninhibited living on Bourbon Street, New Orleans' main tourist stem, is continuing by virtue of unwritten laws. The street's decent people prevail over the bad ones, Bourbon Street could become as dangerous as any of New York City's off-limit streets.

Murdering and mugging have been kept out. Otherwise, everything goes — and goes — and goes. You have to see it to believe it, and then you doubt it. Makes you forget the disaster to the date palms on Canal Street. Even makes you forget those sad old mansions in the Garden District.

New Orleans is the only place in the United States that has turned slums into capital assets. But the job isn't finished yet.

Inside Story On Steel

By David Lawrence

Questions - Answers Bring Out Key Issues

This is the inside story of how an economic judgment of major importance was made within the steel industry only to be upset subsequently by the political judgment of the President of the United States, backed up by threats of criminal prosecution. The story is based on several days of research among many men in the steel industry and economists who analyze trade and financial news.

David Lawrence

It is perhaps best to present the facts in what could have been a reporter and a group of men who, sitting as a finance committee, endeavored to make an economic judgment just after the contract with the national steelworkers union was signed. Here in composite form is the result:

Q. Did you assure the president or anyone else that you would hold the line on prices?

A. We not only didn't do this, but we couldn't do it without deliberately violating the antitrust laws. We sat down alongside our competitors only to negotiate with the labor unions. We couldn't mention prices either to the union representatives or to the men from the other companies.

Q. Wasn't it inferred or wasn't it implicit that, if the unions didn't get a big wage increase, you as a group wouldn't increase prices?

A. We gave no such promise or inference to anyone. The new increase of 10 cents an hour for labor in "fringe" benefits, it is estimated, will cost our industry about $100 million a year. Somebody has to pay for this. This is on top of the 30 cents an hour increase in wages in the last three years which we absorbed without making any increase in our prices.

Q. But after all the public discussion of wage and price stability, why couldn't you go along?

A. Because we have a responsibility to those who have invested in our property. We have promised to pay back what we owe. We had to make an economic judgment.

Q. On what was your economic judgment based?

A. On the simple fact that three years ago we in our company began a program to modernize our plant and equipment at a cost of $1.18 billion.

Q. Where did you get the money?

A. We got part of it out of surplus and depreciation reserve and part of it out of profits after paying dividends. The balance — $800 million — we borrowed.

Q. Why didn't you just sell more stock instead of borrowing?

A. Because, to pay dividends on stock at 5 per cent, we would have to earn 10 per cent before taxes, which take about a half of our earnings, whereas we can borrow money at 5 per cent and get a tax deduction on half of the interest cost. And that's one of the major reasons why there has been such a big limitation on stock issues not only in our industry but in others as well.

Q. But how do you relate this to your pricing policy?

A. We make a five-year forecast in our company as we take a long range look at the economy. It's difficult to do, but finally we must make an economic judgment based on whether the market for your product will take the increase in prices and on what your competitors will do. This only can be based on published information in annual reports and on common knowledge as to markets and also on financial data in trade and financial journals in our industry. We also can make a reasonable calculation of the amount of depreciation reserve we are going to have over a period of time.

Q. What was your judgment on this particular price increase?

A. We felt it was a moderate one that could be absorbed readily by our customers. We had experienced a 6 per cent deterioration in our cost-price relationship even before the latest wage increase. So a 3½ per cent increase in prices seemed logical, since it was just a bit more than half of the deterioration which had occurred.

Q. How did you come out in your 1961 operations?

A. We made just a little more than $2 million in our company above our dividend payments and above the $210 million reserved for depreciation. This latter sum is available for capital expenditures and amounts today to only a partial replacement of the capital we originally invested, during previous years, in plant and equipment that now is wearing out or becoming obsolete. A. Stockholders and investors play a vital part in the free enterprise system, and the best way to shake their confidence and either limit or eliminate that investment source is to cut dividends."

Q. How does this relate to borrowing power?

A. Well, those who lend money must see before them what is called a 'cushion' — enough leeway between the annual payment on debt and annual profits so that the lenders will feel they have a normal margin of protection if default occurs. The profit squeeze we're going through just isn't healthy for us or for the future of industry generally.

Q. One last question: It has been said that what you did was "bad public relations." Did you take into account public reaction?

A. There never is a "right time" to tell somebody they've got to pay more for their products. Nevertheless we have to make our determinations and judgments on economic facts. "Public relations" will not help us if we cannot modernize our plant and equipment fast enough to enable us to compete with European products and to help us to keep our prices down so that we can compete with substitute products in this country. Library Program Begins

Jaycees At Wellsville Discuss Future Projects

Future projects were outlined at a meeting of the Wellsville Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Jaycee Hall.

The Jay-ettes library program has been started. Elementary school children will be urged to participate in the annual reading program during the summer at the Carnegie Library. All elementary rooms in the school system will be visited to promote the program.

A report was heard from the nominating committee and nominations were accepted from the floor. The election will be held May 28.

Dave Orr and Jack Call are co-chairmen of the safe driving Road-E-O contest. A committee of eight has been named. The tentative date set is May 20. May 27 and June 3 were set as alternate dates. The state contest will be June 10 at Euclid.

Trophies and other awards have been ordered for the scholastic achievement program sponsored by the Jaycees. No date has been set for the presentations.

It was announced an effort will be made to have a levy placed on hte November ballot for the support of city playgrounds. Action was started too late to have the proposal put on the primary ballot.

Ted Koenig was named chairman of the annual innaugural ball. No date or place has been set. The Jaycees approved the purchase of 23 chairs for the hall. The members will work each night this week in painting the interior.

The Jaycees also went on record endorsing the proposed levy for the Columbiana County Retarded Children's Council.

The Jay-ettes were authorized to begin plans for a public social to welcome Lowell Myers, new school superintendent, when he arrives in the latter part of May.

Richard Kevan was selected to be recommended to City Council to fill a vacancy on the Hammond Park Commission.

The local chapter voted to sponsor a trophy to be presentedd the best offense football player on the Wellsville team.

The first trophy will be presented at the All-Sports banquet to be held Thursday night by the Omni Boosters Club.

Three Jaycees were given the opportunity to speak at the conclusion of the business. The talks are part of a leadership training program.

Ted Koenig, high school band director, discussed music and its importance to the world, William Miller spoke on advertising and its value to the economy and Jerry Russell discussed the threat of communism.

Frank Fusco, president, conducted business.

3 Flee Blaze As It Strikes Lisbon Home

LISBON — Three occupants of an E. Chestnut St. duplex fled in their nightclothes from flames which destroyed the structure and their belongings early today.

Heavy damage was caused at the home of Mrs. Anna Mary Shives, 301 E. Chestnut St. The blaze was spotted at 2:25 a. m. by Dean Senanefes, a volunteer fireman on his way home from work at Salem and he put in the alarm.

Mrs. Shives, along with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker, who resided in the upstairs portion of the home, escaped without injury.

Fire Chief Thirl Flugan said Mrs. Shives, a bookkeeper and tax consultant, was preparing to move to Washington and a public sale was to be held Saturday.

Flugan said the home furnishing to have been sold were destroyed. She told the chief the home and furnishings were insured, but the Walkers said they had no insurance coverage.

Ralph Reed, an Ohio Highway patrolman who resides next door, used a water hose to wet down his home and protect it from flames until firemen arrived.

Firemen had no estimate of the total loss. Cause of the fire was undetermined, according to firemen who remained at the scene for two and a half hours.

Pair Bound Over In DAV Entry; Youth Penalized

James Kraft, 19, of 233 Center St., Beechwood, and Thomas Lawrence, 20, of Lisbon R.D. 3, were bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Monday by County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine for burglary of the DAV home at West Point April 15.

Bond was set at $500 for the pair, who pleaded not guilty.

A 16-year-old East Liverpool boy involved in the DAV case was placed on probation to his parents after a hearing Monday before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon. He also was fined $50, placed on a 6 p.m. curfew, given a six-month suspension of his driver's permit, instructed to attend church each Sunday and to pass all his subjects at school.

Lawrence also is accused of a burglary the night of March 10-11 at the Caplan Junk Yard on the River Rd., along with John Goempel, 18, of 207 Haywood St., Beechwood. They are due preliminary hearings in Municipal Court Wednesday.

Teamwork between the sheriff's office and local police led to arrests in the two cases. Solution of the DAV burglary led to "cracking" of the Caplan entering, in which scrap metal worth about $1,000 was stolen.

Gas

the schedule shows. The new proposal would fixe a charge of $3.90 for the same amount, compared with $2.89 at present.

The utility representatives held a series of conferences with the 1960-61 Council, but the negotiations broke off in mid-September. The meeting last night was the first conference between the present Council and the gas company.

Cox pointed out that the company's original proposition would have raised East Liverpool's rates 20.5 per cent. In the September discussion, the requested hike had been cut to 16.5 per cent, he said. So the request presented last night amounts to only half of the initial proposal.

Cox said the proposed increase would amount to $1 a month more during the heating season for the average home heating customer, who uses 30,000 cubic feet a month.

Under the new proposal, 30,000 cubic feet would cost $26.36, as against $25.35 in the current rate. At the rate first proposed in 1961, 30,000 cubic feet would have cost $28.18.

The company also proposes to eliminate the "delayed payment charge" — a penalty tacked on to bills not paid within 10 days after receipt. At present, the penalty amounts to 5 per cent for any bill up to $20 and 2 per cent for those over $20.

Sneddon said about 98.5 per cent of East Liverpool gas customers pay their bills on time, avoiding the penalty. The company has 7,000 East Liverpool customers, of whom 75 per cent use gas for home heating, Cox said.

Here are other figures on rates, comparing the proposed charge against the present schedule: 2,000 cubic feet, $4.45 proposed, now $3.44; 5,000 cubic feet, $6.80 proposed, now $5.79; 10,000 cubic feet, $10.71 proposed, now $9.70; 20,000 cubic feet, $18.53 proposed, now $17.53; 40,000 cubic feet, $34.18 proposed, now $33.18, and 50,000 cubic feet, $42.01 proposed, now $41.

Cox termed the new proposal "the rock bottom offer for a four-year contract." It will allow the company a 5 per cent return on its investment in East Liverpool, he said.

As the meeting opened, Cox reviewed the history of the negotiations with the former Council. He said the company prefers to negotiate separately with each of the 21 communities in the division, rather than going before the Public Utilities Commission at Columbus with a blanket proposal.

In computing the rates on its investment in each community, the company avoids "penalizing" one city for the higher operating costs in other places, Cox explained.

Cox explained the company has the right to negotiate with individual cities under the Ohio "home rule" law. The present rate schedule was fixed in April 1960 by the PUCO.

Referring to the proposed rates, Councilman Frank Duffy asked: "Does that amount to $7,000 more a month for the company?"

"I don't have specific figures, but it probably would come close to that," Cox replied.

Cox said Bellaire Council and the company recently worked out tentative agreement on a 5 per cent increase. The legislation was given two readings, then was turned down, 4-3, when it came up for final passage, he said.

Cox said the defeat resulted "more or less from a misunderstanding" on the part of several councilmen who had not attended previous meetings. He said he hopes the rate ordinance will be approved shortly. Bellaire has 4,000 gas customers, Cox said.

Cafeteria Food Reordered After Weekend Thefts

Pupils at the No. 16 School of the Southern Local District returned to classes today able to enjoy cafeteria service after school officials secured a new supply of food and silverware following a burglary of the building early Saturday.

No estimate of the loss has been made, but it is expected to total several hundred dollars with the thieves hauling off all the food, stainless steel tableware, a percolator, typewriter, 20 - inch power mower, Bell Howell movie projector and a slide projector.

Chief Deputy Sheriff James Miller said the investigation into the theft is continuing. It is similar to burglaries pulled in Jefferson and Carroll counties, the deputy said.

The thieves gained entrance by breaking off a lock leading into the furnace room.

Burglars obtained an undetermined amount of cash from a music box and cigarette machine at the Bar X tavern on the Y. O. Rd. early this morning, the owners, Claude and Mary Williams, reported to the sheriff's office.

In addition to the change from the machines, about $3 was taken from the cash register which had been left open, Deputy Miller said.

The thief apparently unlocked a window in the restroom and then returned when the tavern was closed and crawled into the building, he said.

Non-High School Grad May Enter Air Force

T. Sgt. James Lee, city Air Force recruiter, said May will be the last chance until late fall for enlistment of non-high school graduates into the Air Force.

Sgt. Lee's office is in the City Hall.

Interested persons may call him at FU. 6-6181 for testing dates.

Gets Army Contract

CLEVELAND (AP)—A $7,670,250 Army contract for producing 487,000 anti-tank shells will keep 600 persons on the assembly line for another year at the Weatherhead Co., Albert J. Weatherhead Jr., company president, said Monday.

ing with Rep. Hays, who was in East Liverpool to address the Rotary Club at noon.

The highway committee announced plans April 12 for its meeting with Rep. Hays, who is on a swing through his district during the Easter vacation of Congress.

At the same time, the committee announced that the Highway Department expects to open bids June 12 on the next phase of the lake-river road, rather than waiting until fall, as had been anticipated originally.

The next phase will begin at the north city limits — linking up with the California Hollow - West End Freeway — and extend to a junction with State Route 170, near Substation.

In a letter to the Chamber committee, the Highway Department reported construction plans are complete for the next phase of the project and it will seek to let contracts "as soon as possible."

Adding the river-lake road to the federal interstate system probably would accelerate construction greatly, as it would multiply the available funds.

At present, various stages are being constructed out of the state's so-called "primary funds."

Under the present system, the Highway Department puts up $1 million for each $1 million in federal funds.

If the highway became part of the interstate system, the Highway Department would put up only $1 million for each $9 million furnished by the federal government.

In that way, $10 million worth of construction could be undertaken for each $1 million advanced by the state. At present, only $2 million is accomplished for each $1 million in state or local funds.

The decision to seek to have the lake-river road placed on the interstate system was made at a meeting of the Lake Erie-Ohio River Highway Association about two months ago.

3 Flee Blaze As It Strikes Lisbon Home

LISBON — Three occupants of an E. Chestnut St. duplex fled in their nightclothes from flames which destroyed the structure and their belongings early today.

Heavy damage was caused at the home of Mrs. Anna Mary Shives, 301 E. Chestnut St. The blaze was spotted at 2:25 a. m. by Dean Senanefes, a volunteer fireman on his way home from work at Salem and he put in the alarm.

Mrs. Shives, along with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker, who resided in the upstairs portion of the home, escaped without injury.

Fire Chief Thirl Flugan said Mrs. Shives, a bookkeeper and tax consultant, was preparing to move to Washington and a public sale was to be held Saturday.

Flugan said the home furnishing to have been sold were destroyed. She told the chief the home and furnishings were insured, but the Walkers said they had no insurance coverage.

Ralph Reed, an Ohio Highway patrolman who resides next door, used a water hose to wet down his home and protect it from flames until firemen arrived.

Firemen had no estimate of the total loss. Cause of the fire was undetermined, according to firemen who remained at the scene for two and a half hours.

Search Continues For Bodies Of 2 River Victims

KINGWOOD, W. Va. — The search continued today for the bodies of a woman and a soldier who drowned in Cheat River Sunday after a canoe capsized.

Skindivers explored the murky depths of the river yesterday but Sheriff Ralph Brown said they probably would not be used today because of the turbulence.

The woman was Miss Ellen Cook, a 26-year-old Pittsburgh school teacher. The Army at Ft. Bragg, N.C., identified the soldier yesterday as Pfc. Bernard Barrett of Rt. 1 Meigs, Ga. Barnett's commanding officer at Camp Dawson near here, however, gave his rank as specialist fourth class, his age as 19 and his home as Thomasville, Ga.

Barrett's unit, part of the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, is on temporary duty at Camp Dawson.

Barrett and three other soldiers tried to save Miss Cook after the canoe carrying her and her companion, John Philbrick, 25, of Pittsburgh, turned over. Philbrick and three of the soldiers managed to get to shore, but Barrett went under.

Chester Meeting Set On Sweeper Proposal

A meeting of Chester residents interested in purchasing a used street sweeper for the city has been called for tonight at 8 in the Council chambers of the City Hall.

Don Chaney of Carolina Ave., a candidate for 5th Ward Council, called the meeting, reporting some $400 has been pledged by individuals and businesses for the $800 sweeper.

The machine was part of a package deal offered by the Thruway Co. of Pittsburgh at a meeting of Council last week. Council was unable to purchase the equipment because money is not available in the budget.

Hubert Myers, street commissioner who visited the firm last week and inspected the machine, will be at the meeting to describe it, Chaney said.

Auto Mishap Injures Area Residents' Son

John J. Como, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Como of Shadyside Ave., is recuperating at the Indiana (Pa.) Memorial Hospital with head injuries suffered in a one-car mishap over the weekend.

Como was en route to Pittsburgh, where he is employed, after visiting a friend at Marion Center, Pa., when his car went off the highway about 20 miles east of Indiana and crashed into a tree.

Como was picked up early in the morning by two youths while he was hitchhiking and they took him to the hospital.

He suffered a fractured skull and underwent surgery. Como is employed at St. Francis Hospital at Pittsburgh.

Lisbon Area Motorist Fined And Sentenced

LISBON — Henry C. Marchbanks, 57, of R.D. was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in the County Jail Monday by County Judge James L. MacDonald on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Two others were fined and two forfeited appearance bonds.

David R. Williams, 26, of Wellsville R. D. was fined $5 and costs for driving on an expired license and Ernest J. Cozza, 45, of Salem R. D. $29.80 for driving an overloaded truck.

Gary Imhoff, 21, of East Rochester forfeited $25 for reckless operation and Samuel J. Marra, 24, of Weirton, $20 for passing at an intersection. All were cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Bright Child Acts Bored In School

You and I have known some gifted adults who seem to take pride in doing ordinary things in careless, untidy ways. They may brag about the illegibility of their own handwriting, for example. If you have a precocious child, begin early to train him in reasonable responsibilities and neatness and cleanliness and conformity to regulations which contribute to the convenience and comforts of other members of the family. Train him, also, to do ordinary jobs, however monotonous, with reasonable precision. A Texas mother writes:

Dr. Garry Meyers

"OUR SON, nine, is in the 4th grade. He is an A student. His school subjects come easy to him and because of this he is careless and sloppy in his assignments. He takes an 'I don't care' attitude and at times acts bored.

"His teacher refuses to grade him an A student until he improves and realizes that schoolwork is important.

"How can we impress upon him that now is the time to form good school habits for the later years to come?"

My reply in part:

Even though this lad may be bored with some things at school too easy for him, he needs to master the essential skills and to conform to classroom requirements.

I don't think talk will amount to anything. When that boy prepares written work for school, check on it and, if not done neatly and thoroughly, require him to do it over.

ALSO, BE VERY exacting with him about certain responsibilities and chores at home. See that he does them well and on time. Don't argue. If he fails to do the chores on time, require him to sit in a chair, unamused, where you can see him, for 40 minutes for each dereliction.

When you make a request or command of him, be sure first to have his undivided attention. If he sometimes starts pell-mell before knowing fully what he is to do, require him to first repeat the request or command and then carry it out.

Also, you parents should stimulate him to read much at home from books and magazines of interest to him. View with him worthwhile programs on TV and encourage him to talk about new things he has learned at school.

My bulletins, "Educating Your Child in Responsibility" and "Parents and the Gifted Child," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

The board discussed the August fair and decided to sponsor dances at the Floral building at the fairgrounds to raise money to build benches and trash cans for the fair. The first dance is June 15.

Next meeting is May 21 at 8 p. m. in the county extension office.

Sewage Plant Planning Set

EAST PALESTINE — Council Monday night authorized a contract with the Floyd Browne Associates, engineers, to prepare plans and specifications for a proposed $330,000 new sewage disposal plant.

The Marion firm is to have the plans ready for an application for a federal grant on the project to be filed before July 1. Fee for the plans will be $16,000.

Council is expected to take action sometime in May for increasing sewage rates, a revision also required for the federal application.

Tentative increases in rates will boost the present flat rate from $3 to $5 a quarter, or from $12 to $20 a year.

Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce today backed a proposed annexation of areas north and west of the city, linking them in a basic sewage system.

Parts of Sections 23, 24 and 27 would be joined to the city in a move originally adopted to reduce stream pollution in the area north of here.

The annexation would increase the area of the city by a third. The proposed new sewage disposal facility would accommodate the flow increase due to the additions of some 200 more homes in the area, officials have said.

The first air raids in wartime history took place on Jan. 19, 1915, during World War I, when German zeppelins dropped bombs on some English communities.

Guard Added For Crossing On North Side

Council gave unanimous approval Monday night to an ordinance which will permit Safety-Service Director Robert Owen to hire an additional adult guard to protect school children crossing the busy intersection of Anderson Blvd. and Orchard Grove Ave. on their way to and from Lincoln School.

The legislation boosts the force of adult guards to 11, one more than the present total. As provided in the former legislation, the guards are limited to 15 hours work in any one week at a rate of $1 an hour. Following approval of the legislation, the director indicated he will fill the post today.

Council held a brief special session to approve the legislation, rather than wait until its regular meeting May 7 to authorize hiring of the new guard.

The action was requested at the meeting April 16 by Councilman Kenneth Berg. He said traffic at the intersection has gained sharply, as many motorists have been using Anderson Blvd. and Park Way to avoid the rough pavement of St. Clair Ave. through the Maplewood district.

About 70 youngsters use the crossing daily, Berg said.

In other business, Owen asked the ordinance committee to present legislation at the meeting May 7 authorizing the administration to advertise for bids on blacktopping the new off-street parking lot on the site of the former Ceramic Theater, along with purchase of approximately 39 parking meters.

The lot has been in use unofficially — and free — since March 23, when street department workers completed installation of a temporary slag surface.

President Charles N. Edwards announced a representative of the Mark-Time Parking Meter Co. of Cleveland has been granted a caucus session with Council May 7 and 7 p. m. to demonstrate meters. A representative of a Pittsburgh firm appeared before Council about a week ago with a proposal for replacing most existing meters.

The LAKEVIEW ESTATES STORY

The last word in exclusive locations for the busy executive or professional man seeking retreat from the work day!

That's a thumbnail description of Lakeview Estates, another exclusive residential development of Paul M. Brown, contractor.

Brown chose a perfect location for his latest countryside creation in the fast-growing Calcutta area. And plans indicate it will be the ultimate in beauty as home construction progresses.

Lakeview Estates is cloistered in a scenic suburban setting on a shallow bluff overlooking State Route 170 in the Calcutta Area.

Thousands may remember its location in recalling a visit during "open house" observance last summer for one of the first new dwellings, the all-gas "House of Enchantment."

The development will cover 40 acres of wooded countryside amid grassy fields. Because of the gently sloping terrain, it appears that little landscaping is needed to improve on a blessing of great natural beauty.

Natural gas service is available for 34 lovely homesites. Three homes presently are up in Lakeview Estates, and they stand out distinctly as some of the most beautiful in this vicinity.

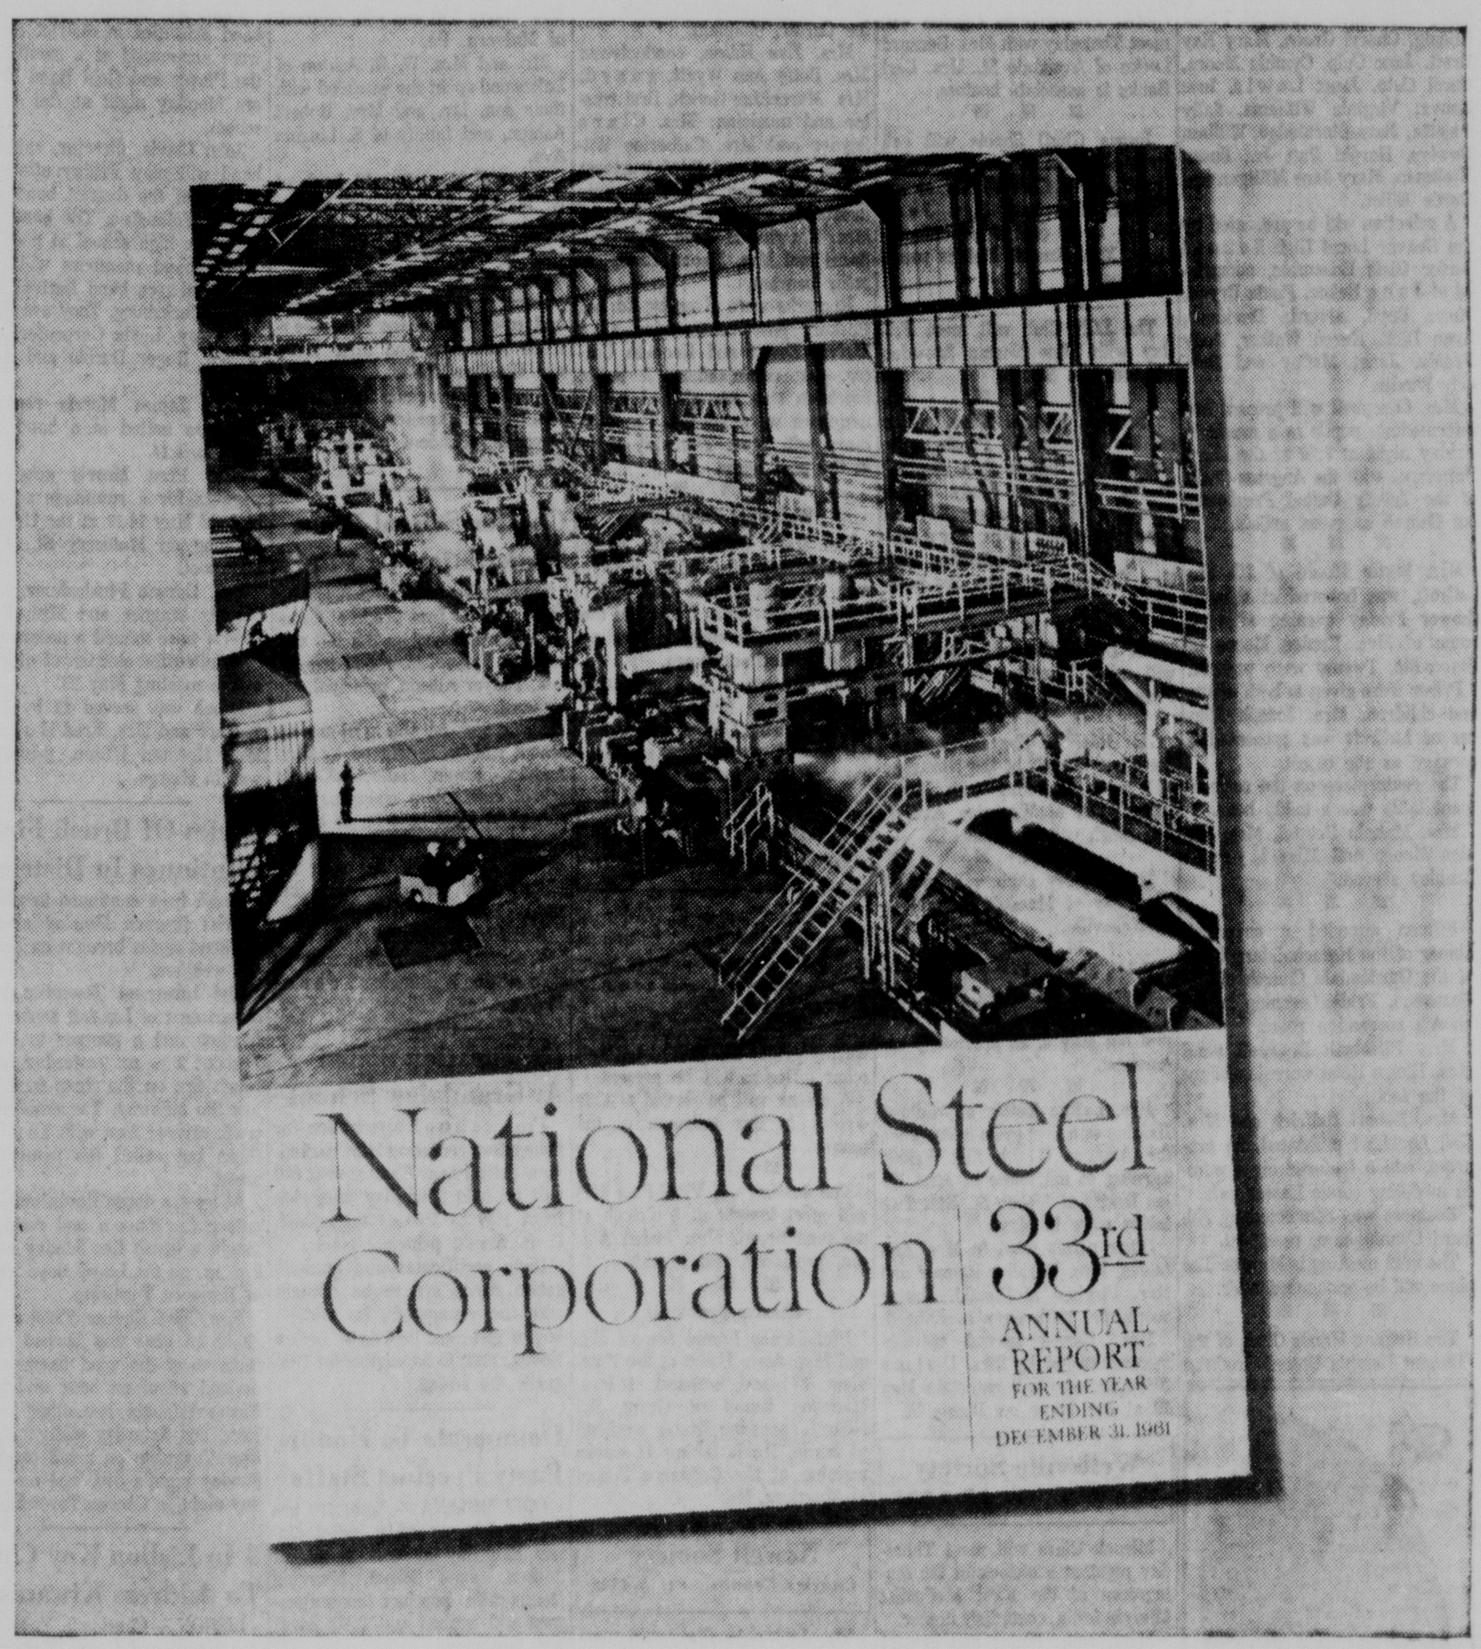

The private dwellings are limited to a minimum of $20,000 and will be for residence only.

Featuring the setting is a three-acre lake constructed by the contractor for exclusive use of Lakeview Estates families for fishing, sailing and swimming. No doubt they will also benefit by cool summer breezes flowing across the artificial lake.

Lakeview Estates may be inspected at any time by prospective families wishing to reside there. It's in a quiet area, but not far from necessary conveniences and main highways.

For the professional man or executive, Lakeview Estates offers a step UP in space, class and of course, price.

Qualified to provide prospective homeowners in Lakeview Estates with full details for the total building picture, Mr. Brown maintains an office in Hitt Builders Supply on Calcutta-Smith's Ferry Rd. Call Hitt Builders now. FU 5-2474.

Our Annual Report describes completion, in 1961, of our original three-year construction program at major subsidiaries and divisions—an important milestone in the continuing growth and improvement of National Steel's facilities.

The construction program—now enlarged to a total of $360,000,000—includes the world's largest basic oxygen steelmaking furnaces and new tin plate producing facilities. Both of these will be completed this year.

It also includes an 80-inch hot-strip mill, the fastest, most powerful ever built, and an entirely new steel finishing plant in the Chicago area. These new facilities are already producing, providing a strong base from which to meet the rigorous competition from domestic and foreign steel companies, as well as substitute materials.

The 1961 Report also covers important new product applications, research activities and financial developments.

If you would like a copy of the Report, we will be glad to send it. Write to National Steel Corporation, 2801 Grant Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa.

Sewage Plant Planning Set

EAST PALESTINE — Council Monday night authorized a contract with the Floyd Browne Associates, engineers, to prepare plans and specifications for a proposed $330,000 new sewage disposal plant.

The Marion firm is to have the plans ready for an application for a federal grant on the project to be filed before July 1. Fee for the plans will be $16,000.

Council is expected to take action sometime in May for increasing sewage rates, a revision also required for the federal application.

Tentative increases in rates will boost the present flat rate from $3 to $5 a quarter, or from $12 to $20 a year.

Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce today backed a proposed annexation of areas north and west of the city, linking them in a basic sewage system.

Parts of Sections 23, 24 and 27 would be joined to the city in a move originally adopted to reduce stream pollution in the area north of here.

The annexation would increase the area of the city by a third. The proposed new sewage disposal facility would accommodate the flow increase due to the additions of some 200 more homes in the area, officials have said.

The first air raids in wartime history took place on Jan. 19, 1915, during World War I, when German zeppelins dropped bombs on some English communities.

Guard Added For Crossing On North Side

Council gave unanimous approval Monday night to an ordinance which will permit Safety-Service Director Robert Owen to hire an additional adult guard to protect school children crossing the busy intersection of Anderson Blvd. and Orchard Grove Ave. on their way to and from Lincoln School.

The legislation boosts the force of adult guards to 11, one more than the present total. As provided in the former legislation, the guards are limited to 15 hours work in any one week at a rate of $1 an hour. Following approval of the legislation, the director indicated he will fill the post today.

Council held a brief special session to approve the legislation, rather than wait until its regular meeting May 7 to authorize hiring of the new guard.

The action was requested at the meeting April 16 by Councilman Kenneth Berg. He said traffic at the intersection has gained sharply, as many motorists have been using Anderson Blvd. and Park Way to avoid the rough pavement of St. Clair Ave. through the Maplewood district.

About 70 youngsters use the crossing daily, Berg said.

In other business, Owen asked the ordinance committee to present legislation at the meeting May 7 authorizing the administration to advertise for bids on blacktopping the new off-street parking lot on the site of the former Ceramic Theater, along with purchase of approximately 39 parking meters.

The lot has been in use unofficially — and free — since March 23, when street department workers completed installation of a temporary slag surface.

President Charles N. Edwards announced a representative of the Mark-Time Parking Meter Co. of Cleveland has been granted a caucus session with Council May 7 and 7 p. m. to demonstrate meters. A representative of a Pittsburgh firm appeared before Council about a week ago with a proposal for replacing most existing meters.

Our Annual Report describes completion, in 1961, of our original three-year construction program at major subsidiaries and divisions—an important milestone in the continuing growth and improvement of National Steel's facilities.

The construction program—now enlarged to a total of $360,000,000—includes the world's largest basic oxygen steelmaking furnaces and new tin plate producing facilities. Both of these will be completed this year.

It also includes an 80-inch hot-strip mill, the fastest, most powerful ever built, and an entirely new steel finishing plant in the Chicago area. These new facilities are already producing, providing a strong base from which to meet the rigorous competition from domestic and foreign steel companies, as well as substitute materials.

The 1961 Report also covers important new product applications, research activities and financial developments.

If you would like a copy of the Report, we will be glad to send it. Write to National Steel Corporation, 2801 Grant Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa.

Extension Is Set On Some Plates In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Owners of trucks, buses, taxicabs and similiar vehicles have been given a 45-day extension on the life of their 1961-62 license plates.

Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jack A. Nuckols announced Monday that plates for all classes of vehicles—other than private passenger cars — won't expire until midnight, Aug. 14.

Class A private passenger car plates will expire at midnight June 30 as scheduled. Applications for the tags will go into the mail the first week in May and the new 1962-63 plates may be used after June 1.

Applications for truck and other vehicle plates, other than Class A, will not be mailed before July 5 and the tags will not be issued before July 15.

Nuckols said the extension had been granted to ease the work load for private passenger auto tags during May and June and to expedite the issuance of the Class A plates.

He said he had no plans at present to ask for a change in the plate registration laws until a study is made of how this year's experiment works out.

Judge Warns Driver Following 2nd Arrest

Appearing for the second time this month before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Bobby Byers, 31, of Glenmoor was warned today his next violation will lead to suspension of his driver's license.

Pleading guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge he failed to halt for a stop sign April 16 at the intersection of County Rd. 424 and Route 30, Byers drew a fine of $5 and $7.50 costs.

Questioned by the judge, who said he recognized the defendant, Byers said he was before the court earlier on a charge of driving with an expired temporary license plate. The judge recalled that he suspended the fine on that violation.

Questioned by the court about the top sign violation, Byers said he "slowed but didn't stop" because he was late for work at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Expense Statements Due From Candidates

All candidates for Hancock County posts in the May 8 West Virginia primary must file financial statements listing receipts and disbursements by May 1.

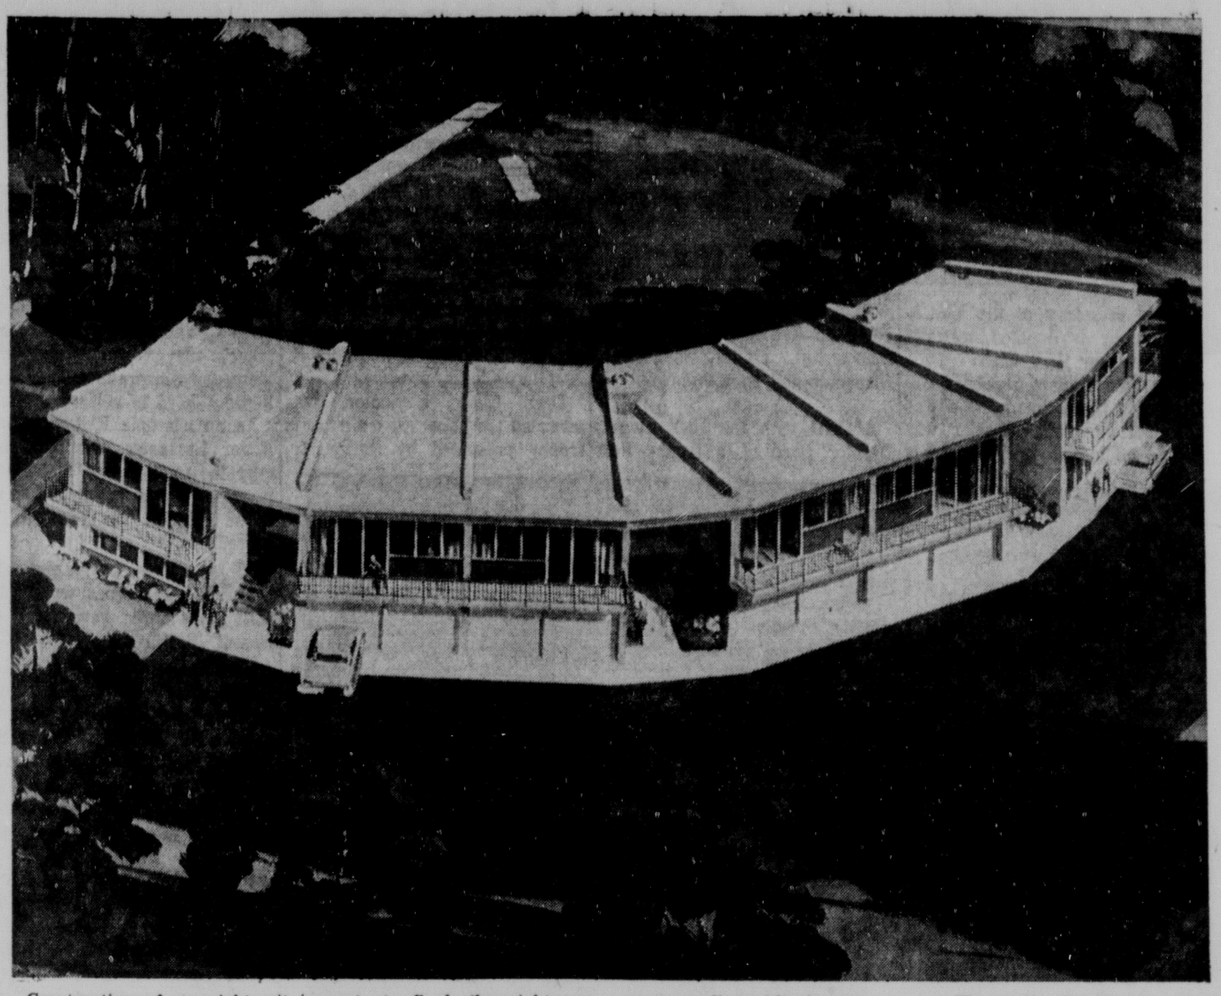

County Clerk Donald Stewart reminded today that the campaign expenditure statements must be notarized before filed in his office in the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

He pointed out that filing of the campaign statements is mandatory and failure to do so means a candidate may face a fine of $50 or imprisonment in county jail for not more than one year, or both, within the discretion of the law.

The statements are to be filed by all candidates except those seeking nomination to an office to be voted on by residents of counties other than Hancock.

Eight-Unit Project

$150,000 Apartment Building Set

Construction of an eight-unit apartment building estimated to cost $150,000 on Gaston Pl. at St. Clair Ave. was announced today by George F. Bright, city realtor.

Tentative plans call for this modernistic building to be started this summer with completion scheduled by the end of the year, Bright said. No contracts have been awarded as yet.

Demolition of the vacant 12-room brick home formerly owned by the Gaston family will begin within a few days, the realtor said.

Designed by J. Nessly Porter, city architect, the two-story building will afford a panoramic view of the downtown and Ohio River.

Plans call for single apartments to flank the eight garages on the main level with the remaining six apartments on the second floor. Each apartment will have 1,050 square feet of space, including two bedrooms.

The building will be approximately 160 feet long and 44 feet wide. It will be constructed so that another floor may be added in the future, Bright said.

The grading of the ground for the new structure will be done so that the present retaining wall will remain, he continued.

Bright purchased the 89-year-old home and approximately an acre of ground from United Steelworkers Local 1322 about a year ago. The union had purchased the home about two years earlier with plans to renovate it.

The home was constructed in 1873 on what was then known as the Calcutta Rd. by George Gaston, who purchased the land along with several adjoining tracts from Mary C. Jackman.

The section was known as the "Gaston and Montgomery Addition" to East Liverpool.

Mr. Gaston resided in the home until his death in 1908 and his widow, the former Rachel Montgomery, resided there until she died in 1925.

They had four children — J. Willis Gaston, Elizabeth Gaston, John Gaston and George Gaston. Two are still living, Elizabeth (Mrs. H. N. Mateer) of Wooster and George in New York City.

The only direct descendant living in East Liverpool now is Willis G. Gaston of Curry St., a grandson of J. Willis Gaston.

The builder of the home owned and operated a hardware store on 2nd St., known as George Gaston & Sons. He later erected the Gaston building on the east side of the Diamond and operated the business there.

About 1900 the building was leased to King & Eells Hardware which continued the hardware business there until moving to W. 6th St. After Mr. Gaston's retirement from the hardware business, he operated the Gaston Realty Co.

George Gaston was one of 10 children of James W. Gaston, who lived in a red brick house in the West End. The home sits on a point off Gaston Ave. on land originally owned by Benjamin Fawcett.

James Gaston also owned a farm in California Hollow, part of which now is Columbiana County Memorial Park. The house still stands across Routes 7 & 30 from the cemetery entrance and still is owned by Gaston heirs.

However, the State Highway Department last week made an offer for the property as part of the right-of-way for the second phase of the Lake Erie - Ohio River freeway.

Extension Is Set On Some Plates In West Virginia

CHARLESTON (AP) — Owners of trucks, buses, taxicabs and similiar vehicles have been given a 45-day extension on the life of their 1961-62 license plates.

Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jack A. Nuckols announced Monday that plates for all classes of vehicles—other than private passenger cars — won't expire until midnight, Aug. 14.

Class A private passenger car plates will expire at midnight June 30 as scheduled. Applications for the tags will go into the mail the first week in May and the new 1962-63 plates may be used after June 1.

Applications for truck and other vehicle plates, other than Class A, will not be mailed before July 5 and the tags will not be issued before July 15.

Nuckols said the extension had been granted to ease the work load for private passenger auto tags during May and June and to expedite the issuance of the Class A plates.

He said he had no plans at present to ask for a change in the plate registration laws until a study is made of how this year's experiment works out.

Judge Warns Driver Following 2nd Arrest

Appearing for the second time this month before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, Bobby Byers, 31, of Glenmoor was warned today his next violation will lead to suspension of his driver's license.

Pleading guilty to a State Highway Patrol charge he failed to halt for a stop sign April 16 at the intersection of County Rd. 424 and Route 30, Byers drew a fine of $5 and $7.50 costs.

Questioned by the judge, who said he recognized the defendant, Byers said he was before the court earlier on a charge of driving with an expired temporary license plate. The judge recalled that he suspended the fine on that violation.

Questioned by the court about the top sign violation, Byers said he "slowed but didn't stop" because he was late for work at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co.

Expense Statements Due From Candidates

All candidates for Hancock County posts in the May 8 West Virginia primary must file financial statements listing receipts and disbursements by May 1.

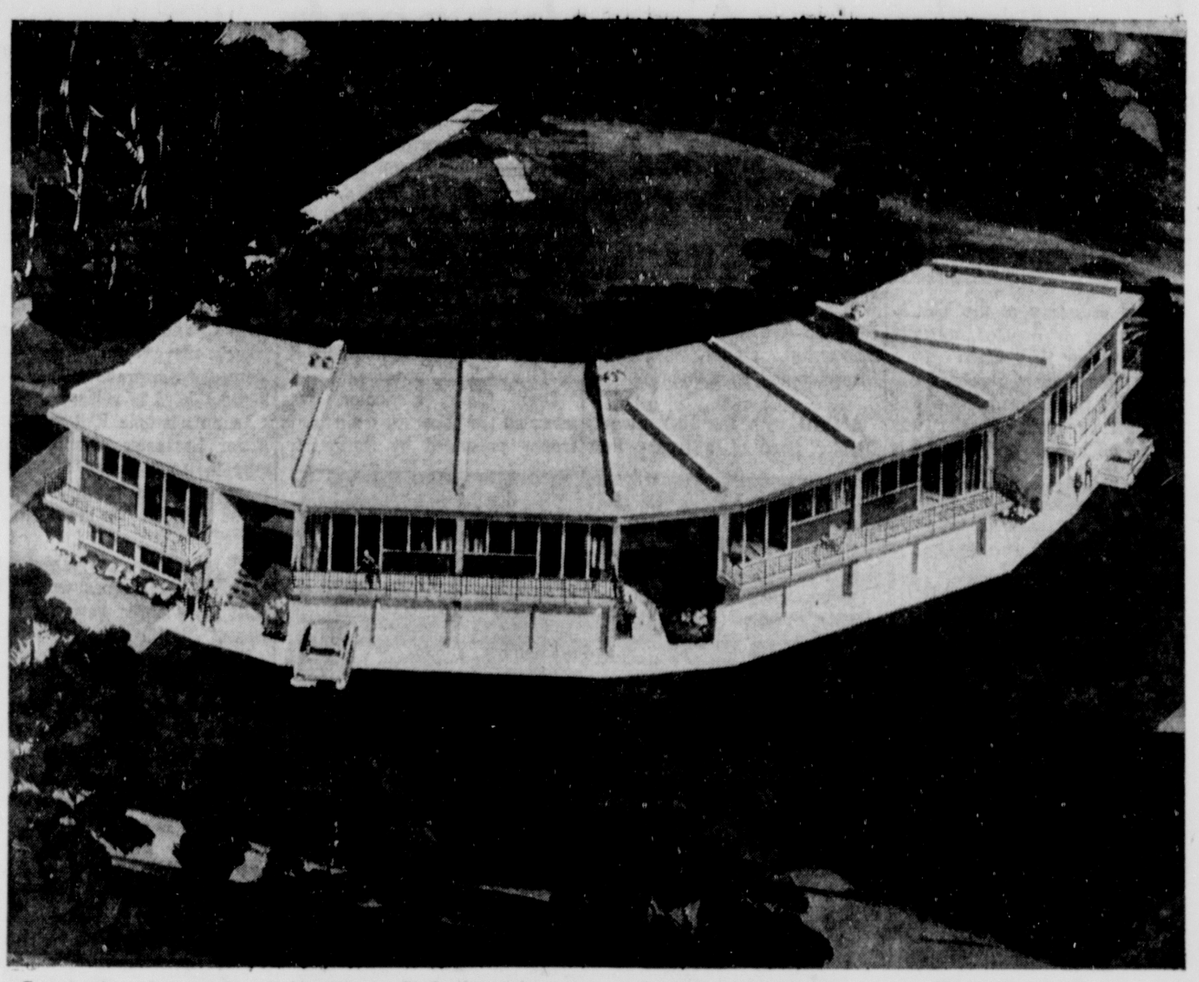

County Clerk Donald Stewart reminded today that the campaign expenditure statements must be notarized before filed in his office in the Courthouse in New Cumberland.

He pointed out that filing of the campaign statements is mandatory and failure to do so means a candidate may face a fine of $50 or imprisonment in county jail for not more than one year, or both, within the discretion of the law.

The statements are to be filed by all candidates except those seeking nomination to an office to be voted on by residents of counties other than Hancock.

Eight-Unit Project

$150,000 Apartment Building Set

Construction of an eight-unit apartment building estimated to cost $150,000 on Gaston Pl. at St. Clair Ave. was announced today by George F. Bright, city realtor.

Tentative plans call for this modernistic building to be started this summer with completion scheduled by the end of the year, Bright said. No contracts have been awarded as yet.

Demolition of the vacant 12-room brick home formerly owned by the Gaston family will begin within a few days, the realtor said.

Designed by J. Nessly Porter, city architect, the two-story building will afford a panoramic view of the downtown and Ohio River.

Plans call for single apartments to flank the eight garages on the main level with the remaining six apartments on the second floor. Each apartment will have 1,050 square feet of space, including two bedrooms.

The building will be approximately 160 feet long and 44 feet wide. It will be constructed so that another floor may be added in the future, Bright said.

The grading of the ground for the new structure will be done so that the present retaining wall will remain, he continued.

Bright purchased the 89-year-old home and approximately an acre of ground from United Steelworkers Local 1322 about a year ago. The union had purchased the home about two years earlier with plans to renovate it.

The home was constructed in 1873 on what was then known as the Calcutta Rd. by George Gaston, who purchased the land along with several adjoining tracts from Mary C. Jackman.

The section was known as the "Gaston and Montgomery Addition" to East Liverpool.

Mr. Gaston resided in the home until his death in 1908 and his widow, the former Rachel Montgomery, resided there until she died in 1925.

They had four children — J. Willis Gaston, Elizabeth Gaston, John Gaston and George Gaston. Two are still living, Elizabeth (Mrs. H. N. Mateer) of Wooster and George in New York City.

The only direct descendant living in East Liverpool now is Willis G. Gaston of Curry St., a grandson of J. Willis Gaston.

The builder of the home owned and operated a hardware store on 2nd St., known as George Gaston & Sons. He later erected the Gaston building on the east side of the Diamond and operated the business there.

About 1900 the building was leased to King & Eells Hardware which continued the hardware business there until moving to W. 6th St. After Mr. Gaston's retirement from the hardware business, he operated the Gaston Realty Co.

George Gaston was one of 10 children of James W. Gaston, who lived in a red brick house in the West End. The home sits on a point off Gaston Ave. on land originally owned by Benjamin Fawcett.

James Gaston also owned a farm in California Hollow, part of which now is Columbiana County Memorial Park. The house still stands across Routes 7 & 30 from the cemetery entrance and still is owned by Gaston heirs.

However, the State Highway Department last week made an offer for the property as part of the right-of-way for the second phase of the Lake Erie - Ohio River freeway.

Deshler Named 17th Winner Of Hi-Y Basketball Award

The Sports Bench

By BOB DUFFY
Sports Editor

Homegrown Talent . . .

In this day and age of basketball scandals and high-pressure recruiting which has given college basketball a black eye, it would be an ideal situation to be a coach and know that your starting five could amost walk to the campus from their respective hometowns.

C. G. (Buzz) Ridl, the guest speaker at the East Liverpool High School basketball banquet Monday night, finds himself in this enviable position as head coach at Westminster College.

All five of his first team members, named the No. 1 small college team in the nation this past season, come from within a 25-mile radius of the New Wilmington (Pa.) school.

Ridl is a firm believer that talent is rich in this area and as long as you find it in your own backyard there is no reason to go several thousand miles looking for basketball players.

For example, Ron Galbreath, who was named to the first team on the Little All-American squad this season, comes from Wampum, Pa., which is only a stone's throw away from the Westminster campus. Ridl told us that Galbreath, who has been drafted by the Pittsburgh Rens, would be trying out for the Steel City team late this summer.

Ridl, an alumnus of Westminster, gives a slight smile when the Duquesne game is mentioned. The Titans came up with one of the biggest surprises of the season last winter when they upset Duquesne, a team which was rated seventh in the country at the time.

RIDL which is pronounced (Riddle), represented one of the better athletic banquet speakers who has appeared here in sometime. His talk was off the beaten track and proved very stimulating.

—:—

MR. AND Mrs. Ridl are good friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slaven, 605 McKinnon Ave., with whom they visited following last night's banquet.

County Teams Balanced . . .

For the past decade, Salem and East Palestine have been dominating the Columbiana County track and field meet. However, this may be the year the Quakers and Bulldogs fail to make the winner's circle.

The county schools will head for East Palestine Friday May 11 for the 59th annual meet, oldest of its kind in Ohio.

From the way the teams have been performing to date it looks like anybodys race.

Salem has to be given a slight edge at this stage of the game, since the Quakers did defeat Wellsville, 76-42, but the Tigers turned around two weeks later to rout East Palestine, 81-37.

In all fairness to Wellsville, the meet with Salem was early in the season and since then Coach Ken Woods youngsters have beaten East Palestine and also finished third in the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference meet Saturday at Steubenville, where records were set by Mark Leyda, who soared 19 feet, 11 inches in the broad jump, and Andy Dash, who put the shot 46 feet.

In the Salem meet, Leyda lost the broad jump to Bill Beery, but the Quaker jumper only hit 18 feet 10½ inches.

The clockings by Wellsville athletes in Saturday's meet were the best so far this season in most cases.

East Liverpool will receive a big test Friday against the Tigers at Wellsville.

Another team which can't be counted out is Columbiana. Jim Ward has been turning in some outstanding feats, including a 10.5 clocking in the 100-yard dash and a leap of 20 feet, 7 inches in the broad jump.

Salem is reported much stronger in the distance events, but may run into trouble in the shorter races.

The May 11 track carnival has more balance to it than at any time in the past 10 years.

Poor Attendance Marks Tourney . .

BASKETBALL at its best, but poor crowds marked the Junior cage tourney held here last week.

We never have seen a more equal field and such outstanding talent as performed in the three-day event. And, at the same time, we never have witnessed such poor attendance.

Perhaps the Nonpareil Club scheduled the event too late this year; and also during Holy Week. The Pittsburgh Pirates also appeared on TV one night while the tourney was in progress, which may have kept some of the fans away.

The crowd never exceeded anymore than 250 on any given night.

The fact that East Liverpool didn't have a team in the tournament also distracted from it locally.

As we said last week, when the Tri-State tourney also failed so badly at the gate, the future of both events is questionable.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

SEVERAL colleges are interested in big Bob Dove of Canfield, voted the most valuable player in the Junior Tournament, especially Eddie Melvin of Toledo and Red Manning of Duquesne.

There is a possibility though that Dove may follow in the footsteps of his father and attend Notre Dame. His father was an All-American football player for the Irish and recently was named head football coach at Hiram College.

—:—

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Jim Potts, who quarterbacked the fortunes of Bowling Green University for three saesons, will be graduated in June and will be looking for a football coaching job.

—:—

LENNY MARTIN, prominent Pittsburgh song - writer, composer and arranger, has completed a new Waterford Park theme song, a very catchy tune, that will be used on many radio commercials and at the track during the races.

The Review Sports

Jack Deshler, high scorer on the 1961-62 Potter basketball squad, was presented the highest award that can be given a senior player when he received the Hi-Y Memorial Trophy at the annual cage banquet Monday night at the Trinity Presbyterian Church.

Ninety attended the dinner which honored the East Liverpool High School basketball team.

Deshler became the 17th winner of the award which was presented by Carl A. (Pop) Werner, general secretary of the YMCA. The trophy is donated annually by the senior Hi-Y Club.

The Potter guard succeeds All-Ohio Ken Cunningham, who was the 1961 recipient. Deshler was picked on a vote by his coaches and local sports enthusiasts who voted on five different points — scholarship, ability, leadership, character and sportsmanship.

ALONG with the Hi-Y award, Deshler received a trophy for making the highest percentage of foul shots on the varsity squad. His percentage was 77 which edged sophomore Frank McComas by two percentage points.

Tom Kraft was awarded a trophy for having the top foul percentage among the reserve players by hitting 76 per cent. The foul shooting awards were donated by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club and presented by H. A. (Hap) Tullis, president.

Dean Cline, a junior, was awarded the honorary captain trophy presented by Harry McConville, president of the Little Potters League. Cline was picked for the award on a vote by members of the basketball team.

C. G. (Buzz) Ridl of Westminster College at New Wilmington, Pa., "coach-of-the-year" in small college basketball this past season, was guest speaker.

RIDL'S Titans were also named the No. 1 team in the small college field for the 1961-62 campaign.

The Westminster coach asked: "How are champions made?" Then speaking to the varsity and reserve players said "they punish themselves in practice, they want to work hard to achieve a goal."

As an example Ridl mentioned Roger Bannister, the first man ever to run the mile under four minutes. "Bannister never ran until he got tired but ran until he passed out."

"Some athletes have excuses for everything that goes wrong, but champions never have any excuses," Ridl said.

The Westminster coach told of Ron Galbreath the little All-American who led Westminster to the No. 1 ranking in the country this season. "Galbreath had his goals set early, something we all must do, and he went out and achieved those goals."

—:—

RIDL told the banquet crowd that his starting five players this season all came from within a 25-mile radius of Westminster.

The outstanding Westminster coach was introduced by Norm Nicely, who served as master of ceremonies.

Head basketball coach Jim Harris presented varsity letters to nine players and two managers. They included: Deshler, Kraft, Cline, McComas, Dave Harriel, Gary Steffen, Ed Prentice, Ron Jarvis and Roger Linville.

Harris pointed out that five boys who received varsity letters this year, including four juniors and a sophomore, would be returning next season. They are Prentice, a two-year veteran, Linville, Cline, Kraft and McComas who is the lone sophomore. Managers receiving letters were John Reed and Dave Rodenhauser.

—:—

FRANK Chan, Potter reserve coach, presented jayvee emblems to Randy Stover, Dave Oliver, Dave Bowersock, Bob Mercer, Jim Smith, Bob Forzano, Bill Hall, Bruce Burbick, Steve Neville and Bob Montgomery and managers Terry Cooper and John Schmidbauer.

Varsity cheerleaders introduced included Colleen Bucher, captain, Barbara Dallis, Juanita Adkins, Bertha Prodonovich and Dorothy Wells. Reserve cheerleaders named were Patty Nolan, Patti Stepanovich, Sue Montgomery, Margo Owens, Barbara Sneddon, Judy Vaughn, Terry Stanley and Joan Leon.

The banquet was sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis Club and the East Liverpool High School Athletic Association. Merrill Hall was banquet chairman, with Eugene Hall, Paul Blair, Ralph Betts and Ira Burbick serving on the committee.

George Hargraves, high school principal, gave the invocation.

Commercial Development Would End Randall Racing

CLEVELAND (AP)—Plans for a multimillion - dollar residential and commercial development in Randall Park may end racing at the track after this summer.

Edward J. DeBartolo of Youngstown, owner of the track in suburban North Randall, announced Monday he expected to develop the 160-acre site late this year.

Race tracks are not as profitable as commonly believed, said DeBartolo, one of the nation's biggest builders of shopping centers.

"It is not profitable, especially in Ohio," added DeBartolo, who paid more than $4 million for Randall Park two years ago.

DeBartolo said the race track probably would be closed before the 1963 season, but it was an indefinite thing now. If Randall closes, indications are its racing schedule probably would be run off in Thistle Down Track under a new state law. The Youngstown developer also owns that track.

Houk Not Worried About Rog's .132

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If New York Yankee Manager Ralph Houk is worried about Roger Maris' anemic .132 batting average, he's putting up a brave front.

"Rog has been hitting the ball all right," said Houk today before the Yanks scheduled game with the Chicago White Sox. "The only trouble is that everything he hits goes directly at the fielders.

"I'm not worrying about him. He'll hurt someone before long. Maybe seeing the White Sox is just what he needs. He did a lot of hitting against them last year."

Maris has collected just five hits in 38 times at bat, with one home run and three runs batted in.

He hasn't pushed the panic button, but he's a little discouraged about the way the ball has been bouncing.

"They say the breaks all even up," said the man who clubbed 61 homers last year, "but so far they've been all bad for me."

Has he been tense at the plate?

"Definitely not," he answered. "I feel more comfortable at the plate than I did last year. I'm hitting the ball good, but they're just not dropping in. I can't understand it."

Maris is a notoriously slow starter. At the same stage last year (after nine games), he was hitting .148 with nary a home run.

Harness Group Purchases Race Track At Wheeling

WHEELING (AP) — Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway Inc., has purchased Wheeling Downs race track from the West Virginia Racing Association Inc., it was announced here Monday.

The announcement by Donald D. MacFarlane, president of the harness group, came about three weeks after James F. Edwards, owner of Waterford Park track, offered to buy the Wheeling oval for $1,350,000.

Edwards' offer spurred the harness group to exercise its option to buy the track. Its lease agreement stipulated that if an offer was made, the harness group could buy the property within 30 days by matching the offer.

MacFarlane did not reveal the amount of the sale but said the harness group's offer matched the best offer made by any other group.

He said the present harness meet would continue and that the thoroughbred meet from May 25 to June 30 also would be held.

Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway, Inc. had leased the track from Wheeling Racing Association, Inc., voting trustees for the Hazel Park Racing Association of Detroit, Michigan.

The Wheeling Racing group purchased the track in 1957 at a sale ordered by the U.S. District Court here. The sale was held to satisfy part of an income tax judgment against William G. (Big Bill) Lias of Wheeling, who had acquired the track after World War II.

Browns Sign Cumberland's Jack Thayer

New Cumberland's Jack Thayer will be among five quarterbacks reporting to the Cleveland Browns training camp when the club begins training at Hiram in July.

The Browns announced that Thayer and Tom Kennedy, a signal caller from Los Angeles State, both free agents, have been signed.

They will compete against veterans Jim Ninowski and Len Dawson and a highly-rated rookie, John Furman of Texas Western.

Thayer was an all - scholastic star at New Cumberland before enrolling at West Virginia. He dropped out of school after his freshman year and played three seasons of service football.

McNutt, Banfield Capture Feature At Country Club

McNutt scored 22 points to capture Sunday's par-birdie-eagle contest while Dr. Banfield carded a 32 in a selective nine-hole event Saturday.

In Sunday's play, Art Lynch was second with 19 points while Bob Patterson and C. F. Smith Jr. tied with 13 each. Okey Ludwig won the second division with 10 points.

Don Schreckengost and McNutt fired 33's in Saturday's event. Dick Heddleston and Russ Smith carded 33's to tie for honors in the second division.

Deshler Named 17th Winner Of Hi-Y Basketball Award

The Sports Bench

Homegrown Talent . . .

In this day and age of basketball scandals and high-pressure recruiting which has given college basketball a black eye, it would be an ideal situation to be a coach and know that your starting five could amost walk to the campus from their respective hometowns.

C. G. (Buzz) Ridl, the guest speaker at the East Liverpool High School basketball banquet Monday night, finds himself in this enviable position as head coach at Westminster College.

All five of his first team members, named the No. 1 small college team in the nation this past season, come from within a 25-mile radius of the New Wilmington (Pa.) school.

Ridl is a firm believer that talent is rich in this area and as long as you find it in your own backyard there is no reason to go several thousand miles looking for basketball players.

For example, Ron Galbreath, who was named to the first team on the Little All-American squad this season, comes from Wampum, Pa., which is only a stone's throw away from the Westminster campus. Ridl told us that Galbreath, who has been drafted by the Pittsburgh Rens, would be trying out for the Steel City team late this summer.

Ridl, an alumnus of Westminster, gives a slight smile when the Duquesne game is mentioned. The Titans came up with one of the biggest surprises of the season last winter when they upset Duquesne, a team which was rated seventh in the country at the time.

RIDL which is pronounced (Riddle), represented one of the better athletic banquet speakers who has appeared here in sometime. His talk was off the beaten track and proved very stimulating.

—:—

MR. AND Mrs. Ridl are good friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Slaven, 605 McKinnon Ave., with whom they visited following last night's banquet.

County Teams Balanced . . .

For the past decade, Salem and East Palestine have been dominating the Columbiana County track and field meet. However, this may be the year the Quakers and Bulldogs fail to make the winner's circle.

The county schools will head for East Palestine Friday May 11 for the 59th annual meet, oldest of its kind in Ohio.

From the way the teams have been performing to date it looks like anybodys race.

Salem has to be given a slight edge at this stage of the game, since the Quakers did defeat Wellsville, 76-42, but the Tigers turned around two weeks later to rout East Palestine, 81-37.

In all fairness to Wellsville, the meet with Salem was early in the season and since then Coach Ken Woods youngsters have beaten East Palestine and also finished third in the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference meet Saturday at Steubenville, where records were set by Mark Leyda, who soared 19 feet, 11 inches in the broad jump, and Andy Dash, who put the shot 46 feet.

In the Salem meet, Leyda lost the broad jump to Bill Beery, but the Quaker jumper only hit 18 feet 10½ inches.

The clockings by Wellsville athletes in Saturday's meet were the best so far this season in most cases.

East Liverpool will receive a big test Friday against the Tigers at Wellsville.

Another team which can't be counted out is Columbiana. Jim Ward has been turning in some outstanding feats, including a 10.5 clocking in the 100-yard dash and a leap of 20 feet, 7 inches in the broad jump.

Salem is reported much stronger in the distance events, but may run into trouble in the shorter races.

The May 11 track carnival has more balance to it than at any time in the past 10 years.

Poor Attendance Marks Tourney . .

BASKETBALL at its best, but poor crowds marked the Junior cage tourney held here last week.

We never have seen a more equal field and such outstanding talent as performed in the three-day event. And, at the same time, we never have witnessed such poor attendance.

Perhaps the Nonpareil Club scheduled the event too late this year; and also during Holy Week. The Pittsburgh Pirates also appeared on TV one night while the tourney was in progress, which may have kept some of the fans away.

The crowd never exceeded anymore than 250 on any given night.

The fact that East Liverpool didn't have a team in the tournament also distracted from it locally.

As we said last week, when the Tri-State tourney also failed so badly at the gate, the future of both events is questionable.

This 'N That In Sports . . .

SEVERAL colleges are interested in big Bob Dove of Canfield, voted the most valuable player in the Junior Tournament, especially Eddie Melvin of Toledo and Red Manning of Duquesne.

There is a possibility though that Dove may follow in the footsteps of his father and attend Notre Dame. His father was an All-American football player for the Irish and recently was named head football coach at Hiram College.

—:—

EAST LIVERPOOL'S Jim Potts, who quarterbacked the fortunes of Bowling Green University for three saesons, will be graduated in June and will be looking for a football coaching job.

—:—

LENNY MARTIN, prominent Pittsburgh song - writer, composer and arranger, has completed a new Waterford Park theme song, a very catchy tune, that will be used on many radio commercials and at the track during the races.

Jack Deshler, high scorer on the 1961-62 Potter basketball squad, was presented the highest award that can be given a senior player when he received the Hi-Y Memorial Trophy at the annual cage banquet Monday night at the Trinity Presbyterian Church.

Ninety attended the dinner which honored the East Liverpool High School basketball team.

Deshler became the 17th winner of the award which was presented by Carl A. (Pop) Werner, general secretary of the YMCA. The trophy is donated annually by the senior Hi-Y Club.

The Potter guard succeeds All-Ohio Ken Cunningham, who was the 1961 recipient. Deshler was picked on a vote by his coaches and local sports enthusiasts who voted on five different points — scholarship, ability, leadership, character and sportsmanship.

ALONG with the Hi-Y award, Deshler received a trophy for making the highest percentage of foul shots on the varsity squad. His percentage was 77 which edged sophomore Frank McComas by two percentage points.

Tom Kraft was awarded a trophy for having the top foul percentage among the reserve players by hitting 76 per cent. The foul shooting awards were donated by the Blue and White Nonpareil Club and presented by H. A. (Hap) Tullis, president.

Dean Cline, a junior, was awarded the honorary captain trophy presented by Harry McConville, president of the Little Potters League. Cline was picked for the award on a vote by members of the basketball team.

C. G. (Buzz) Ridl of Westminster College at New Wilmington, Pa., "coach-of-the-year" in small college basketball this past season, was guest speaker.

RIDL'S Titans were also named the No. 1 team in the small college field for the 1961-62 campaign.

The Westminster coach asked: "How are champions made?" Then speaking to the varsity and reserve players said "they punish themselves in practice, they want to work hard to achieve a goal."

As an example Ridl mentioned Roger Bannister, the first man ever to run the mile under four minutes. "Bannister never ran until he got tired but ran until he passed out."

"Some athletes have excuses for everything that goes wrong, but champions never have any excuses," Ridl said.

The Westminster coach told of Ron Galbreath the little All-American who led Westminster to the No. 1 ranking in the country this season. "Galbreath had his goals set early, something we all must do, and he went out and achieved those goals."

—:—

RIDL told the banquet crowd that his starting five players this season all came from within a 25-mile radius of Westminster.

The outstanding Westminster coach was introduced by Norm Nicely, who served as master of ceremonies.

Head basketball coach Jim Harris presented varsity letters to nine players and two managers. They included: Deshler, Kraft, Cline, McComas, Dave Harriel, Gary Steffen, Ed Prentice, Ron Jarvis and Roger Linville.

Harris pointed out that five boys who received varsity letters this year, including four juniors and a sophomore, would be returning next season. They are Prentice, a two-year veteran, Linville, Cline, Kraft and McComas who is the lone sophomore. Managers receiving letters were John Reed and Dave Rodenhauser.

—:—

FRANK Chan, Potter reserve coach, presented jayvee emblems to Randy Stover, Dave Oliver, Dave Bowersock, Bob Mercer, Jim Smith, Bob Forzano, Bill Hall, Bruce Burbick, Steve Neville and Bob Montgomery and managers Terry Cooper and John Schmidbauer.

Varsity cheerleaders introduced included Colleen Bucher, captain, Barbara Dallis, Juanita Adkins, Bertha Prodonovich and Dorothy Wells. Reserve cheerleaders named were Patty Nolan, Patti Stepanovich, Sue Montgomery, Margo Owens, Barbara Sneddon, Judy Vaughn, Terry Stanley and Joan Leon.

The banquet was sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis Club and the East Liverpool High School Athletic Association. Merrill Hall was banquet chairman, with Eugene Hall, Paul Blair, Ralph Betts and Ira Burbick serving on the committee.

George Hargraves, high school principal, gave the invocation.

Commercial Development Would End Randall Racing

CLEVELAND (AP)—Plans for a multimillion - dollar residential and commercial development in Randall Park may end racing at the track after this summer.

Edward J. DeBartolo of Youngstown, owner of the track in suburban North Randall, announced Monday he expected to develop the 160-acre site late this year.

Race tracks are not as profitable as commonly believed, said DeBartolo, one of the nation's biggest builders of shopping centers.

"It is not profitable, especially in Ohio," added DeBartolo, who paid more than $4 million for Randall Park two years ago.

DeBartolo said the race track probably would be closed before the 1963 season, but it was an indefinite thing now. If Randall closes, indications are its racing schedule probably would be run off in Thistle Down Track under a new state law. The Youngstown developer also owns that track.

Houk Not Worried About Rog's .132

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If New York Yankee Manager Ralph Houk is worried about Roger Maris' anemic .132 batting average, he's putting up a brave front.

"Rog has been hitting the ball all right," said Houk today before the Yanks scheduled game with the Chicago White Sox. "The only trouble is that everything he hits goes directly at the fielders.

"I'm not worrying about him. He'll hurt someone before long. Maybe seeing the White Sox is just what he needs. He did a lot of hitting against them last year."

Maris has collected just five hits in 38 times at bat, with one home run and three runs batted in.

He hasn't pushed the panic button, but he's a little discouraged about the way the ball has been bouncing.

"They say the breaks all even up," said the man who clubbed 61 homers last year, "but so far they've been all bad for me."

Has he been tense at the plate?

"Definitely not," he answered. "I feel more comfortable at the plate than I did last year. I'm hitting the ball good, but they're just not dropping in. I can't understand it."

Maris is a notoriously slow starter. At the same stage last year (after nine games), he was hitting .148 with nary a home run.

Harness Group Purchases Race Track At Wheeling

WHEELING (AP) — Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway Inc., has purchased Wheeling Downs race track from the West Virginia Racing Association Inc., it was announced here Monday.

The announcement by Donald D. MacFarlane, president of the harness group, came about three weeks after James F. Edwards, owner of Waterford Park track, offered to buy the Wheeling oval for $1,350,000.

Edwards' offer spurred the harness group to exercise its option to buy the track. Its lease agreement stipulated that if an offer was made, the harness group could buy the property within 30 days by matching the offer.

MacFarlane did not reveal the amount of the sale but said the harness group's offer matched the best offer made by any other group.

He said the present harness meet would continue and that the thoroughbred meet from May 25 to June 30 also would be held.

Wheeling Downs Harness Raceway, Inc. had leased the track from Wheeling Racing Association, Inc., voting trustees for the Hazel Park Racing Association of Detroit, Michigan.

The Wheeling Racing group purchased the track in 1957 at a sale ordered by the U.S. District Court here. The sale was held to satisfy part of an income tax judgment against William G. (Big Bill) Lias of Wheeling, who had acquired the track after World War II.

Browns Sign Cumberland's Jack Thayer

The Browns announced that Thayer and Tom Kennedy, a signal caller from Los Angeles State, both free agents, have been signed.

They will compete against veterans Jim Ninowski and Len Dawson and a highly-rated rookie, John Furman of Texas Western.

Thayer was an all - scholastic star at New Cumberland before enrolling at West Virginia. He dropped out of school after his freshman year and played three seasons of service football.

Pirates Reach End Of Line, Casey's Mets Win, 9-1

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Some day pretty soon we're gonna beat someone pretty bad."

Casey Stengel said it. A few hours later, the New York Mets did it.

The prophecy and its fulfillment occurred at Pittsburgh Monday night as Manager Stengel surveyed the results of the Mets first nine games in the National League—all losses—and offered his opinion before sending his cast of hand-me-downs out to meet the Pirates.

The result was a 9-1 victory for the Mets, their first in the National League and the honor of grabbing victory No. 1 for the Mets went to Jay Hook, a 25-year-old right-hander who equalled his entire victory output for Cincinnati last season by checking the Pirates on five hits while ending Pittsburgh's victory streak at 10.

★ ★ ★

The triumph kept the Mets from setting a major league mark for consecutive losses at the start of the season. It halted the Pirates efforts to establish an all-time high for consecutive wins at the start of a season.

In other games Monday night, San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 4-1 behind Billy Pierce's seven-hit pitching and the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Milwaukee 5-2. Philadelphia and Houston were rained out. Chicago and St. Louis were idle. The American League had a day off.

★ ★ ★

Felix Mantilla opened the big game for the Mets with a single and the New Yorkers never let up until Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente hit into a force out to end it.

A 14-hit attack, with Mantilla and Elio Chacon splitting six hits, got the job done and chased Pirates' starter Tom Sturdivant (1-1) in the second inning. Sacrifice flies by Gus Bell and Frank Thomas sent Mantilla and Chacon across with a pair of first-inning runs and gave Hook all he needed.

★ ★ ★

Hook struck out two and walked only one, allowing the Pirates their lone run in the sixth on singles by Dick Schofield and Dick Groat and Bob Skinner's ground out.

Pierce, 35-year-old left-hander acquired in a trade with Chicago's White Sox, went the distance for his second triumph for the Giants, striking out seven Reds and allowing no walks. Harvey Kuenn was 3-for-4, getting a key single in both the first and second innings as the Giants scored once in each. The runs came across on two miscues by catcher Hank Foiles, Kuenn scoring on a passed ball and Jim Davenport on a wild pickoff throw.

Joe Moeller, a 19-year-old right-hander, won it for the Dodgers, holding the Braves to nine hits while going the route for his first major league victory. He has lost once. Home runs by John Roseboro, a two-run shot, and Willie Davis, a bases-empty "second chance" blast, handed Lew Burdette his third loss without a win. Davis, who flied out to open the fifth, got another try when the umpires ruled Burdette's pitch a ball because his foot had left the rubber.

Hook Goes All The Way To Stop Bucs At 10; LA Whips Braves

'So Excited I'm Shaking,' Casey Says After 1st Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Casey Stengel, delighted with his New York Mets' first baseball victory, said Monday night, "I'm so excited I'm shaking."

"We sure was on a long nap," the former Yankee manager told newsmen after the Mets clipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 9-1 for their first league victory after nine straight losses.

"If we win 99 more we'll take this pennant. All I want to know is where have we been. Someone must have given us a pill."

Stengel's Mets banged out 14 hits while Jay Hook was holding the Pirates to five hits and ending the Pirates winning string at 10.

"That's the best pitching I've had from the team so far this year," Stengel said, adding with a grin: "I want to tell you I'm gonna let him pitch every day."

The Mets seem to think the victory is what they needed to unloosen and start winning some games.

"I sure hope this gets us started," said Hook. "I think everyone was pressing too much. We wanted to win so bad."

Nichols Takes $ Jump After Houston Victory

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Bobby Nichols took a flying leap from 18th to fourth place in the PGA money rankings by winning the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic.

He owes it all to a beautiful, 240-yard shot from the rough he made Monday with a four wood.

"It was my best shot of the tournament," said the 26-year-old former Southwest Conference champ from Texas A&M.

It set him up with an eight-foot putt for an eagle on the 19th hole of a scheduled 18-hole playoff to win the Classic's $9,000 first prize.

Nichols defeated Dan Sikes, a 30-year-old unknown from Jacksonville, Fla., and Jack Nicklaus, the 1961 National Amateur champion. Sikes and Nichols tied at 71 on the 18-hole playoff with Nicklaus five strokes behind.

Then came the 19th-hole — the par 5, 558-yard No. 1 on Memorial Park municipal course that Nichols hadn't even been able to birdie in five rounds.

Nichols got into trouble with his tee shot, but it was long trouble. He drove about 318 yards and to the right of the fairway.

He asked his caddy for the No. 4 wood and belted the ball smack onto the green to put the pressure on Sikes.

Sikes, a law grad from the University of Florida, calmly made a birdie.

Nicklaus and Sikes, officially given a second-place tie, won $3,800 each, making it the biggest pay day of the year for all three.

Nichols, a pro since 1959, increased his winnings for the year to $17,874.67 in official money. He had not won a tournament until he finished first at St. Petersburg earlier this year. He picked up enough unofficial money Monday from endorsements to make his eagle worth $14,750.

Blue Grass Prep Shows Field Of 7

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A field of seven, including a surprise entry, shaped up today for the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes, the final distance prep for the Kentucky Derby.

Trainer H. A. Luro said he plans to enter his charge, Decidedly, in Thursday's Blue Grass instead of waiting for the Stepping Stone Purse next Saturday at Churchill Downs.

"I think the race here will condition the horse better and will give him those extra two days of rest before the Derby," Luro said.

The Blue Grass is run at a mile and an eighth while the Stepping Stone is seven furlongs. Both are considered major Derby preps along with the Derby Trial at a mile a week from today.

Decidedly got off to a poor start and ran into trouble repeatedly in his efforts to catch up in his last outing, last week's Forerunner Purse. T. A. Grissom's Roman Line won it by five lengths with Decidedly second.

Roman Line also is in line for the Blue Grass. Other probables are Mrs. J. W. Brown's Green Hornet, Crimson King Farm's Crimson Satan, Darby Dan Farm's Black Beard, Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan, August Muckler's Aeropolis and Glen W. Stevens' Boone Co.

The two other possibles were Mrs. Helen W. Kellog's Prince Dale and Edward Potter's Nuada. Both have shown good form here, but remain doubtful.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching—Jay Hook, Mets, won new club's first game with five-hitter that beat Pittsburgh 9-1, snapping the Pirates 10-game winning string.

Batting — Elio Chacon, Mets, went 3-for-4, drove in two runs and scored twice, coming across with what proved to be the winning run in the second inning of 9-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

South Siders Drop First In League, 10-4

Seven errors, which accounted for six unearned runs, helped Rochester to a 10-4 victory over South Side Monday on the Georgetown diamond.

The defeat marked the first in three league starts for the South Siders who were riding on top of the Section standings.

After South Side posted a run in the first inning, Rochester took the lead for good with a three-run uprising in the second and then came right back with four more in the third.

The Rochester nine banged out 10 hits off Chuck Schmidt who went all the way for South Side.

Rochester was paced at the plate by Larry Coleman who had a three-for-three day at the plate while Art Coleman snacked a two-run homer.

South Side collected nine hits off the winner, Bob Berkihimer, as Schmidt had a perfect day with a home run and three single Gary Hewitt belted a pair of doubles and a single in four trips and Dale Ashcroft tripled.

Pirates Reach End Of Line, Casey's Mets Win, 9-1

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Some day pretty soon we're gonna beat someone pretty bad."

Casey Stengel said it. A few hours later, the New York Mets did it.

The prophecy and its fulfillment occurred at Pittsburgh Monday night as Manager Stengel surveyed the results of the Mets first nine games in the National League—all losses—and offered his opinion before sending his cast of hand-me-downs out to meet the Pirates.

The result was a 9-1 victory for the Mets, their first in the National League and the honor of grabbing victory No. 1 for the Mets went to Jay Hook, a 25-year-old right-hander who equalled his entire victory output for Cincinnati last season by checking the Pirates on five hits while ending Pittsburgh's victory streak at 10.

The triumph kept the Mets from setting a major league mark for consecutive losses at the start of the season. It halted the Pirates efforts to establish an all-time high for consecutive wins at the start of a season.

In other games Monday night, San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 4-1 behind Billy Pierce's seven-hit pitching and the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Milwaukee 5-2. Philadelphia and Houston were rained out. Chicago and St. Louis were idle. The American League had a day off.

Felix Mantilla opened the big game for the Mets with a single and the New Yorkers never let up until Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente hit into a force out to end it.

A 14-hit attack, with Mantilla and Elio Chacon splitting six hits, got the job done and chased Pirates' starter Tom Sturdivant (1-1) in the second inning. Sacrifice flies by Gus Bell and Frank Thomas sent Mantilla and Chacon across with a pair of first-inning runs and gave Hook all he needed.

Hook struck out two and walked only one, allowing the Pirates their lone run in the sixth on singles by Dick Schofield and Dick Groat and Bob Skinner's ground out.

Pierce, 35-year-old left-hander acquired in a trade with Chicago's White Sox, went the distance for his second triumph for the Giants, striking out seven Reds and allowing no walks. Harvey Kuenn was 3-for-4, getting a key single in both the first and second innings as the Giants scored once in each. The runs came across on two miscues by catcher Hank Foiles, Kuenn scoring on a passed ball and Jim Davenport on a wild pickoff throw.

Joe Moeller, a 19-year-old right-hander, won it for the Dodgers, holding the Braves to nine hits while going the route for his first major league victory. He has lost once. Home runs by John Roseboro, a two-run shot, and Willie Davis, a bases-empty "second chance" blast, handed Lew Burdette his third loss without a win. Davis, who flied out to open the fifth, got another try when the umpires ruled Burdette's pitch a ball because his foot had left the rubber.

Hook Goes All The Way To Stop Bucs At 10; LA Whips Braves

'So Excited I'm Shaking,' Casey Says After 1st Win

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Casey Stengel, delighted with his New York Mets' first baseball victory, said Monday night, "I'm so excited I'm shaking."

"We sure was on a long nap," the former Yankee manager told newsmen after the Mets clipped the Pittsburgh Pirates 9-1 for their first league victory after nine straight losses.

"If we win 99 more we'll take this pennant. All I want to know is where have we been. Someone must have given us a pill."

Stengel's Mets banged out 14 hits while Jay Hook was holding the Pirates to five hits and ending the Pirates winning string at 10.

"That's the best pitching I've had from the team so far this year," Stengel said, adding with a grin: "I want to tell you I'm gonna let him pitch every day."

The Mets seem to think the victory is what they needed to unloosen and start winning some games.

"I sure hope this gets us started," said Hook. "I think everyone was pressing too much. We wanted to win so bad."

Nichols Takes $ Jump After Houston Victory

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Bobby Nichols took a flying leap from 18th to fourth place in the PGA money rankings by winning the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic.

He owes it all to a beautiful, 240-yard shot from the rough he made Monday with a four wood.

"It was my best shot of the tournament," said the 26-year-old former Southwest Conference champ from Texas A&M.

It set him up with an eight-foot putt for an eagle on the 19th hole of a scheduled 18-hole playoff to win the Classic's $9,000 first prize.

Nichols defeated Dan Sikes, a 30-year-old unknown from Jacksonville, Fla., and Jack Nicklaus, the 1961 National Amateur champion. Sikes and Nichols tied at 71 on the 18-hole playoff with Nicklaus five strokes behind.

Then came the 19th-hole — the par 5, 558-yard No. 1 on Memorial Park municipal course that Nichols hadn't even been able to birdie in five rounds.

Nichols got into trouble with his tee shot, but it was long trouble. He drove about 318 yards and to the right of the fairway.

He asked his caddy for the No. 4 wood and belted the ball smack onto the green to put the pressure on Sikes.

Sikes, a law grad from the University of Florida, calmly made a birdie.

Nicklaus and Sikes, officially given a second-place tie, won $3,800 each, making it the biggest pay day of the year for all three.

Nichols, a pro since 1959, increased his winnings for the year to $17,874.67 in official money. He had not won a tournament until he finished first at St. Petersburg earlier this year. He picked up enough unofficial money Monday from endorsements to make his eagle worth $14,750.

Blue Grass Prep Shows Field Of 7

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A field of seven, including a surprise entry, shaped up today for the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes, the final distance prep for the Kentucky Derby.

Trainer H. A. Luro said he plans to enter his charge, Decidedly, in Thursday's Blue Grass instead of waiting for the Stepping Stone Purse next Saturday at Churchill Downs.

"I think the race here will condition the horse better and will give him those extra two days of rest before the Derby," Luro said.

The Blue Grass is run at a mile and an eighth while the Stepping Stone is seven furlongs. Both are considered major Derby preps along with the Derby Trial at a mile a week from today.

Decidedly got off to a poor start and ran into trouble repeatedly in his efforts to catch up in his last outing, last week's Forerunner Purse. T. A. Grissom's Roman Line won it by five lengths with Decidedly second.

Roman Line also is in line for the Blue Grass. Other probables are Mrs. J. W. Brown's Green Hornet, Crimson King Farm's Crimson Satan, Darby Dan Farm's Black Beard, Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan, August Muckler's Aeropolis and Glen W. Stevens' Boone Co.

The two other possibles were Mrs. Helen W. Kellog's Prince Dale and Edward Potter's Nuada. Both have shown good form here, but remain doubtful.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching—Jay Hook, Mets, won new club's first game with five-hitter that beat Pittsburgh 9-1, snapping the Pirates 10-game winning string.

Batting — Elio Chacon, Mets, went 3-for-4, drove in two runs and scored twice, coming across with what proved to be the winning run in the second inning of 9-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

New Refuse Plan Awaited

Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville today announced a new program for collection of refuse in a section at the lower end of town will go into effect Saturday, the regular collection day for the area.

Sixty - five subscribers have been notified of the change. They have been asked to carry trash containers to the front of their homes.

The change was made as an economy measure, the mayor pointed out.

The alleys at the rear of the residences involved are too narrow to allow the packer truck through.

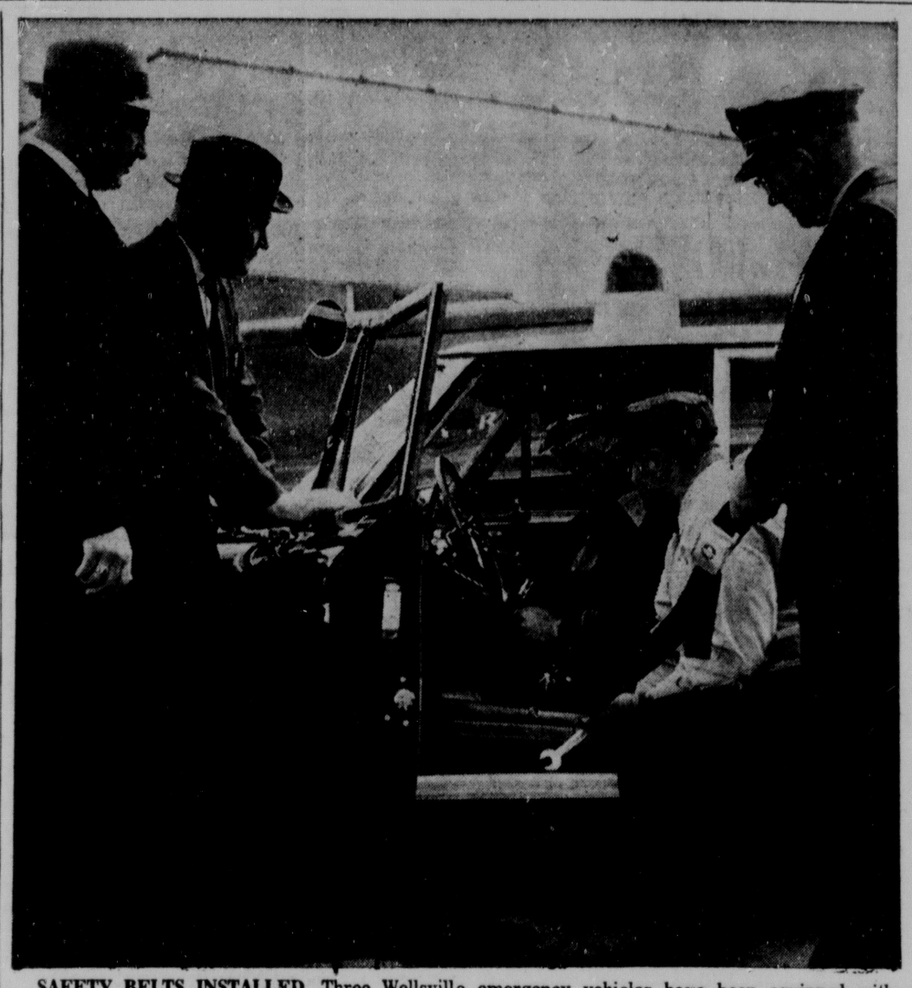

In the past, the city has hired a small truck each Saturday to make the collection. It costs the city $24 a day.

The mayor pointed out the refuse department was over $7,000 in the "red" last year and this move will mean a savings of over $1,200.

Each of the subscribers involved was presented a letter explaining the move when the collection was made last week. If no one was home at the time, the letter was left in the mailbox.

In event the change creates a physical hardship on anybody, the men will pick up the container at the rear of the home and carry it to the front, Daugherty said.

Earlier this year the mayor and Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare instituted a program to make sure the collections were being made only at homes where the monthly rate was being paid.

SAFETY BELTS INSTALLED. Three Wellsville emergency vehicles have been equipped with seat belts, provided by the C. & S. Ashland Service station at 17th St. and Lincoln Ave. The belts were installed in the front seat of the two police cruisers and the emergency truck of the volunteer fire department. The station owners donated the belts and had them installed. Police Chief John Hephner is shown in the cruiser trying one of the belts. Looking on, left to right, are Safety-Service Director Fred Balasare, Mayor William Daugherty, Frank Satow of Wellsville, one of the station operators, and Fire Chief Robert Lewis. Co-owners of the station with Satow are Ray Satow of East Liverpool and George Coleman of Wellsville.

Firemen Praised For Wellsville's Street Washing

Wellsville officials today complimented members of the volunteer fire department who Monday night completed the washing of the main thorofare through town from "super-road to super-road."

Thirteen men participated in the program and worked approximately 250 man hours without pay.

Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare praised the men for the "fine work they have done," pointing out the entire project was on their own time.

As the heavy accumulation of winter dirt was removed from the gutters, the volunteers used hoses to wash down the streets, all after midnight.

Participating were Chester Beatty, Dick Burns, Dan Hitt, Dudley Havelock, Tom Lanam, Dave Lanam, John Miller, Earl Mundy, Glenn Mathess, John Roberts, James Elliott, Fire Chief Robert Lewis and Fireman Frank Fusco.

Baldasare said the sweeping program on side streets will continue this afternoon. To be cleaned today are Highland Ave., James St., 12th St.. 13th St., 14th St. and 15th St.

Covered Monday afternoon were 1st St., 2nd St., 3rd St. and Broadway between 2nd and 3rd.

Man Pulls Slick, Quick Oily Trick On Chester's Hill

A slick trick was pulled on the Route 30 Chester hill Monday evening when a truck driver, from whose stake body rig an oil drum rolled and broke open on the highway, pushed the drum over the hill and drove off before police arrived.

Witnesses said the three-quarter ton truck was headed east uphill shortly after 7 p. m. when the drum rolled off the truck just above the Lawrenceville Rd. intersection.

The driver got out, pushed the damaged drum over the Rock Springs Park embankment and then drove away, leaving the thick oil coating the highway. His truck had Pennsylvania plates, witnesses said.

Police Chief Harold Davis drove out along Route 30 in search of the truck after he arrived at the scene, but did not locate the driver.

Law On Soldier Ballot Explained By Clerk

The spouse of a man or woman serving in the armed forces has the right to vote a so-called "soldier ballot" in the May 8 primaries if he or she is residing outside Ohio "for the purpose of being with or near his or her spouse," Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, explained today.

O'Hanlon pointed out the change in the "soldier voting" law went into effect last November, affecting the spouses of service personnel. If the husband or wife of a person in the service is residing in Ohio, he or she may vote a conventional absentee ballot, he added.

Sixteen of the so-called "soldier ballots" have been issued to date, including one to a woman who is the wife of a serviceman, O'Hanlon said.

New Refuse Plan Awaited

Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville today announced a new program for collection of refuse in a section at the lower end of town will go into effect Saturday, the regular collection day for the area.

Sixty - five subscribers have been notified of the change. They have been asked to carry trash containers to the front of their homes.

The change was made as an economy measure, the mayor pointed out.

The alleys at the rear of the residences involved are too narrow to allow the packer truck through.

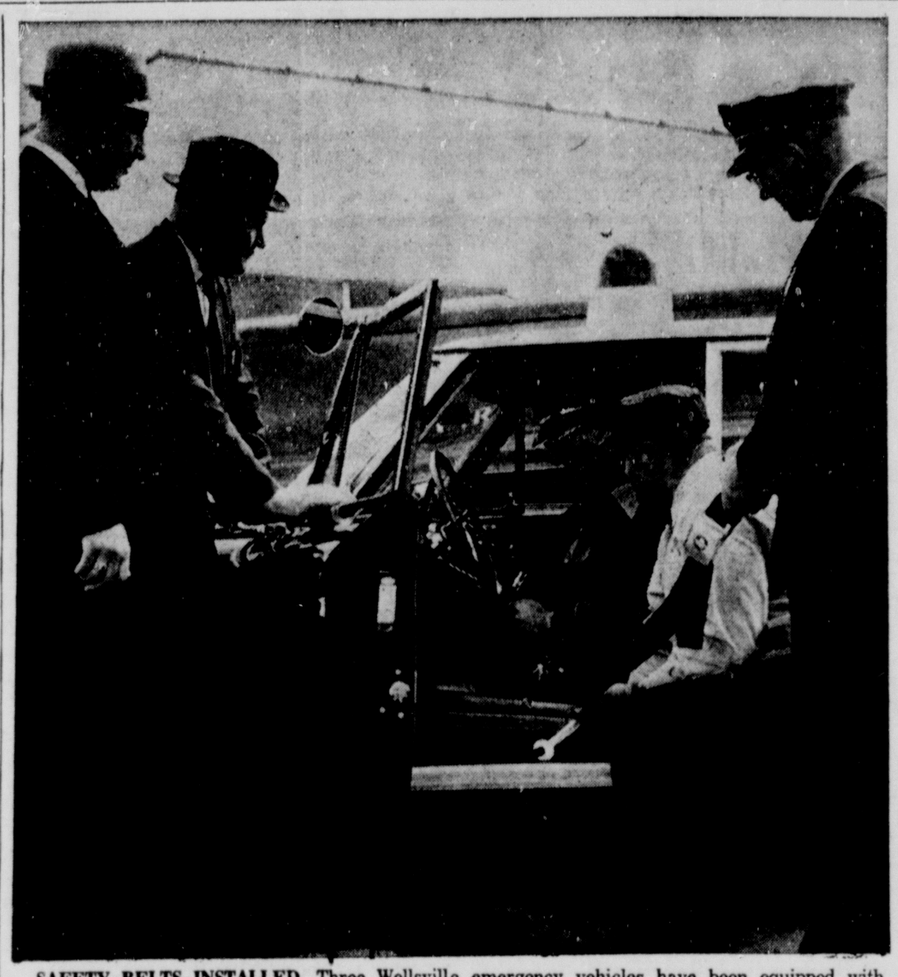

In the past, the city has hired a small truck each Saturday to make the collection. It costs the city $24 a day.

The mayor pointed out the refuse department was over $7,000 in the "red" last year and this move will mean a savings of over $1,200.

Each of the subscribers involved was presented a letter explaining the move when the collection was made last week. If no one was home at the time, the letter was left in the mailbox.

In event the change creates a physical hardship on anybody, the men will pick up the container at the rear of the home and carry it to the front, Daugherty said.

Earlier this year the mayor and Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare instituted a program to make sure the collections were being made only at homes where the monthly rate was being paid.

SAFETY BELTS INSTALLED. Three Wellsville emergency vehicles have been equipped with seat belts, provided by the C. & S. Ashland Service station at 17th St. and Lincoln Ave. The belts were installed in the front seat of the two police cruisers and the emergency truck of the volunteer fire department. The station owners donated the belts and had them installed. Police Chief John Hephner is shown in the cruiser trying one of the belts. Looking on, left to right, are Safety-Service Director Fred Balasare, Mayor William Daugherty, Frank Satow of Wellsville, one of the station operators, and Fire Chief Robert Lewis. Co-owners of the station with Satow are Ray Satow of East Liverpool and George Coleman of Wellsville.

Firemen Praised For Wellsville's Street Washing

Wellsville officials today complimented members of the volunteer fire department who Monday night completed the washing of the main thorofare through town from "super-road to super-road."

Thirteen men participated in the program and worked approximately 250 man hours without pay.

Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare praised the men for the "fine work they have done," pointing out the entire project was on their own time.

As the heavy accumulation of winter dirt was removed from the gutters, the volunteers used hoses to wash down the streets, all after midnight.

Participating were Chester Beatty, Dick Burns, Dan Hitt, Dudley Havelock, Tom Lanam, Dave Lanam, John Miller, Earl Mundy, Glenn Mathess, John Roberts, James Elliott, Fire Chief Robert Lewis and Fireman Frank Fusco.

Baldasare said the sweeping program on side streets will continue this afternoon. To be cleaned today are Highland Ave., James St., 12th St.. 13th St., 14th St. and 15th St.

Covered Monday afternoon were 1st St., 2nd St., 3rd St. and Broadway between 2nd and 3rd.

An auditing committee headed by Dave Sakol was named to check the post's books before the new officers take over. Other committee members are Robert Osborn, Henry Schneidmiler and Harry Aivalotis.

Ed Daily, commander, presided. Lunch will follow the next meeting.

Teams were named to solicit for the department's new fire truck fund campaign when Calcutta volunteer firemen met Monday night in the station.

Midland volunteer fire company No. 1 was called to two small fires Monday, one at Reed's Dairy, 518 Midland Ave., and the other, a brush fire on Virginia Ave.

Firemen were called to the dairy store at 12:35 p. m. when accumulated grease caught fire in the louver of an exhaust fan over a grill. There was only slight damage.

Woman, 22, Killed In 14-Story Plunge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It was a matter of life or death that could have gone either way.

Wendy Rose Kaufmann, 22, hung by her fingers for five minutes Monday from a ledge 14 floors above bustling Market Street.

"I tried to hold her until help arrived but she got out of my grasp," said Helen Buchan, who had hired the girl as a secretary last Friday.

Miss Kaufmann's death plunge occurred during her first day at work for the Continental Pacific Coast Medical Bureau Agency.

Police said the girl may have changed her mind about jumping after climbing onto the ledge. It was undetermined, pending a coroner's inquest, whether she fell or leaped.

Man Pulls Slick, Quick Oily Trick On Chester's Hill

A slick trick was pulled on the Route 30 Chester hill Monday evening when a truck driver, from whose stake body rig an oil drum rolled and broke open on the highway, pushed the drum over the hill and drove off before police arrived.

Witnesses said the three-quarter ton truck was headed east uphill shortly after 7 p. m. when the drum rolled off the truck just above the Lawrenceville Rd. intersection.

The driver got out, pushed the damaged drum over the Rock Springs Park embankment and then drove away, leaving the thick oil coating the highway. His truck had Pennsylvania plates, witnesses said.

Police Chief Harold Davis drove out along Route 30 in search of the truck after he arrived at the scene, but did not locate the driver.

Because of the hazardous condition of the slick hill road, Chief Davis, Mayor Ray Collins, Street Commissioner Hubert Myers and Don Chaney of Carolina Ave., service station proprietor, directed traffic and warned drivers approaching the site until West Virginia Road Commission crews brought cinders to spread.

Bill Yee, Midland Rotarian and campaign chairman, is collecting coin canisters from businesses and clubs.

Law On Soldier Ballot Explained By Clerk

The spouse of a man or woman serving in the armed forces has the right to vote a so-called "soldier ballot" in the May 8 primaries if he or she is residing outside Ohio "for the purpose of being with or near his or her spouse," Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, explained today.

O'Hanlon pointed out the change in the "soldier voting" law went into effect last November, affecting the spouses of service personnel. If the husband or wife of a person in the service is residing in Ohio, he or she may vote a conventional absentee ballot, he added.

Sixteen of the so-called "soldier ballots" have been issued to date, including one to a woman who is the wife of a serviceman, O'Hanlon said.

Police Chief Ed J. Stefl and Sgt. Vincent D'Itri of the Midland department attended the school four-hour sessions which began April 9.

District Atty. Richard P. Stewart said he was pleased with the attendance. The conference was sponsored by the district attorney's office, the FBI and the Pennsylvania Police Chiefs Association.

Out Of The Air

HAL HUMPHREY

I Say! Who's Invading Whom?

LONDON — Many Britons are convinced that their culture is being taken over by America — lock, stock and by jove. An angered British TV viewer wrote to the London Telegraph complaining about the word "hijacked" being substituted for "stolen" in the crime shows he had been watching.

Hal Humphrey

"If it continues," his letter said, "we ultimately may hear the following: 'Hoodlums staged a stickup at a gasoline joint on the Great West Freeway, coshing the attendant and his buddy and beating it with the loot in a sedan.'"

-:-

THE TELEGRAPH'S TV editor, an L. Marsland Gander, tried to calm this panicky viewer by explaining, "We should make allowance for the infiltration of vivid foreign words or phrases . . . and the word 'loot' you mention is Hindustani, not American."

If the learned Mr. Gander knew the origin of 'coshed," he did not say so, but I think if he digs deeply enough he may discover its roots in Lower Brighton.

Just last week London's bookstalls were flooded with copies of "The American Invasion," a new book by British journalist Francis Williams, who puts up quite a case to prove that England's economy is becoming American-controlled. His arguments to prove the same about England's culture, however, don't hold water so well.

-:-

THE LONDON Sunday Times devoted a special section to Williams' accusations. On the cover was a picture of London's famous Big Ben which was almost, but not quite, obliterated by the rear end of a big-finned Cadillac.

But on an inside page was a big picture of an American-made slot machine, which the Times caption writer described as a "juke box in Soho." Things like this would indicate that the American takeover isn't quite complete yet.

I had the same reaction while watching and listening to the BBC's TV coverage of the recent Cambridge-Oxford boat race in which Oxford was badly beaten. (A tape of it can be seen this Sunday on ABC's "Wide World of Sports.")

-:-

TOWARD THE FINISH, a NBC announcer commented, "Poor chaps — all they want now is for the wretched thing to be over. . . . They look frightfully dispirited," he added, as Oxford tried futile to overtake their opponents.

But can you imagine our Mel Allen referring to the Yankees, or anyone else, as "frightfully dispirited?" None of us will live that long.

So I say to the Britons, don't despair. A few juke boxes, or whatever you want to call them, and a Cadillac swooping around Hyde Park are not going to corrupt you culturally.

Some members of Parliament ranted that commercial TV would put Britain on a low par with America, when the idea was first suggested in the early '50s. Five years of the ITV commercial network have caused some changes, but nothing catastrophic.

THE COMMERCIALS themselves are generally repulsive, but they've nothing as low as some of ours. The BBC and the commercial ITV network each import about 11 per cent of their programs from the U.S., but I wouldn't say our shows had caused any groundswell of public acclaim among British viewers.

Paul Boyle, TV editor of London's Sunday Pictorial, says, "We're not exactly clean, you know. Remember that we inflicted 'Mark Saber' and some other choice bits on you chaps. I think it's amazing we remain friends, after trading off so much junk to each other."

As for violence, the British viewers and press are as upset over their own brand as we are over ours.

THE BBC not long ago did a live TV version of "Oliver Twist" which kicked up a big row. Viewers didn't like the brutal way in which Bill Sikes was shown to have knocked off Nancy (or should I have said coshed Nancy?).

Frankly, I'm of the opinion that the fellow who comes out at the beginning of each J. Arthur Rank movie and smacks that big gong has had as much influence on American TV viewers as anything we've done to the Britons.

Met Lures Cleveland's Record-Paying Crowd

CLEVELAND AP) — The big-best-paying crowd the Metropolitan Opera has attracted to Cleveland in its 37-year history rang up $39,645 at the Public Hall box office Monday night for the opening performance of Puccini's "La Tosca." The Met will be here all week.

The previous all-time high was set a year ago, $37,135. The crowd, however, was less than tops because only 6,882 of the 8,400 seats were filled. Prices have gone up, though.

Ex-Society Editor Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kate Scott Brooks, 99, former society editor of the Washington Post, died Monday. Mrs. Brooks, who covered news of Washington society from the 1890s until she retired in the 1930s, was born in Shelbyville, Ind.

Safety Check Set At Lisbon

LISBON — Willis Coleman, a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, was given permission by Village Council Monday night for the Jaycees to hold their annual auto safety check on May 21-23 and 25 on E. Lincoln Way, a block east of the Lepper Library.

In other business, Council discussed the street repair program and what type of material to be used, and particularly the poor condition of E. Chestnut St. and how it can be improved.

Council suggested that police resume their Speed Meter check as they believe there is more speeding on village streets, especially in through traffic over the weekends.

Clerk-Treasurer Ray Hempstead reported the village has $1,960 in the general fund after paying bills last night totaling $6,812.26. He advised a $718 insurance bill still is owed and expressed hopes the balance of the real estate tax settlement will be paid by the county by first or second week in May, or before next month's bills are due.

Repairs at the Sadie VanFossan Memorial swimming pool and renovation of Willow Grove Park also were discussed. The pool is expected to be opened around June 9 and will be put in shape with as little expense as possible. The caretaker at Willow Grove Park will be asked to work half-time this summer to cut down on expenses.

Next meeting is May 14 at 7:30 p. m.

Armco Steel Sued For $50 Million In Plant Closing

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Armco Steel Corp. faces a suit for nearly $50 million as a result of the shutdown of the firm's plant in nearby Etna.

The suit was filed in U.S. District Court Monday in behalf of 1,219 former employes as Etna. Armco moved the Etna operations to new facilities at its Ambridge plant.

Attorneys Samuel L. Goldstein and Leo Kostman, in filing the suit, said the transfer to Ambridge "was a move to end the labor agreements in force at the Etna plant. These agreements included incentive pay and recognition of a white collar local, neither of which are a part of the agreements in force at the Ambridge plant."

Contending further that Armco deliberately misled the United Steelworkers Union into believing the new mill would employ only 325, the suit said:

"Nearly 1,000 men have been employed at the new mill, some of them former Etna employes coming on as new men with no seniority."

The suit seeks a minimum of $40,000 in compensatory and punitive damages for each of the former Etna workers.

In a statement replying to the suit, Armco said:

"Before closing of the Etna plant, an agreement was reached with a commission of the International (united) Steelworkers Union under which additional jobs resultant from the new facilities were allocated among Ambridge and Etna employes."

U.S. Steel To Bare Profits For Quarter

NEW YORK AP) — United States Steel Corp., loser in a head-on clash with President Kennedy over an attempted price boost, tells today how its profits fared in the January-March quarter.

Roger M. Blough, chairman, already has described the showing as "far from satisfactory," without offering dollars and cents figures.

The No. 1 steelmaking concern planned to report first-quarter results immediately after the close of the New York Stock Exchange where steel shares have been taking a beating for some days.

Blough was forced by administration pressure to back down a week ago Friday after increasing steel prices an average of $6 a ton three days earlier.

Butter, a pinch of sugar and lots of minced parsley add interest to cooked carrots.

Federal Literacy Test Bill Labeled Unconstitutional

WASHINGTON AP)—Southern Democrats attacked the Kennedy administration's literacy test bill as unconstitutional today as the Senate braced itself for a platoon-style filibuster.

Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., directing three teams ready for rotation in a talk marathon, said in a statement the bill attempts to give the federal government authority denied it by the Supreme Court as recently as 1959.

Hill cited a decision in which the court upheld North Carolina's literacy test for voters with the statement that this involved "the exercise by the state of a lawful power vested in it."

Twenty-one states have tests of this nature which supporters of the administration measure contend have been used to prevent Negroes from voting.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana has given notice he will move to attach the bill to a minor measure now pending before the Senate. The bill would substitute for state literacy tests a provision under which completion of a sixth-grade education would qualify voters to cast ballots in federal elections.

FOREST FIRES AND YOU!

Did you ever wonder about forest fires and why Smokey Bear tries to keep them down? SMOKEY says that every forest fire costs too much. Just putting out last year's fires cost more than $100,000,000, and it came right out of your pocket.

What else did you lose?

You lost timber, millions of feet of it—timber that won't be there when you want to build your new home or put up a summer cabin.

You lost birds, animals, and fish, that add so much to your outings.

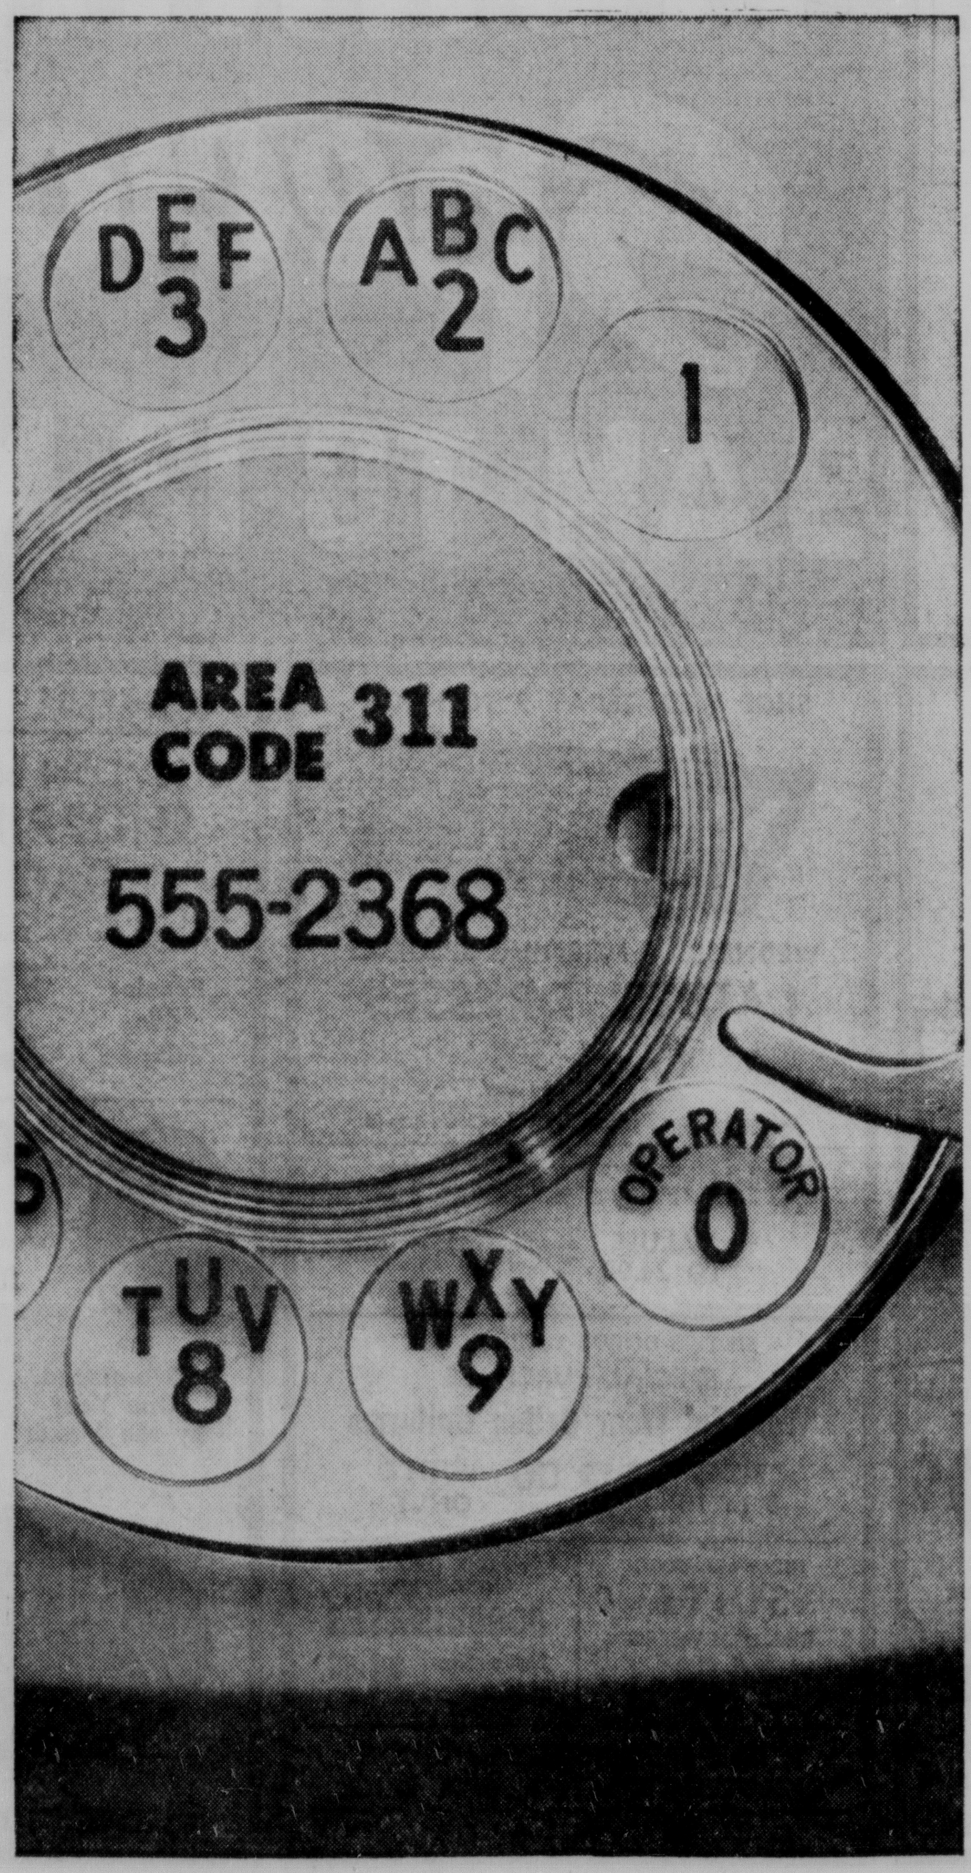

You lost priceless scenery, and recreation areas that are needed now more than ever.

Worst of all, you lost soil and water—the lifeblood of our land. Burn off the cover of a watershed, and the sure result is soil erosion, and destructive runoff of water, flooding our towns, silting our reservoirs. Water—most precious of all resources—wasted through carelessness!

There's much at stake. So, please, be extra careful with fire in 1962!

Remember- only YOU can PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

Out Of The Air

HAL HUMPHREY

I Say! Who's Invading Whom?

LONDON — Many Britons are convinced that their culture is being taken over by America — lock, stock and by jove. An angered British TV viewer wrote to the London Telegraph complaining about the word "hijacked" being substituted for "stolen" in the crime shows he had been watching.

Hal Humphrey

"If it continues," his letter said, "we ultimately may hear the following: 'Hoodlums staged a stickup at a gasoline joint on the Great West Freeway, coshing the attendant and his buddy and beating it with the loot in a sedan.'"

-:-

THE TELEGRAPH'S TV editor, an L. Marsland Gander, tried to calm this panicky viewer by explaining, "We should make allowance for the infiltration of vivid foreign words or phrases . . . and the word 'loot' you mention is Hindustani, not American."

If the learned Mr. Gander knew the origin of 'coshed," he did not say so, but I think if he digs deeply enough he may discover its roots in Lower Brighton.

Just last week London's bookstalls were flooded with copies of "The American Invasion," a new book by British journalist Francis Williams, who puts up quite a case to prove that England's economy is becoming American-controlled. His arguments to prove the same about England's culture, however, don't hold water so well.

-:-

THE LONDON Sunday Times devoted a special section to Williams' accusations. On the cover was a picture of London's famous Big Ben which was almost, but not quite, obliterated by the rear end of a big-finned Cadillac.

But on an inside page was a big picture of an American-made slot machine, which the Times caption writer described as a "juke box in Soho." Things like this would indicate that the American takeover isn't quite complete yet.

I had the same reaction while watching and listening to the BBC's TV coverage of the recent Cambridge-Oxford boat race in which Oxford was badly beaten. (A tape of it can be seen this Sunday on ABC's "Wide World of Sports.")

-:-

TOWARD THE FINISH, a NBC announcer commented, "Poor chaps — all they want now is for the wretched thing to be over. . . . They look frightfully dispirited," he added, as Oxford tried futile to overtake their opponents.

But can you imagine our Mel Allen referring to the Yankees, or anyone else, as "frightfully dispirited?" None of us will live that long.

So I say to the Britons, don't despair. A few juke boxes, or whatever you want to call them, and a Cadillac swooping around Hyde Park are not going to corrupt you culturally.

Some members of Parliament ranted that commercial TV would put Britain on a low par with America, when the idea was first suggested in the early '50s. Five years of the ITV commercial network have caused some changes, but nothing catastrophic.

THE COMMERCIALS themselves are generally repulsive, but they've nothing as low as some of ours. The BBC and the commercial ITV network each import about 11 per cent of their programs from the U.S., but I wouldn't say our shows had caused any groundswell of public acclaim among British viewers.

Paul Boyle, TV editor of London's Sunday Pictorial, says, "We're not exactly clean, you know. Remember that we inflicted 'Mark Saber' and some other choice bits on you chaps. I think it's amazing we remain friends, after trading off so much junk to each other."

As for violence, the British viewers and press are as upset over their own brand as we are over ours.

THE BBC not long ago did a live TV version of "Oliver Twist" which kicked up a big row. Viewers didn't like the brutal way in which Bill Sikes was shown to have knocked off Nancy (or should I have said coshed Nancy?).

Frankly, I'm of the opinion that the fellow who comes out at the beginning of each J. Arthur Rank movie and smacks that big gong has had as much influence on American TV viewers as anything we've done to the Britons.

Met Lures Cleveland's Record-Paying Crowd

CLEVELAND AP) — The big-best-paying crowd the Metropolitan Opera has attracted to Cleveland in its 37-year history rang up $39,645 at the Public Hall box office Monday night for the opening performance of Puccini's "La Tosca." The Met will be here all week.

The previous all-time high was set a year ago, $37,135. The crowd, however, was less than tops because only 6,882 of the 8,400 seats were filled. Prices have gone up, though.

Ex-Society Editor Dies

Federal Literacy Test Bill Labeled Unconstitutional

WASHINGTON AP)—Southern Democrats attacked the Kennedy administration's literacy test bill as unconstitutional today as the Senate braced itself for a platoon-style filibuster.

Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., directing three teams ready for rotation in a talk marathon, said in a statement the bill attempts to give the federal government authority denied it by the Supreme Court as recently as 1959.

Hill cited a decision in which the court upheld North Carolina's literacy test for voters with the statement that this involved "the exercise by the state of a lawful power vested in it."

Twenty-one states have tests of this nature which supporters of the administration measure contend have been used to prevent Negroes from voting.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana has given notice he will move to attach the bill to a minor measure now pending before the Senate. The bill would substitute for state literacy tests a provision under which completion of a sixth-grade education would qualify voters to cast ballots in federal elections.

FOREST FIRES AND YOU!

Did you ever wonder about forest fires and why Smokey Bear tries to keep them down? SMOKEY says that every forest fire costs too much. Just putting out last year's fires cost more than $100,000,000, and it came right out of your pocket.

What else did you lose?

You lost timber, millions of feet of it—timber that won't be there when you want to build your new home or put up a summer cabin.

You lost birds, animals, and fish, that add so much to your outings.

You lost priceless scenery, and recreation areas that are needed now more than ever.

Worst of all, you lost soil and water—the lifeblood of our land. Burn off the cover of a watershed, and the sure result is soil erosion, and destructive runoff of water, flooding our towns, silting our reservoirs. Water—most precious of all resources—wasted through carelessness!

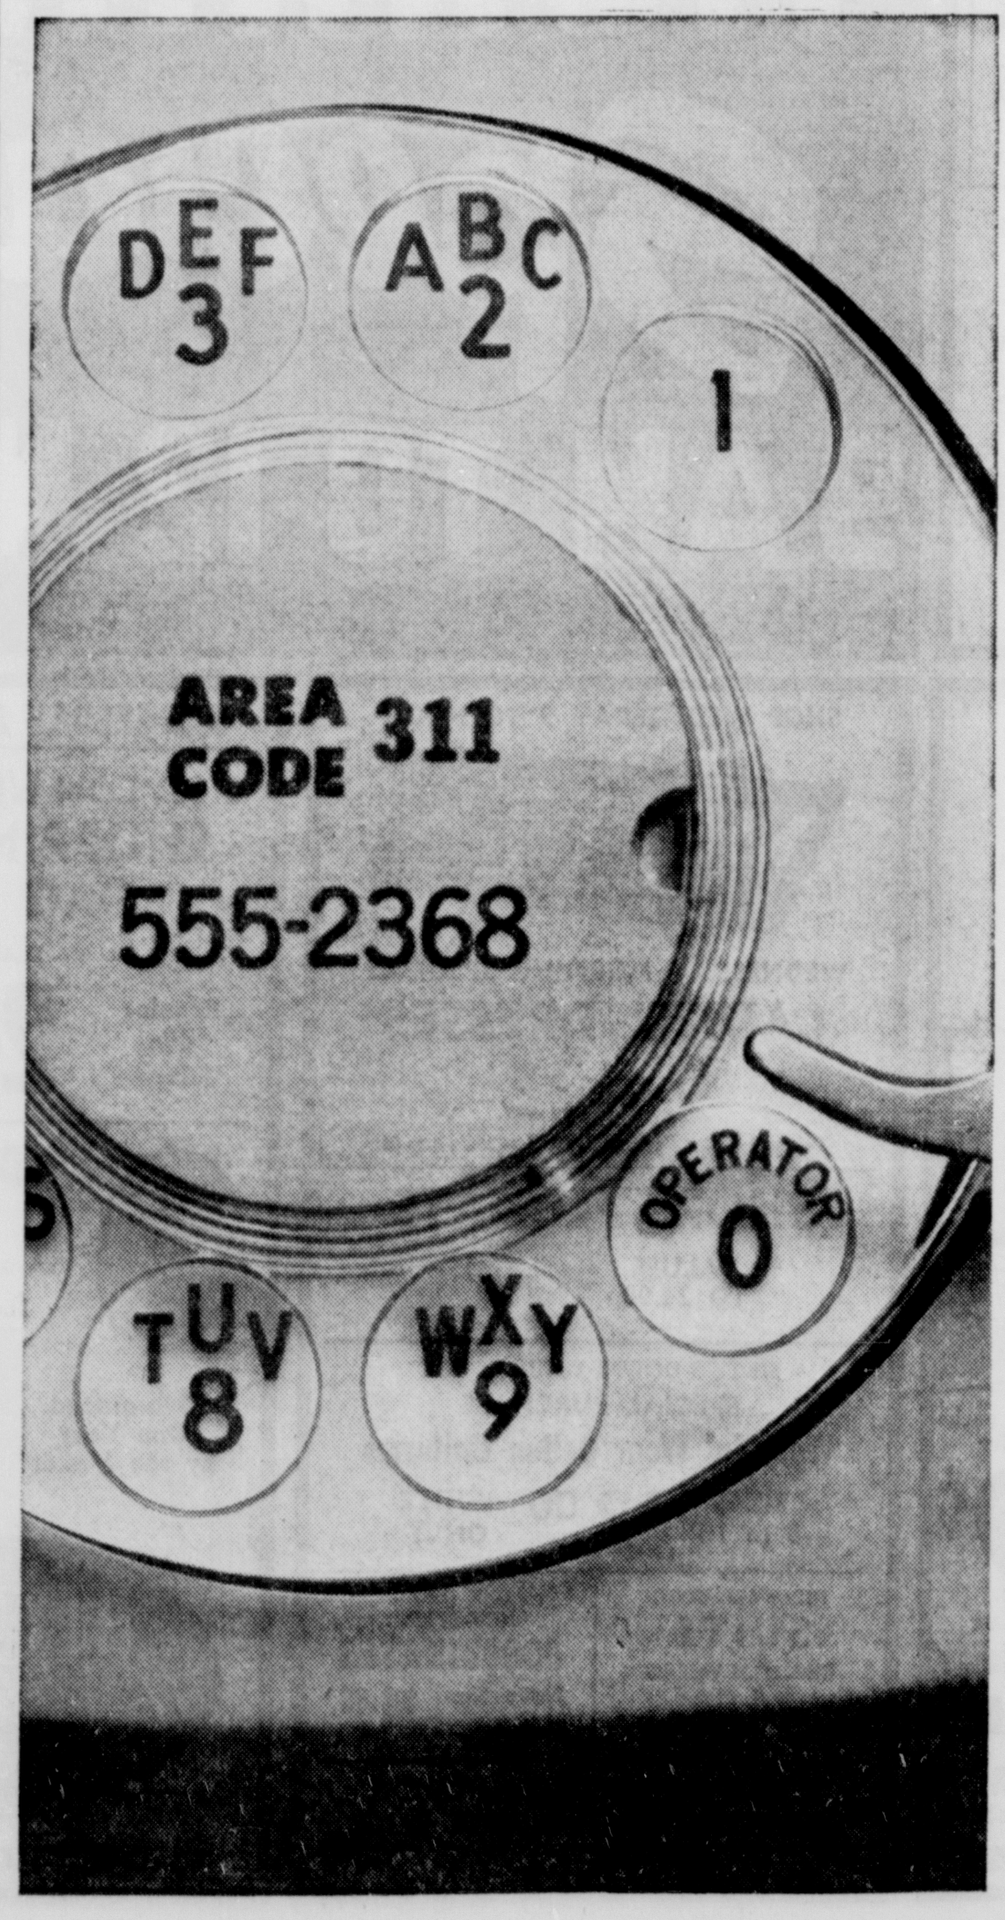

There's much at stake. So, please, be extra careful with fire in 1962!

Remember-only YOU can PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

Numbers of the future here today

Over a quarter million Ohio Bell phones now have numbers like this—555-2368. In a few years, every phone in the nation will have an "all-number" number. This change is necessary to fulfill the service demands of a growing, progressive population. We realize that All-Number Calling may be causing some inconvenience. But its benefits are many. For instance, All-Number Calling provides nearly 50% more phone numbers than presently possible! And it sets the stage for economical, fast, international communications. The Area Code pictured here is used as part of the long distance telephone number when dialing or calling communities having an Area Code different than your own. It's part of your number of the future . . . here today...geared for an even better tomorrow.

Violence Sifted In Deaths Of Mother And 3 Children

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Authorities worked today to try to piece together a story of violence which left a 37-year-old mother and her three children dead.

The four bodies were found Monday when the husband and father, Wallace D. Cox, returned from a railroad run.

Instead of hearing the yells of happy children, Cox, a railroad engineer, found his wife, Janice, sitting dead in a chair with a bullet wound in her head and a .32 caliber automatic at her feet.

A daughter, Teresa, 8, was found lying on a couch in the living room with a bullet wound in the head.

Upstairs, Cox found his 5-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, on a bed with a plastic bag tied over her head. His 10-year-old son was on the floor. He had been hit on the head several times and a stocking tightly knotted around his neck. A hammer was near the body.

Sheriff Harley Wornstaff said the house was covered with blood and there was evidence that a fierce struggle had occurred between the boy and his mother.

The hysterial father is in Jane Case Hospital here suffering from shock.

He said his wife had been depressed for about six months and had had some mental treatments.

He said he left his home, which overlooks Hoover Dam about 15 miles north of Columbus, about 2 a.m. Sunday and did not return from a Pennsylvania Railroad run to Sandusky and back until 9:10 a.m. Monday. He got home about 10 a.m.

A neighbor reported seeing Denny playing in the area Sunday.

Wornstaff ordered autopsies on all of the victims but said:

"It looks as if Mrs. Cox killed the three children and then took her own life."

The house was described as neat and clean.

Neighbors said Cox was very proud of the home and living in the country. The family had moved there from Columbus about two years ago. Mrs. Cox, however, wanted to move back to the city, it was reported.

West Virginia Boxer Out Of Hospital Bed

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (AP)—Boxer Tunney Hunsaker, out of his hospital bed yesterday for the first time since he was severely injured in a match more than two weeks ago, may be able to go home tomorrow.

This was reported by Dr. E. L. Gage, who performed two brain operations on the 32 - year - old heavyweight after he was knocked out by Joe Shelton of Cleveland at Beckley last April 6.

Dr. Gage said Hunsaker was able to walk with some support yesterday and his condition is "quite satisfactory."

British Auto Ace Injured

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Stirling Moss, daredevil ace of British auto racing, lay unconscious and seriously injured in this world tennis capital today.

He was under observation for head injuries described as "moderately severe" and doctors said an operation was being considered.

Moss, 32, has survived some 20 crashes during his racing career. He had his latest brush with death before a huge Easter holiday crowd watching a 100-mile international race for Grand Prix cars at the Goodwood Auto Circuit Monday.

Moss' V-8 Lotus spun off the track at more than 100 miles an hour and he was pinned in the wreckage for half an hour while rescuers with hacksaws and bolt cutters struggled to free him. In addition to head injuries, he has an injured leg and lacerations.

Monday's crash came after he set a new lap record of 105.37 m.p.h. Eyewitnesses thought it was caused by a throttle which jammed open.

Ordinance Bans Sidewalk Display Of Merchandise

Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi today warned merchants they are liable to prosecution under a city ordinance prohibiting the display of merchandise on sidewalks.

Because of several complaints, Chief Radeschi said he has instructed police officers to enforce the city ordinance. Here's the text of the city law:

"No person shall sell, offer for sale or exhibit for sale any goods, merchandise or medicines on any sidewalk within the corporate limits of the city. No person shall put or place any goods, merchandise or medicines on any sidewalk for the purpose of exhibiting such goods, merchandise or medicines.

"Nothing in this section shall prohibit any person from occupying any sidewalk with a showcase two feet or less in width. . . . Such showcase and space shall be immediately in front of and adjoining the house or building occupied by the person maintaining such showcase. All such showcases. . .shall be securely and entirely enclosed."

The law provides those who violate provisions of the section guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $50 to $100 and costs.

Suit For $1,342 Filed Over Pupil Transportation

LISBON — Ancil Jones of near Summitville filed suit Monday for $1,342 against two school boards, seeking compensation for hauling his children from their home on Route 644 in Washington Township to a point where they are picked up by the school bus.

The Columbiana County Board of Education and the Southern Local board were named defendants.

Jones claims in his petition that for the school years of 1958-59, 1959-60 and 1960-61 he failed to receive any reimbursement for transportation of his children to the bus stop, which is 1.8 miles from his home. In the 1961-62 term, the Southern Local Board began paying him $1 per day.

He claims he is entitled to $2 per day for the 516 days in the three school terms for which he hasn't received anything and $1 more per day for the 145 days in this term for which he was paid only $1.

The school boards claim the lane to the Jones home is private and that they are not required to send the bus down the lane. Both boards agreed that the $1 per day for transportation is sufficient for the mileage he covers, which amounts to 3.6 miles per day when the Southern Local schools are in session.

Violence Sifted In Deaths Of Mother And 3 Children

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — Authorities worked today to try to piece together a story of violence which left a 37-year-old mother and her three children dead.

The four bodies were found Monday when the husband and father, Wallace D. Cox, returned from a railroad run.

Instead of hearing the yells of happy children, Cox, a railroad engineer, found his wife, Janice, sitting dead in a chair with a bullet wound in her head and a .32 caliber automatic at her feet.

A daughter, Teresa, 8, was found lying on a couch in the living room with a bullet wound in the head.

Upstairs, Cox found his 5-year-old daughter, Elizabeth, on a bed with a plastic bag tied over her head. His 10-year-old son was on the floor. He had been hit on the head several times and a stocking tightly knotted around his neck. A hammer was near the body.

Sheriff Harley Wornstaff said the house was covered with blood and there was evidence that a fierce struggle had occurred between the boy and his mother.

The hysterial father is in Jane Case Hospital here suffering from shock.

He said his wife had been depressed for about six months and had had some mental treatments.

He said he left his home, which overlooks Hoover Dam about 15 miles north of Columbus, about 2 a.m. Sunday and did not return from a Pennsylvania Railroad run to Sandusky and back until 9:10 a.m. Monday. He got home about 10 a.m.

A neighbor reported seeing Denny playing in the area Sunday.

Wornstaff ordered autopsies on all of the victims but said:

"It looks as if Mrs. Cox killed the three children and then took her own life."

The house was described as neat and clean.

Neighbors said Cox was very proud of the home and living in the country. The family had moved there from Columbus about two years ago. Mrs. Cox, however, wanted to move back to the city, it was reported.

West Virginia Boxer Out Of Hospital Bed

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. (AP)—Boxer Tunney Hunsaker, out of his hospital bed yesterday for the first time since he was severely injured in a match more than two weeks ago, may be able to go home tomorrow.

This was reported by Dr. E. L. Gage, who performed two brain operations on the 32 - year - old heavyweight after he was knocked out by Joe Shelton of Cleveland at Beckley last April 6.

Dr. Gage said Hunsaker was able to walk with some support yesterday and his condition is "quite satisfactory."

British Auto Ace Injured

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Stirling Moss, daredevil ace of British auto racing, lay unconscious and seriously injured in this world tennis capital today.

He was under observation for head injuries described as "moderately severe" and doctors said an operation was being considered.

Moss, 32, has survived some 20 crashes during his racing career. He had his latest brush with death before a huge Easter holiday crowd watching a 100-mile international race for Grand Prix cars at the Goodwood Auto Circuit Monday.

Moss' V-8 Lotus spun off the track at more than 100 miles an hour and he was pinned in the wreckage for half an hour while rescuers with hacksaws and bolt cutters struggled to free him. In addition to head injuries, he has an injured leg and lacerations.

Monday's crash came after he set a new lap record of 105.37 m.p.h. Eyewitnesses thought it was caused by a throttle which jammed open.

Ordinance Bans Sidewalk Display Of Merchandise

Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi today warned merchants they are liable to prosecution under a city ordinance prohibiting the display of merchandise on sidewalks.

Because of several complaints, Chief Radeschi said he has instructed police officers to enforce the city ordinance. Here's the text of the city law:

"No person shall sell, offer for sale or exhibit for sale any goods, merchandise or medicines on any sidewalk within the corporate limits of the city. No person shall put or place any goods, merchandise or medicines on any sidewalk for the purpose of exhibiting such goods, merchandise or medicines.

"Nothing in this section shall prohibit any person from occupying any sidewalk with a showcase two feet or less in width. . . . Such showcase and space shall be immediately in front of and adjoining the house or building occupied by the person maintaining such showcase. All such showcases. . .shall be securely and entirely enclosed."

The law provides those who violate provisions of the section guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $50 to $100 and costs.

Suit For $1,342 Filed Over Pupil Transportation

LISBON — Ancil Jones of near Summitville filed suit Monday for $1,342 against two school boards, seeking compensation for hauling his children from their home on Route 644 in Washington Township to a point where they are picked up by the school bus.

The Columbiana County Board of Education and the Southern Local board were named defendants.

Jones claims in his petition that for the school years of 1958-59, 1959-60 and 1960-61 he failed to receive any reimbursement for transportation of his children to the bus stop, which is 1.8 miles from his home. In the 1961-62 term, the Southern Local Board began paying him $1 per day.

He claims he is entitled to $2 per day for the 516 days in the three school terms for which he hasn't received anything and $1 more per day for the 145 days in this term for which he was paid only $1.

The school boards claim the lane to the Jones home is private and that they are not required to send the bus down the lane. Both boards agreed that the $1 per day for transportation is sufficient for the mileage he covers, which amounts to 3.6 miles per day when the Southern Local schools are in session.

DICK TRACY

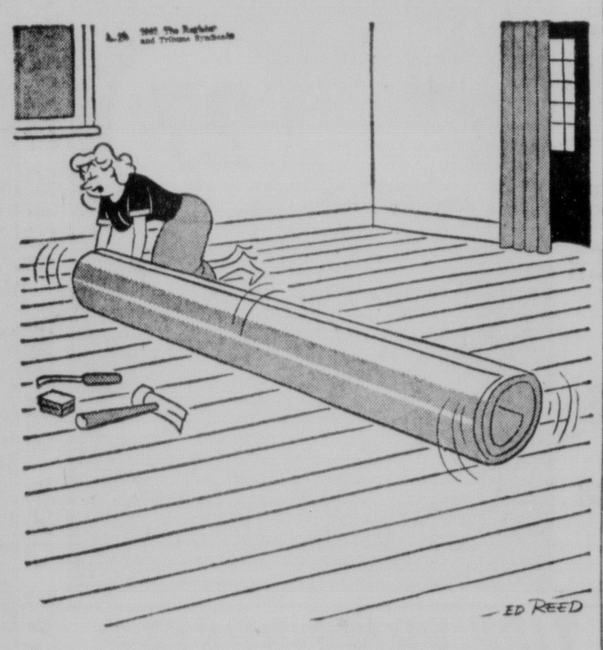

STEVE CANYON

SECRET AGENT

OFF THE RECORD

"Rollo, are you sure you don't want any help with the linoleum?"

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove grease stains from plastered walls and thus prevent their bleeding through new wallpaper?

A. Tape a paper pocket over the stained area, then fill this pocket with some fuller's earth. Remove the whole business after the fuller's earth has absorbed all the grease.

Q. How can I make a limed-oak furniture finish?

A. Stir one pound of unslaked lime into two quarts of water. Rub this across the grain of the wood, and wipe when partly dry (to prevent accumulation of excess lime). Seal with two coats of thin white shellac, and finish with a thin coat of paraffin wax.

Q. What can I do if some oil from my sewing machine has spotted the fabric on which I have been sewing?

A. Apply immediately a liberal coating of talcum powder, let this stand for 15 to 20 minutes, then brush off. Repeat the process, if necessary.

Q. How can I protect a freshly-wound hank of yarn from moths?

A. If you'll wind your yarn on a mothball, the pests will be discouraged from using it for an eating treat.

Q. What can I do when screw holes have become so worn that the threads will not hold?

A. A small amount of steel wool packed into the hole will usually make the screw hold tightly. Another method is to insert a kitchen match into the worn screw hole, and then drive your screw back into this.

Q. How can I remedy scorched spots on cottons?

A. If these scorches are not too deeply burned in, try wetting them with water and covering with a thick paste of laundry starch. After this has dried, sponge it off with peroxide, iron the article, and put into the sun for a few hours.

Junior Editors Quiz on CUSTOMS

QUESTION: How did the handshake originate?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: The handshake was meaningful from the beginning. Men have almost always done quite a lot of fighting. At first they used only their hands. Then they became cleverer and used rocks and small weapons, some of which could be easily concealed in the hand. By the time of the Middle Ages men had advanced to using swords, along with smaller weapons. Therefore, when men wanted to show that they had friendly feelings toward each other and did not plan to harm one another, they would extend their hands. By grasping hands they proved that neither man held a weapon. As most people were right-handed, the right hand held the weapon. Thus, that was the hand to be grasped in a friendly gesture. Today, few people carry rocks clutched in their hands but the handshake has lived on as a simple and colorful way of saying "I like you and I trust you. Let's be friends."

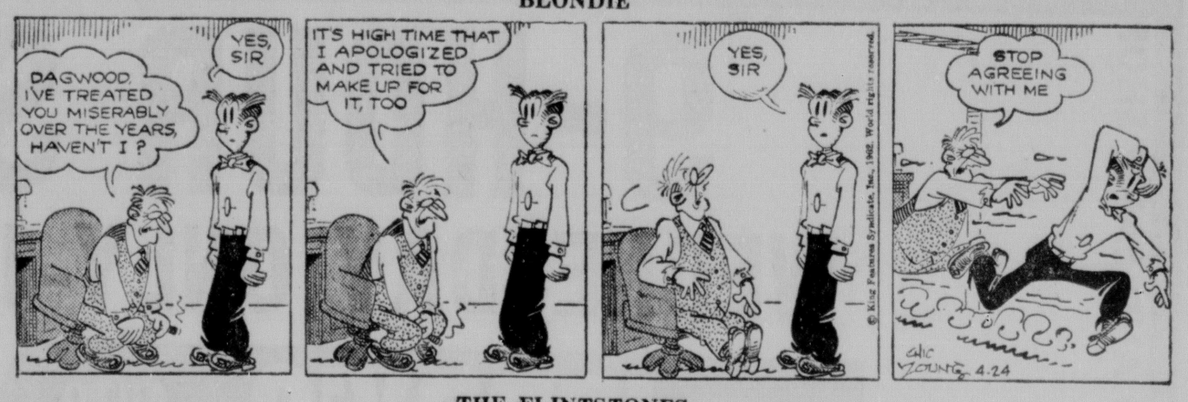

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: When men are introduced to each other, they always shake hands. Women sometimes shake hands with each other and sometimes they do not, depending upon whether they choose to do so. When a man is introduced to a woman, he waits for her to extend her hand. Men shake hands rather heartily, while women simply hold the hand of another woman or a man for a moment. Try these rules out with your friends. Practice them until they become a habit.

OFF THE RECORD

"Rollo, are you sure you don't want any help with the linoleum?"

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove grease stains from plastered walls and thus prevent their bleeding through new wallpaper?

A. Tape a paper pocket over the stained area, then fill this pocket with some fuller's earth. Remove the whole business after the fuller's earth has absorbed all the grease.

Q. How can I make a limed-oak furniture finish?

A. Stir one pound of unslaked lime into two quarts of water. Rub this across the grain of the wood, and wipe when partly dry (to prevent accumulation of excess lime). Seal with two coats of thin white shellac, and finish with a thin coat of paraffin wax.

Q. What can I do if some oil from my sewing machine has spotted the fabric on which I have been sewing?

A. Apply immediately a liberal coating of talcum powder, let this stand for 15 to 20 minutes, then brush off. Repeat the process, if necessary.

Q. How can I protect a freshly-wound hank of yarn from moths?

A. If you'll wind your yarn on a mothball, the pests will be discouraged from using it for an eating treat.

Q. What can I do when screw holes have become so worn that the threads will not hold?

A. A small amount of steel wool packed into the hole will usually make the screw hold tightly. Another method is to insert a kitchen match into the worn screw hole, and then drive your screw back into this.

Q. How can I remedy scorched spots on cottons?

A. If these scorches are not too deeply burned in, try wetting them with water and covering with a thick paste of laundry starch. After this has dried, sponge it off with peroxide, iron the article, and put into the sun for a few hours.

Junior Editors Quiz on CUSTOMS

QUESTION: How did the handshake originate?

ANSWER: The handshake was meaningful from the beginning. Men have almost always done quite a lot of fighting. At first they used only their hands. Then they became cleverer and used rocks and small weapons, some of which could be easily concealed in the hand. By the time of the Middle Ages men had advanced to using swords, along with smaller weapons. Therefore, when men wanted to show that they had friendly feelings toward each other and did not plan to harm one another, they would extend their hands. By grasping hands they proved that neither man held a weapon. As most people were right-handed, the right hand held the weapon. Thus, that was the hand to be grasped in a friendly gesture. Today, few people carry rocks clutched in their hands but the handshake has lived on as a simple and colorful way of saying "I like you and I trust you. Let's be friends."
